International Handbook of Educational Policy Nina Bascia, Alister Cumming, Amanda Datnow, Kenneth Leithwood, David Livingstone, 2008-05-14 Nina Bascia Alister Cumming Amanda Datnow Kenneth Leithwood and David Livingstone This Handbook presents contemporary and emergent trends in educational policy research in over fifty chapters written by nearly ninety leading researchers from a number of countries It is organized into five broad sections which capture many of the current dominant educational policy foci and at the same time situate current understandings historically in terms of both how they are conceptualized and in terms of past policy practice The chapters themselves are empirically grounded providing illustrations of the conceptual implications contained within them as well as allowing for comparisons across them The serendipity within chapters with respect to jurisdictional particularities and contexts allows readers to consider not only a range of approaches to policy analysis but also the ways in which policies and policy ideas play out in different times and places The sections move from a focus on prevailing policy tendencies through increasingly critical and outsider perspectives on policy They address in turn the contemporary strategic emphasis on large scale reform substantive emphases at several levels on leadership and governance improving teacher quality and conceptualizing learning in various domains around the notion of literacies and concluding finally with a contrasting topic workplace learning which has had less policy attention and thus allows readers to consider both the advantages and disadvantages of learning and teaching under the bright gaze of policy
