A Blueprint for Reform. The Reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act Department of Education (ED), Office of Planning, Evaluation and Policy Development, 2010 On Saturday March 13 the Obama administration released its blueprint for revising the Elementary and Secondary Education Act ESEA which would ask states to adopt college and career ready standards and reward schools for producing dramatic gains in student achievement The proposal challenges the nation to embrace educational standards that would put America on a path to global leadership The blueprint provides incentives for states to adopt academic standards that prepare students to succeed in college and the workplace and create accountability systems that measure student growth toward meeting the goal that all children graduate and succeed in college This blueprint builds on the significant reforms already made in response to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 around four areas 1 Improving teacher and principal effectiveness to ensure that every classroom has a great teacher and every school has a great leader 2 Providing information to families to help them evaluate and improve their children s schools and to educators to help them improve their students learning 3 Implementing college and career ready standards and developing improved assessments aligned with those standards and 4 Improving student learning and achievement in America s lowest performing schools by providing intensive support and effective interventions Incorporating and extending
