Immigrant and Asylum Seekers Labour Market Integration upon Arrival: NowHereLand Irina Isaakyan,Anna Triandafyllidou,Simone Baglioni,2022-11-18 Through an inter subjective lens this open access book investigates the initial labour market integration experiences of these migrants refugees or asylum seekers who are characterised by different biographies and migration asylum trajectories The book gives voice to the migrants and seeks to highlight their own experiences and understandings of the labour market integration process in the first years of immigration It adopts a critical qualitative perspective but does not remain ethnographic The book rather refers the migrants own voice and experience to their own expert knowledge of the policy and socio economic context that is navigated Each chapter brings into dialogue the migrant s intersubjective experiences with the relevant policies and practices as well as with the relevant stakeholders whether local government national services civil society or migrant organisations The book concludes with relevant critical insights as to how labour market integration is lived on the ground and on what migrants do with labour market policies rather than on what labour market policies do to or for migrants

Body Counts Yen Le Espiritu,2014-08-23 Body Counts The Vietnam War and Militarized Refuge es examines how the Vietnam War has continued to serve as a stage for the shoring up of American imperialist adventure and for the re production of American and Vietnamese American identities Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration this book retheorizes the connections among history memory and power and refashions the fields of American studies Asian American studies and refugee studies not around the narratives of American exceptionalism immigration and transnationalism but around the crucial issues of war race and violence and the history and memories that are forged in the aftermath of war At the same time the book moves decisively away from the damage centered approach that pathologizes loss and trauma by detailing how first and second generation Vietnamese have created alternative memories and epistemologies that challenge the established public narratives of the Vietnam War and Vietnamese people Explicitly interdisciplinary Body Counts moves between the humanities and social sciences drawing on historical ethnographic cultural and virtual evidence in order to illuminate the places where Vietnamese refugees have managed to conjure up social public and collective remembering The League of Nations and the Refugees from Nazi Germany Greg Burgess, 2016-10-20 Greg Burgess's important new study explores the short life of the High Commission for Refugees Jewish and Other Coming from Germany from its creation by the League of Nations in October 1933 to the resignation of High Commissioner James G McDonald in December 1935 The book relates the history of the first stage of refugees from Germany through the prism of McDonald and the High Commission It analyses the factors that shaped the Commission's formation the undertakings the Commission embarked upon and its eventual failure owing to external complications The League of Nations and the Refugees from Nazi Germany argues that in spite of the Commission's failure the refugees from Nazi Germany and the High Commission's work mark a turn in conceptions of international humanitarian responsibilities when a state defies standards of proper behaviour towards its citizens From this point on it was no longer considered sufficient or acceptable for states to respect the sovereign rights of another if the rights of citizens were being violated Greg Burgess discusses this idea amongst others in detail as part of what is a crucial volume for all scholars and students of Nazi Germany the Holocaust and modern Jewish history A House Next Door to Trauma Judith Hassan, 2003-02-15 Judith Hassan's book discusses the kinds of demands placed on those who work with war survivors and opens up issues for others in the field of war trauma to answer in their own particular and appropriate way A House Next Door to Trauma points to a different way of becoming a neighbour to all those who suffer extreme war experiences Visual Securitization Alice Massari, 2021-05-18 This open access book offers an innovative account of how relief organizations' visual depiction of Syrian displacement contributes to reproduce and reinforce a securitized account of refugees Through visual analysis the book demonstrates how the securitization process takes place in three different ways First of all even if marginally it occurs through the reproduction of mainstream media and political accounts that have depicted refugees in terms of threats Secondly and more consistently through a representation of Syrian displaced people that despite the undeniable innovative aesthetic patterns focusing on dignity and empowerment continue to reinforce a visual narrative around refugees in terms of victimhood and passivity The reproduction of a securitized account takes also place through the dialectic between what is made visible in the pictures and what is not At the same time the book identifies visual glimmers and minor displacements in the humanitarian discourse that have the potentiality to produce alternative discourses on refugees and displacement beyond the mainstream securitized ones By showing how relief organizations' visual representation contributes to the securitization of the refugee issue this book provides a great resource to students and academics in migration visuality humanitarianism and securitization as well as social scientists and policy makers Administration's Proposed Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 1993 United States.
