History of the Reformed Church, Dutch Edward Tanjore Corwin, 1902 The Dutch Reformed Church in the American Colonies Gerald Francis De Jong, 1978 The Dutch Reformed Church in the American Colonies remains the best study of the early years of the Reformed Church in North America De Jong's careful account takes the readers on a fascinating journey from the establishment of a Dutch church at a mill in New Amsterdam to the early years of an indigenous American denomination Along the way we become acquainted with issues in the colonial period that are pertinent in the twenty first century for the Reformed Church in America church multiplication leadership training discipleship regional tensions adaptation to cultural changes worship and liturgy De Jong helps us to see that in many respects the more things change the more they remain the same The Rev Dennis N Voskuil Ph D President and De Witt Professor of Church History Western Theological Seminary Holland Michigan The reissue of De Jong's classic study is very welcome Though of course there has been other important work on various aspects of the colonial Dutch Reformed experience in the thirty years since the book's first appearance still it remains the standard comprehensive account a careful and thorough work that shows a mastery of the sources and sticks close to them The Rev John Coakley Ph D L Russel Feakes Professor of Church History New Brunswick Theological Seminary New Brunswick New Jersey A Concise History of the Polish Reformed Church Roman K. Austin Friars J. Lindeboom, 1950 To anyone at all acquainted with the place which the Dutch Reformed Church in London has occupied during the centuries it will not cause surprise to hear that I hesitated for a moment before accepting the invitation from its Council to relate the history of the Church on the occasion of its four hundredth anniversary Not much time was left and the material was voluminous Only few church communities possess such a wealth of written documents bearing on their past history or have been the centre to the same extent of so many varied activities However there were considerations on the other side which made me decide to undertake the work The extensive archives of the Church are well arranged and well preserved The most important part the voluminous correspondence consisting mainly of letters addressed to the Church Council has been made available in a highly meritorious manner by J H Hessels publication Ec clesiae LondinoBatavae Archivum Only a small part of the often very detailed minutes of the Council meetings has been published but these pUblications by Dr A Kuyper and Dr A A van Schelven cover two very important periods in the history of the Church In addition there are the pUblications of the Marnix Society viz Ruytinck s Gheschiedenissen Hi story and its sequels and the Acta of the Colloquia of the Dutch church communities in England History of the Swiss Reformed Church Since the Reformation James Isaac Good, 1913 A History of the Evangelical and Reformed Church David Dunn, 1961

Sadrach's Community and its Contextual Roots Sutarman Soediman Patronadi, 2024-01-08 Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious intercultural comparative postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes Possible domains interreligious studies intercultural theology and philosophy comparative theology and philosophy theologies of religions Reformed Church Roots Arie R.
