Interpreting Science at Museums and Historic Sites Debra A. Reid, Karen-Beth G. Scholthof, David D. Vail, 2023-09-11 Ask not what science can do for you but what public history can do for science Interpreting Science in Museums and Historic Sites stresses the untapped potential of historical artifacts to inform our understanding of scientific topics It argues that science gains ground when contextualized in museums and historic sites Engaging audiences in conversations about hot topics such as health and medical sciences or climate change and responses to it mediated by a history museum can emphasize scientific rigor and the time lag between discovery and confirmation of societal benefit Interpreting Science emphasizes the urgency of this work provides a toolkit to start and sustain the work shares case studies that model best practice and resources useful to facilitate and sustain a science infused public history      The Poetics of Information Overload Paul Stephens, 2015-07-30 Information overload is a subject of vital ubiquitous concern in our time The Poetics of Information Overload reveals a fascinating genealogy of information saturation through the literary lens of American modernism Although technology has typically been viewed as hostile or foreign to poetry Paul Stephens outlines a countertradition within twentieth and twenty first century literature in which avant garde poets are centrally involved with technologies of communication data storage and bureaucratic control Beginning with Gertrude Stein and Bob Brown Stephens explores how writers have been preoccupied with the effects of new media since the advent of modernism He continues with the postwar writing of Charles Olson John Cage Bern Porter Hannah Weiner Bernadette Mayer Lyn Hejinian and Bruce Andrews and concludes with a discussion of conceptual writing produced in the past decade By reading these works in the context of information systems Stephens shows how the poetry of the past century has had as a primary focus the role of data in human life      Modernism the Morning After Bob Perelman,2017-04-18 In Modernism the Morning After Bob Perelman scrutinizes a number of long held modernist dogmas in order to articulate a more capacious model for thinking about modernism past present and future Throughout his career Perelman has focused on the persistence of modernist ambition in poetry with all of its admirable articulations and tragicomic short circuits Poetry it turns out is not simply news that stays news as Ezra Pound postulated Instead as Perelman demonstrates poetry often gropes toward whatever news can be found in the broader contexts of public speech the cultural commons the almost real or much too real language of people and our hyperactive media Book jacket      Faith Reflections Matt Garvin,2010-12-29 This book is a collection of reflections from my blog Faith Reflections I have always been a bit suspicious of religious people and the blog is not about religion For me faith is a living thing It is a relationship that affects every part of life I wish it was always like that for me honestly its not but its what I want my life to be about I m on a journey of learning Learning how to be a husband Learning how to be a father Learning how to be a leader Learning how to be a golfer Learning how to live Faith I really don t have the answers but I wonder whether it might be worth sharing some of my learning along the journey      The Poem Electric Seth Perlow,2018-12-18 An enlightening examination of the relationship between poetry and the information technologies increasingly used to read and write it Many poets and their readers believe poetry helps us escape straightforward logical ways of thinking But what happens when poems confront the extraordinarily rational information technologies that are everywhere in the academy not to mention everyday life Examining a broad array of electronics including the radio telephone tape recorder Cold War era computers and modern day web browsers Seth Perlow considers how these technologies transform poems that we don t normally consider digital From fetishistic attachments to digital images of Emily Dickinson s manuscripts to Jackson Mac Low s appropriation of a huge book of random numbers originally used to design thermonuclear weapons these investigations take Perlow through a revealingly eclectic array of work offering both exciting new voices and reevaluations of poets we thought we knew With close readings of Gertrude Stein Frank O Hara Amiri Baraka and many others The Poem Electric constructs a distinctive lineage of experimental writers from the 1860s to today Ultimately Perlow mounts an important investigation into how electronic media allows us to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism Posing a necessary challenge to the privilege of information in the digital humanities The Poem Electric develops new ways of reading poetry alongside and against the electronic equipment that is now ubiquitous in our world      Everything Must Go Dorian Lynskey,2025-01-28 A rich captivating and darkly humorous look into the evolution of apocalyptic thought exploring how film and literature interact with developments in science politics and culture and what factors drive our perennial obsession with the end of the world As Dorian Lynskey writes People have been contemplating the end of the world for millennia In this immersive and compelling cultural history Lynskey reveals how religious prophecies of the apocalypse were secularized in the early 19th century by Lord Byron and Mary Shelley in a time of dramatic social upheaval and temporary climate change inciting a long tradition of visions of the end without gods With a discerning eye and acerbic wit Lynskey examines how various doomsday tropes and predictions in literature art music and film have arisen from contemporary anxieties whether they be comets pandemics world wars the Cuban Missile Crisis Y2K or the climate emergency Far from being grim Lynskey guides readers through a rich array of fascinating stories and surprising facts allowing us to keep company with celebrated works of art and the people who made them from H G Wells Jack London W B Yeats and J G Ballard to The Twilight Zone Dr Strangelove Mad Max and The Terminator Prescient and original Everything Must Go is a brilliant sweeping work of history that provides many astute insights for our times and speaks to our urgent concerns for the future
