Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos,2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du

Bos was influenced by John Locke's empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language

Reflections of the Past Rachelle Berger,2024-08-30 Poems of sentiment and reflection ,1915 Reflections Nisha Verma,2020-07-23 Love is a beautiful feeling Very few have been blessed their entire life with it while few others are still blessed with a glimpse of it This book is a simple collection of all feelings and thoughts that we all run through fight with and shy from Dedicated to all who really have been there those who can relate and understand These words mean something to those who have loved and especially to those who have loved once and lost forever Read the book on a nice rainy evening with a cup of tea in your hands Enjoy the moment moment of being ALIVE Read this and turn the pages of your past smile and move on The past can't be forgotten but should never deter you from moving ahead At times it's quintessential to know where you have reached from where you were left abandoned Read through and feel each word The River Duddon.

Joyce,2024-12-15 In A Serpentine Gesture John Ashbery's Poetry and Phenomenology Elisabeth W Joyce examines John Ashbery's poetry through the lens of Maurice Merleau Ponty's conception of phenomenology For Merleau Ponty perception is a process through which people reach outside of themselves for sensory information map that experiential information against what they have previously encountered and what is culturally inculcated in them and articulate shifts in their internal repositories through encounters with new material Joyce argues that this process reflects Ashbery's classic statement of poetry being the experience of experience Through incisive close readings of Ashbery's poems Joyce examines how he explores this process of continual reverberation between what is sensed and what is considered about that sensation and ultimately how he renders these perceptions into the serpentine gesture of language Presence Past Sue Stearns Newall,2012-08-01 The poems contained herein were written over a period of years and speak to the human condition Hold up these poems to a mirror and you will see some part of yourself gazing back This poetry collection encompasses a wide variety of topics and styles It is divided into four general thematic sections The first section Love and Loss addresses how love the most powerful and poignant of human emotions cannot truly be understood until we experience its dark companion loss The second section Hope and Despair is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit The third section Life and Time reflects upon these universals The fourth and final section Past and Presence ponders a variety of topics and also includes some heartfelt tributes Reflections on Poetry and the World Emily Grosholz,2020-12-18 This collection brings together 40 years of essays about poetry and literature written by Emily Grosholz The first section includes essays about some of her favorite poets and thinkers in the United States England France and Germany The second section brings poetry into relation with ethics politics and practical deliberation and the third considers it alongside science and imagination The last section is an homage to The Hudson Review for whom she has served as an Advisory Editor for many years As a philosopher Emily Grosholz has written and thought about feminism racism and mathematics and science which has led her to admire all the more the distinct wisdom of poetry These essays show how poetry reorganized language and memory eros and experience and time and place and how and why it deepens our understanding of life Past reflections James Thomson (Poet),2023
