Regaining Compassion For Humanity And Nature:

Regaining Compassion for Humanity and Nature Charles Birch, 1993 Birch convincingly argues that science and religion must come together if we are to heal and renew our planet Earth Revealing; Earth Healing Denis Edwards, 2015-05-15 The damage human beings are doing to the atmosphere the seas the rivers the land and the life forms of the planet is extreme and deadly It constitutes a crisis that demands all of humanity's wisdom ingenuity and commitment The whole human community needs to be involved in the response to this crisis young and old women and men farmers politicians gardeners teachers planners scientists engineers artists builders cooks and theologians In Earth Revealing Earth Healing the authors attempt to make clear the way in which Christian theology opens out into a theology of Earth revealing and challenges us towards a practice of Earth healing Earth Revealing Earth Healing offers a rethinking of theology as a significant part of the rethinking that the human community must do in its stance toward creation Aware that some theological attitudes have contributed to exploitative attitudes and to disregard for the good of the planet the contributors are also convinced that the biblical and theological tradition has resources that can be retrieved and developed as an ecological theology Such a theology can contribute to the healing of our planet The chapters of Earth Revealing Earth Healing stretch across a number of theological sub disciplines and related areas Among the perspectives from the Christian theological tradition there are reflections on the theology of the Trinity Christology Christian anthropology the theology of the Holy Spirit and contemporary feminist theology There are also more general philosophical and cultural perspectives including discussions of place and of landscape traditions Finally there are practical perspectives including discussions of globalization the challenge of suffering and bioethics Essays and contributors are The Landscape Tradition A Broader Vision for Ecotheology by Stephen Downs Globalization and Ecology by Christine Burke IBVM For Your Immortal Spirit Is in All Things The Holy Spirit in Creation by Denis Edwards Enfleshing the Human An Earth Revealing Earth Healing Christology by Duncan Reid God's Shattering Otherness The Trinity and Earth's Healing by Patricia Fox RSM Embracing Unloveliness Exploring Theology from the Dung heap by Lorna Hallahan Up Close and Personal In the End Matter Matters by Anthony Lowes The Relationship Quilt Feminism and the Healing of Nature by Lucy Larkin A Timely Reminder Humanity and Ecology in the Light of Christian Hope by Gregory Brett CM Ecotheology as a Plea for Place by Phillip Tolliday Situating Humanity Theological Anthropology in the Context of the Ecological Crisis by James McEvoy and Bioethics Ecology and Theology by Andrew Dutney Denis Edwards is a senior lecturer in systematic theology at Catholic Theological College and in the ecumenical consortium at the Adelaide College of Divinity Flinders University He has written other books on theology and is a priest of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point

Futures Beyond Dystopia Richard Slaughter,2004 How can dystopian futures help provide the motivation to change the ways we operate day to day This book raises and tackles a number of important questions about the future and the lessons we can learn for the present

Climate Change and Sustainable Agro-ecology in Global Drylands Adel El-Beltagy,Rattan Lal,Kausar Malik,2024-10-30 Drylands a home for nearly 2.5 billion people are highly vulnerable to anthropogenic climate change and dryland area may expand to 50% of the Earth s surface by 2100 Climate change may aggravate the prevalence of undernutrition and malnutrition because of adverse effects on quantity and quality of food production in these regions This book takes a holistic approach to sustainable management of drylands to make agriculture drought resilient Eminent scientists from around the world share their knowledge and experiences for adaptation and mitigation of the anthropogenic climate change through innovation in sustainable management of water soil crops livestock and fisheries They anticipate that climate change will have major impacts on agro ecosystems which requires continuous dynamic assessments globally regionally and at the local level where the major action of adaptation would have to occur The assessment will require international cooperation and national capacity building This book emphasizes approaches such as smart and precision agriculture conservation agriculture and new innovation and technology as tools for adaptation and mitigation Several chapters are devoted to the human dimensions and policy considerations with emphasis on enhancing coping and adaptive capacity This book addresses the picture after COP27 including loss and damage governance and finance This work will be valuable to students and researchers in agroecology climate change science and dryland agriculture

Greening Philosophy of Religion Jea Sophia Oh, John Quiring, 2024-07-08 Greening Philosophy of Religion Process Ecology and Ethics develops fruitful avenues for the theory and practice of greening philosophy of religion Collected with a pluralistic conception of both philosophy and religion the chapters in this volume address pressing and timely issues that involve imagining ecological democracy as an ideal horizon for facing climate catastrophe with a radical hope and sober vision for realizing a more sustainable planetary economy that places a high value on food sovereignty an ethic of trust and inter religious conversations Edited by Jea Sophia Oh and John Quiring this book offers a vital contribution to the fields of philosophy of religion environmental ethics religion and ecology comparative philosophy and ecotheology all tuned to the note of process thinking and a deep ecological sensibility

