Escritoras y personajes femeninos en relación. Daniele Cerrato, 2021 El volumen Escritoras y personajes femeninos en relación se propone reflexionar sobre los vínculos que escritoras artistas e intelectuales mantienen tanto con los movimientos culturales que definieron su contexto histórico social como en sus nexos personales y profesionales indagando especialmente en las dificultades que afrontaron para afirmarse como sujetos de cultura de pleno derecho Se investigan por lo tanto las relaciones de sororidad colaboración o solidaridad pero también las rivalidades conflictos y enfrentamientos que caracterizaron las vidas de algunas mujeres a lo largo de la historia remarcando como el sistema patriarcal basándose en ejemplos aislados siempre ha intentado sostener la falta de alianza y amistad entre mujeres Otras cuestiones que se analizan en Escritoras y personajes femeninos en relación tienen que ver con la presencia ausencia de las mujeres no solo en nuestra cultura sino también en toda nuestra y con las

Latin American Writers , 1989 Discusses writers of the New World and provides a critical analyses of today s outstanding writers Literature and the Writer , 2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith, 1997-03-26 A comprehensive encyclopedic guide to the authors works and topics crucial to the literature of Central and South America and the Caribbean the Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature includes over 400 entries written by experts in the field of Latin American studies Most entries are of 1500 words but the encyclopedia also includes survey articles of up to 10 000 words on the literature of individual countries of the colonial period and of ethnic minorities including the Hispanic communities in the United States Besides presenting and illuminating the traditional canon the encyclopedia also stresses the contribution made by women authors and by contemporary writers Outstanding Reference Source Outstanding Reference Book Reality in Movement Maarten van Delden, 2021-03-15 In the last couple of decades there has been a surge of interest in Octavio Paz's life and work and a number of important books have been published on Paz However most of these books are of a biographical nature or they examine Paz's role in the various intellectual initiatives he headed in Mexico specifically the journals he founded Reality in Movement looks at a wide range of topics of interest in Paz's career including his engagement with the subversive adversary strain in Western culture his meditations on questions of cultural identity and intercultural contact his dialogue with both leftist and conservative ideological traditions his interest in feminism and psychoanalysis and his theory of poetry It concludes with a chapter on Octavio Paz as a literary character a kind of reception study Offering a complex and nuanced portrait of Paz as a writer and thinker as well as an understanding of the era in which he lived Reality in Movement will appeal to students of Octavio Paz and of Mexican literature more generally and to readers with an interest in the many significant literary cultural political and historical topics Paz wrote about over the course of his long career

The Shattered Mirror María Elena de Valdés, 2010-07-05 Popular images of women in Mexico conveyed through literature and more recently film and television were long restricted to either the stereotypically submissive wife and mother or the demonized fallen woman But new representations of women and their roles in Mexican society have shattered the ideological mirrors that reflected these images This book explores this major change in the literary representation of women in Mexico Mar a Elena de Vald s enters into a selective and hard hitting examination of literary representation in its social context and a contestatory engagement of both the literary text and its place in the social reality of Mexico Some of the topics she considers are Carlos Fuentes and the subversion of the social codes for women the poetic ties between Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and Octavio Paz questions of female identity in the writings of Rosario Castellanos Luisa Josefina Hernández Mar a Luisa Puga and Elena Poniatowska the Chicana writing of Sandra Cisneros and the postmodern celebration without reprobation of being a woman in Laura Esquivel's Like Water for Chocolate

Biron, 2012-12-15 Elena Garro and Mexico's Modern Dreams uses Elena Garro's eccentric life and work as a lens through which to examine mid twentieth century Mexican intellectuals desire to reconcile mexicanidad with modernidad The famously scandalous first wife of Nobel Prize winner poet Octavio Paz and an award winning author in her own right Garro constructed a mysterious and often contradictory persona through her very public participation in Mexican political conflicts Herself an anxious and contentious Mexican writer Elena Garro elicited profound political and aesthetic anxiety in her Mexican readers She confused the personal and the public in her creative fictions as well as in her vision of Mexican modernity This violation of key distinctions rendered her largely illegible to her contemporaries That illegibility serves as a symptom of unacknowledged desires that motivate twentieth century views of national modernity Taken together Garro's public persona and critical perspective expose the anxieties regarding ethnicity gender economic class and professional identity that define Mexican modernity Blending cultural studies and detailed literary analysis with political and intellectual history Mexico's Modern Dreams argues that in addition to the intriguing gossip she elicited in literary and political circles Garro produced a radical critique of Mexican modernity Her critique applies as well to the nation's twenty first century crisis of globalization state power and pervasive violence Paris and the Marginalized Author Valérie K. Orlando, Pamela A. Pears, 2018-10-15 This volume of essays explores what it is that has brought marginalized and often exiled writers seen as treacherous alienated and or queer by their societies and nations together by way of Paris Spanning from the inter war period of the late 1920s to the present millennium this volume considers many seminal questions that have influenced and continue to shape the realm of exiled writers who have sought refuge in Paris in order to write Additionally the volume s essays seek to define alienation and marginalization as not solely subscribing to any single denominator sexual preference gender or nationality but rather as shared modes of being that allow authors to explore what it is to write from abroad in a place that is foreign yet freed of the constrictions of one s home space What makes Paris a particularly fruitful space that has allowed these authors and their writings to cross national ethnic racial religious and linguistic boundaries for over a century What is it that brings together writers such as Moroccan Abdellah Ta a Americans James Baldwin Richard Wright and most recently Ta Nehisi Coates and Shay Youngblood Algerian Nabile Far s Franco Algerian Leila Sebbar Canadian Nancy Huston French Jean Genet and French Vietnamese Linda L How do their representations and understanding of transgression and marginalization transcend national linguistic and ethnic boundaries leading ultimately to revolution both literary and literal How does their writing help us to trace the history of Paris as a literary and artistic capital that has been useful for authors exploration of the Self race and home country These are but a few of the many questions explored in this volume This book relies on an inherently intersectional approach which is not based in reified identities whether they be LGBT postcolonial ethnic national or linguistic Instead we posit that for example queer theory and a politics of difference i can help us investigate the dynamics of these multiple identity positions and hence provide a broader understanding of the lived experiences of these writers and perhaps their readers from the early 1940s to the present

Rescatando a Helena Francisca Gómez Seijo, 2023-12-31 Transcending the dialectic between appearance and reality Euripides succeeded in giving human intelligibility to a new Helena who never loved Paris nor fled with him Menelaus wife must vindicate to her newfound husband that she is the real Helena quite different from the ghost that the hero brought with him from Troy The volume analyzes the various resources of re characterization of Helena in Euripides tragedy
