design of si Trauma and the Memory of Politics Jenny Edkins,2003-07-31 In this interesting study Jenny Edkins explores how we remember traumatic events such as wars famines genocides and terrorism and questions the assumed role of commemorations as simply reinforcing state and nationhood Taking examples from the World Wars Vietnam the Holocaust Kosovo and September 11th Edkins offers a thorough discussion of practices of memory such as memorials museums remembrance ceremonies the diagnosis of post traumatic stress and the act of bearing witness She examines the implications of these commemorations in terms of language political power sovereignty and nationalism She argues that some forms of remembering do not ignore the horror of what happened but rather use memory to promote change and to challenge the political systems that produced the violence of wars and genocides in the first place This wide ranging study embraces literature history politics and international relations and makes a significant contribution to the study of memory Live Hopefully Lenya Heitzig,2018-01-01 This all new 20 minutes a day study of Nehemiah reminds readers that with God s help one person who is ready to do the impossible can change the world Hope is not wishful thinking It is a confident expectation for the future Nehemiah knew how to live with true hope After boldly requesting permission from the king to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem after the Babylonian exile he restored the city and called his people back to God Despite opposition on all sides Nehemiah saw God transform a cup bearer into a contractor ruins into a city and a wayward people into followers of God As Bible teacher Lenya Heitzig reminds readers in this new Fresh Life study God calls them to live boldly with a hope that only He can give Cultural Memory and Identity Politics Marita Sturken,1992 US Public Memory, Rhetoric, and the National Mall Roger C. Aden,2018-04-26 US Public Memory Rhetoric and the National Mall examines the nation s front yard understanding it as both a public face the United States presents to the world and a site where its less apparent moral story is told This book provides a uniquely thorough interdisciplinary and integrated examination of how the National Mall shares a moral story of the United States and in so doing reveals the soul of the nation The contributors explore 11 different memorials monuments and museums found across the Mall considering how each rhetorically remembers a key element of the nation s past what the rhetorical memory tells us about the nation s soul and how each site must thus be understood in relation to the commemorative landscape of the Mall War Memorial Sculptures Michael Davis,AI,2025-02-26 War Memorial Sculptures examines how societies remember and represent war through public monuments revealing the stories etched in stone and bronze These sculptures often seen as objective tributes are actually complex narratives reflecting values ideologies and power dynamics The book argues that war memorials are never neutral they are carefully crafted to shape national identity and promote specific interpretations of military history The book delves into the evolution of war memorial design tracing its path from classical triumphal arches to modern abstract forms showcasing how artistic styles mirror shifting attitudes towards war Case studies from various locations and time periods analyze the choices sculptors make in portraying heroism sacrifice and the human cost of conflict Controversies surrounding war memorials including debates over historical accuracy and representation are also explored offering insight into why some public monuments spark intense debate The approach is both academic and accessible using archival documents photographs and critical analyses to unpack the sociopolitical context of these monuments Structured into three major sections the book progresses from introducing design evolution to examining specific monuments and analyzing controversies providing a comprehensive understanding of how public art shapes our collective memory of military events

Symbolic Loss Peter Homans, 2000 Historically many world cultures have linked three disparate phenomena collective loss mourning and the construction of monuments and cultural symbols to represent the loss over time and render it memorable meaningful and thereby bearable In a century of great loss observers of western culture have commented on the decline of mourning practices and the absence of their associated rituals The ten essays assembled here by Peter Homans represent in a genuinely interdisciplinary way the recent work of scholars attempting to understand this trend Arranged in sections on cultural studies architecture history and psychology this accessible collection can serve as an introduction to the uses of mourning in contemporary cultures Contributors Paul A Anderson University of Michigan Doris L Bergen University of Notre Dame Mitchell Breitwieser University of California Berkeley Peter Homans University of Chicago Patrick H Hutton University of Vermont Marie Claire Lavabre National Institute for Scientific Research Paris Peter C Shabad Northwestern University Medical School and Columbia Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center Levi P Smith Art Institute of Chicago Julia Stern Northwestern University James E Young University of Massachusetts Amherst
