Why are material objects so prominent in European Romantic literature both as symbol and organizing device This collection of essays maintains that European Romantic culture and its aesthetic artifacts were fundamentally shaped by object aesthetics an artistic idiom of acknowledging through a profound and often disruptive use of objects the movement of Western aesthetic practice into Romantic self projection and imagination Of course Romanticism in all its dissonance and anxiety is marked by a number of new artistic practices all of which make up a new aesthetics accounting for the dialectical and symbolistic view of literature that began in the late eighteenth century Romanticism and the Object adds to our understanding of that aesthetics by reexamining a wide range of texts in order to discover how the use of objects works in the literature of the time      Statecraft Giambattista Vico,2004 Military leader Carafa s 1642 93 nephew and heir commissioned his old teacher and friend Vico 1668 1744 to write a biography of his uncle and provided him with all the documents and correspondence available Carafa had major responsibilities in the war between the Hapsburg and the Turks and his biography tells of the princes potentates mighty personages and machinations of the two political and religious superpowers of the 18th century Pinton an American scholar of philosophy and theology who has translated three other works by Vico offers evidence that challenges Carafa s widespread reputation as the Butcher of Eperjes Annotation 2004
