Religion Civique A Lepoque Medievale Et Moderne

Marc Boone, Peter Stabel

Religion Civique A Lepoque Medievale Et Moderne:

Churchmen and Urban Government in Late Medieval Italy, c.1200-c.1450 Frances Andrews, Agata Pincelli, 2013-11-28 Major new study of secular religious boundaries and the role of the clergy in the administration of Italy's late medieval city states

The Late Medieval Cult of the Saints Carmen Florea, 2021-11-11 This is a book that explores the nature of sainthood in a region at the margins of medieval Latin Christendom Defining the model of sanctity that characterized Transylvania between the fourteenth and sixteenth centuries the study considers how the cults of saints functioned within specific local social and cultural contexts Analyzing case studies from a multi ethnic region influenced by both the Latin and Eastern Christian traditions this book provides a close reading of little surveyed primary sources and offers a comprehensive understanding of sainthood in Transylvania enhancing the broader study of medieval saints cults and their relationship to social power structures It will be of great interest to scholars of medieval religion researchers in medieval studies and religious studies scholars engaged in comparative research

Civic Ceremony and Religion in Medieval Bruges c.1300-1520 Andrew Brown, 2011-03-10 Public religious practice lay at the heart of civic society in late medieval Europe In this illuminating study Andrew Brown draws on the rich and previously little researched archives of Bruges one of medieval Europe's wealthiest and most important towns to explore the role of religion and ceremony in urban society The author situates the religious practices of citizens their investment in the liturgy commemorative services guilds and charity within the contexts of Bruges highly diversified society and of the changes and crises the town experienced Focusing on the religious processions and festivities sponsored by the municipal government the author challenges much current thinking on for example the nature of civic religion Re evaluating the ceremonial links between Bruges and its rulers he questions whether rulers could dominate the urban landscape by religious or ceremonial means and offers new insight into the interplay between ritual and power of relevance throughout medieval Europe

1995 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors

A Printed Icon in Early Modern Italy Lisa Pon, 2015-03-23 In 1428 a devastating fire destroyed a schoolhouse in the northern Italian city of Forl leaving only a woodcut of the Madonna and Child that had been tacked to the classroom wall The people of Forl carried that print now known as the Madonna of the Fire into their cathedral where two centuries later a new chapel was built to enshrine it In this book Lisa Pon considers a cascade of moments in the Madonna of the Fire's cultural biography when ink was impressed onto paper at a now unknown date when that sheet was recognized by Forl's people as miraculous when it was enshrined in various tabernacles and chapels in the cathedral when it or one of its copies was and still is carried in procession In doing so Pon offers an experiment in art historical inquiry that spans more than three centuries of making remaking and renewal Confession and Criminal Justice in Late Medieval Italy Lidia Luisa Zanetti Domingues, 2021-08-26 In medieval Italy the practice of revenge as criminal justice was still popular amongst members of all social classes yet crime also was increasingly perceived as a public matter that needed to be dealt with by the government rather than private citizens Confession and Criminal Justice in Late Medieval Italy sheds light on this contradiction through an in depth comparison of lay and religious sources produced in Siena between 1260 and 1330 on criminal justice conflict and violence Confession and Criminal Justice in Late Medieval Italy argues that religious people were an effective pressure group with regards to criminal justice thanks both to the literary works they produced and their direct intervention in political affairs and that their contributions have not received the attention they deserve It shows that the dichotomy between theories and practices of private and of public justice should be substituted by a framework in which three models or discourses of criminal justice are recognised as present in medieval Italian communes with the addition of a specifically religious discourse based on penitential spirituality Although the models of criminal justice were competing they also influenced each other Jean Bodin, 'this Pre-eminent Man of France' Howell A. Lloyd, 2017-05-26 Jean Bodin was a figure of great importance in European intellectual history known as a jurist associate of kings and courtiers in sixteenth century France and author of influential works in the fields of constitutional and social thought historical writing witchcraft and a great deal else besides Best known for his contribution to formulating the modern doctrine of sovereignty Bodin was a scholar of exceptional range whose works provoked controversy in his own time and have continued to do so down the centuries Hugh Trevor Roper described him as the Aristotle the Montesquieu of the sixteenth century the prophet of comparative history of political theory of the philosophy of law of the quantitative theory of money and of so much else Much has been written on Bodin and his ideas but in this new intellectual biography Howell A. Lloyd presents the first rounded treatment of the thinker and his times his writings major and minor and his ideas in their contemporary context as well as in that of broader intellectual traditions The Lay Saint Mary Harvey Doyno, 2019-10-15 In The Lay Saint Mary Harvey Doyno investigates the phenomenon of saintly cults that formed around pious merchants artisans midwives domestic servants and others in the medieval communes of northern and central Italy Drawing on a wide array of sources vitae documenting their saintly lives and legends miracle books religious art and communal records Doyno uses the rise of and tensions surrounding these civic cults to explore medieval notions of lay religiosity charismatic power civic identity and the church's authority in this period Although claims about laymen's and laywomen's miraculous abilities challenged the church's expanding political and spiritual dominion both papal and civic authorities Doyno finds vigorously promoted their cults She shows that this support was neither a simple reflection of the extraordinary lay religious zeal that marked late medieval urban life nor of the Church's recognition of that enthusiasm Rather the history of lay saints cults powerfully illustrates the extent to which lay Christians embraced the vita apostolica the ideal way of life as modeled by the Apostles and of the church's efforts to restrain and manage such claims

