Religion And Revelation A Theology Of Revelation In The Worlds Religions:

Religion and Revelation Keith Ward, 1994-09-30 Since first Thomas Aquinas defined theology as revelation or the rational elucidation of revealed truth the idea of revelation has played a fundamental role in the history of western theology This book provides a new and detailed investigation of the concept examining its nature sources and limitations in all five of the major scriptural religions of the world Christianity Judaism Islam Hinduism and Buddhism The first part of the book discusses the nature of theology and expounds the comparative method as the most useful and appropriate for the modern age Part Two focuses on the nature of religion and its early historical manifestations whilst the third part of the book goes on to consider the idea of revelation as found in the great canonical traditions of the religions of the world Part Four develops the distinctively Christian idea of revelation as divine self expression in history The final part of the book discusses how far the idea of revelation must be revised or adapted in the light of modern historical and scientific thought and proposes a new and positive theology of revelation for the future The book includes discussions of the work of most major theologians and scholars in the study of religion Aquinas Tillich Barth Temple Frazer and Evans Pritchard and should be of interest to many scholars and students of comparative religion and theology and anthropologists Revelation and the Religions Avery

McDermott, 2000-08-15 More than ever before Christians need to explain why they follow Jesus and not the Buddha or Confucius or Krishna or Muhammed This evangelical theology of religions addresses the problem of truth and revelation and takes seriously the normative claims of other traditions McDermott shows readers what Christians can learn from world religions without sacrificing the finality of Christ The Dialectics of Mission Elmer A. Guzman, 2023-09-15 Drawing on the resources of contemporary systematic theologians Kevin Vanhoozer and Veli Matti K rkk inen Elmer A Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context s diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology Musicology of Religion Guy L. Beck, 2023-05-01 For generations religion and music have been regarded as universals yet despite the fact that they have been frequently linked throughout history and topography and despite the importance of music in the early stages of religious studies their combined presence has not until now been considered a separate area of study and research While there are well developed fields of anthropology of religion psychology of religion and philosophy of religion the widely recognized connections between religion and sound chant and music warrant comparable study Drawing upon theories and methods in the study of both religion and music referencing examples from world religious traditions and addressing challenges posed by critics this book envisions a unified field for religion and music musicology of religion Grounded in the scope and methods of phenomenology and comparative analysis musicology of religion represents an innovative direction in interdisciplinary study enriched by the social sciences ethnomusicology philosophy theology liturgical studies and cognitive studies As conceived musicology of religion will spearhead new and creative paths in the study of religion Revelation and Grace Philip Djung, 2021-06-01 Our globalized world with its increasingly pluralistic societies necessitates a theological framework that enables Christians to embrace their neighbors with respect understanding and love without compromising the essential components of their own faith In Revelation and Grace Dr Philip Djung explores the ways in which Hendrik Kraemer s theology of religions offers the church such a framework By placing Kraemer in conversation with other twentieth century Dutch Reformed theologians namely Herman Bavinck Johan H Bavinck and Abraham Kuyper Dr Djung allows the doctrine of revelation and grace to inform his interpretation of Kraemer s work He provides a critical assessment of Kraemer s theology illustrating the significance of Kraemer s commitment to the uniqueness of Christ and the necessity of Christian mission while advocating for the need to amend certain aspects of Kraemer s perspective to more fully reflect God s presence in world religions Approaches to

Who Do the Ngimurok Say That They Are? Kevin P. Lines, 2018-04-12 How do missiologists describe the cosmologies of those that Christianity encounters around the world Our descriptions often end up filtered through our own Western religious categories Furthermore indigenous Christians adopt these Western religious categories This presents the problem of local Christianities described by Kwame Bediako as those that have not known how to relate to their traditional culture in terms other than those of denunciation or of separateness Kevin Lines's phenomenological study of local religious specialists in Turkana Kenya not only challenges our Western categories by revealing a more authentic complexity of the issues for local Christians and Western missionaries but also provides a model for continued use of phenomenology as a valued research method in larger missiological studies Additionally this study points to the ways that local Christians and traditional religious practitioners interpret Western missionaries through local religious categories Clearly missionaries missiologists anthropologists and religious studies scholars need to do a much more careful job of studying and describing the contextually specific phenomena of traditional religious specialists before relying on meta categories that come out of our Western theology or older overly simplified ethnographies The research from this current study of Turkana religious specialists begins that process in the Turkana context and offers a model for future studies in contexts where traditional religion and Christianity intersect
