Reframing Of Realism:

The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold, 1993 In the writing of Benito Pérez Galdós Spain's most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Galdós's methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist's art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Galdós's novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Galdós's work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Galdós's fiction confirms the author's own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity

Galdós Beyond Realism Timothy Michael McGovern,2004 Realist Poetics in American Culture, 1866-1900 Elizabeth Renker,2018 Examines the works of a diverse range of realist poets to redefine the significance of poetry to the genre of realism during the postbellum period in American literature Realism for the Masses Chris Vials,2010-04-13 Realism for the Masses is an exploration of how the concept of realism entered mass culture and from there how it tried to remake America The literary and artistic creations of American realism are generally associated with the late nineteenth century But this book argues that the aesthetic actually saturated American culture in the 1930s and 1940s and that the Left social movements of the period were in no small part responsible The book examines the prose of Carlos Bulosan and H T Tsiang the photo essays of Margaret Bourke White in Life magazine the bestsellers of Erskine Caldwell and Margaret Mitchell the boxing narratives of Clifford Odets Richard Wright Nelson Algren and the Hollywood boxing film radio soap operas and the domestic dramas of Lillian Hellman and Shirley Graham and more These writers and artists infused realist aesthetics into American mass culture to an unprecedented degree and also built on a tradition of realism in order to inject influential definitions of the people into American popular entertainment Central to this book is the relationship between these mass cultural realisms and emergent notions of pluralism Significantly Vials identifies three nascent pluralisms of the 1930s and 1940s the New Deal pluralism of We re the People in The Grapes of Wrath the racially inclusive pluralism of Vice President Henry Wallace s The People s Century and the proto Cold War pluralism of Henry Luce s The American Century