Creation as Sacrament John Chryssavgis, 2019-06-27 John Chryssavgis explores the sacred dimension of the natural environment and the significance of creation in the rich theological history and spiritual classics of the Orthodox Church through the lens of its unique ascetical liturgical and mystical experience The global ecological crisis affecting humanity's air water and land as well as the planet's flora and fauna has resulted in manifest fissures on the image of God in creation Chryssavgis examines from an Orthodox Christian perspective the possibility of restoring that shattered image through the sacramental lenses of cosmic transfiguration cosmic interconnection and cosmic reconciliation The viewpoints of early theologians and contemporary thinkers are extensively explored from a theological and spiritual perspective including countering those who deny that God's creation is in crisis Presenting a worldview advanced and championed by the Orthodox Church in the modern world this book encourages personal and societal transformation in making ethical and economic choices that respect creation as sacrament

Passion for Peace Stuart Rees, 2003 Passion for Peace considers the use of non violence and attaining human rights for all

It also raises questions about current issues including peace in the Middle East US unilateralism the war on terrorism powerlessness associated with poverty racism and justice for asylum seekers BOOK JACKET Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kuhlenbeck, 2010 The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Trialectics of Being and to bring it into the Trialectics fold alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing film art and through lived experience The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic

Martin Luther King, Jr., and the Theology of Resistance Rufus Burrow, Jr., 2014-11-19 It has been nearly fifty years since Martin Luther King Jr was assassinated at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis Tennessee Appraisals of King s contributions began almost immediately and continue to this day The author explores a great many of King s chief ideas and socio ethical practices his concept of a moral universe his doctrine of human dignity his belief that not all suffering is redemptive his brand of personalism his contribution to the development of social ethics the inclusion of young people in the movement sexism as a contradiction to his personalism the problem of black on black violence and others The book reveals both the strengths and the limitations in King s theological socio ethical project and shows him to have relentlessly applied personalist ideas to organized nonviolent resistance campaigns in order to change the world Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Human Natures Paul R. Ehrlich, 2001-12-31 Why do we behave the way we do Biologist Paul Ehrlich suggests that although people share a common genetic code these genes do not shout commands at us at the very most they whisper suggestions He argues that human nature is not so much result of genetic coding rather it is heavily influenced by cultural conditioning and environmental factors With personal anecdotes a well written narrative and clear examples Human Natures is a major work of synthesis and scholarship as well as a valuable primer on genetics and evolution that makes complex scientific concepts accessible to lay readers

The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without

Chance and Commitment Basil S. Hetzel, 2005

The work of Dr Basil Hetzel and his team of researchers has prevented and will continue to prevent millions of people worldwide from being born intellectually disabled In this memoir Hetzel recalls his discovery that a single dose of iodized oil added to the diet of pregnant women could eradicate the serious birth defects that had plagued many developing countries

Spiritual Evolution John Marks Templeton, K.S. Giniger, 1998-06 These personal essays by esteemed scientists worldwide describe the spiritual journeys they have taken Autohirs share their own experiences of learning to blend an understanding of the Divine with scientific perspectives Is It Too Late? John B. Cobb Jr., 2021-04-20 In the fifty years since its initial publication Is It Too Late has proven its prescience in ways both significant and dire As the first book length philosophical and theological analysis of the environmental crisis this work introduced a generation to the key elements of crisis while suggesting ways that religion can be a force for hope rather than an instrument of despair Covering an ambitious range of issues from deforestation to abortion from religious views of the natural world to the need for technological innovation to avoid nature s destruction John Cobb moves deftly from philosophical to theological to scientific learning and integrates these interdisciplinary insights into a compelling vision for what he calls a new Christianity Comprehensive in scope non technical in expression and concise in length Is It Too Late provides the scholar and the student alike with a readable and compelling orientation to the philosophical and theological stakes of ecology This Fortress edition includes a new preface in which Cobb reflects on the current situation the specific promises and perils we now face and how his own thinking on matters theological and ecological has evolved in the last half century Theories of Sustainable Development Judith C. Enders, Moritz Remig, 2014-10-24 While sustainability has become a buzzword in discussions about the environment and development work on theories of sustainable development has received much less attention However theory is vital as understanding the origins and development of the concept is the key to achieving successful implementation of sustainability This book offers an interdisciplinary collection of research articles on the theories of sustainable development drawing on a wide range of subjects including history politics governance complex systems economics and philosophy It advocates viewing sustainable development not only as the establishment of a permanent globally practicable and future capable mode of life and economics but as a complex array of problems involving a wide range of social scientific and humanistic disciplines This innovative approach means that the book is oriented toward current problems not toward the established academic boundaries and it draws out lessons that are relevant for those studying and working in sustainability across the world This book will be of great interest to researchers and students of sustainable development and environmental politics as well as practitioners working with sustainable development in politics business administration and civil society organizations Making Things Greener Mardie Townsend, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this volume looks at the potential and motivation for companies and industries to go green Mardie Townsend examines issues including human behaviour towards the environment structuration theory why companies go green and factors helping and hindering the greening of industry It emerged as part of an international monograph publishing series covering new research into the green issues such as government corporate and public responses to environmental hazards the economics of green policies and the effectiveness of environmental protection programmes Reading the Hebrew Bible for a New Millennium, Volume 1 Wonil Kim, 2000-08-01 Part of the Studies in Antiquity series these 21 essays feature interpretations of the Hebrew Bible using the comprehensive interpretive methodology developed by Rolf P Knierim