Queen of Sorrows Bianca M. Lopez, 2024-09-15
 Queen of Sorrows takes an original approach to both late medieval Italian history and the history of Christianity using quantitative and qualitative analyses of a remarkable archive of 1 904 testaments to determine patterns in giving to the Virgin of Loreto shrine in the late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries Bianca M Lopez argues that in central Italy as elsewhere the cult of the Virgin Mary gained new prominence at this time of unprecedented mortality Individuals gave to Santa Maria di Loreto which houses the structure in which Mary is believed to have lived as an expression of their grief in the hope of strengthening family lineages beyond death and to care for loved ones believed to be languishing in purgatory Lopez establishes statistical correlations between different social groups and their donations to Loreto over time uncovering informative new historical patterns such as the prominence of widow and migrant donors in the notarial record The testaments also provide a social history of Recanati revealing how its denizens venerated Mary as a saint with unrivaled spiritual power and uniquely sympathetic to grief having lost her own son Jesus In the fourteenth century plague survivors transformed their anguish into Marian devotion The devastation of the plague brought the Virgin out of noble courts and monasteries and onto city streets As Queen of Sorrows details however the popularity and growing wealth of Loreto's Marian shrine attracted the attention of the papacy and peninsular seigniorial lords who eventually brought Santa Maria di Loreto under the control of the Church

The Oxford Handbook of the Protestant Reformations Ulinka Rublack, 2017 This Handbook takes a broad overview of the Protestant Reformations seeing them as movements which stretched far beyond their European beginnings Written by a team of international scholars of history and theology the contributions offer up to date perspectives on Reformation ideas and the lasting historical impact of Protestantism

The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity John H. Arnold, 2014-08-21 The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity takes as its subject the beliefs practices and institutions of the Christian Church between 400 and 1500AD It addresses topics ranging from early medieval monasticism to late medieval mysticism from the material wealth of the Church to the spiritual exercises through which certain believers might attempt to improve their souls Each chapter tells a story but seeks also to ask how and why Christianity took particular forms at particular moments in history paying attention to both the spiritual and otherworldly aspects of religion and the material and political contexts in which they were often embedded This Handbook is a landmark academic collection that presents cutting edge interpretive perspectives on medieval religion for a wide academic audience drawing together thirty key scholars in the field from the United States the UK and Europe Notably the Handbook is arranged thematically and focusses on an analytical rather than narrative approach seeking to demonstrate the variety change and complexity of religion throughout this long period and the numerous different ways in which modern scholarship can approach it While providing a very wide ranging view of the subject it also offers an important agenda for further study in the field Cities of Strangers Miri Rubin,2020-03-19 Cities of Strangers illuminates life in European towns and cities as it was for the settled and for the strangers or newcomers who joined them between 1000 and 1500 Some city states enjoyed considerable autonomy which allowed them to legislate on how newcomers might settle and become citizens in support of a common good Such communities invited bankers merchants physicians notaries and judges to settle and help produce good urban living Dynastic rulers also shaped immigration often inviting groups from afar to settle and help their cities flourish All cities accommodated a great deal of difference of language religion occupation in shared spaces regulated by law When this benign cycle broke down around 1350 with demographic crisis and repeated mortality less tolerant and more authoritarian attitudes emerged resulting in violent expulsions of even long settled groups Tracing the development of urban institutions and using a wide range of sources from across Europe Miri Rubin recreates a complex picture of urban life for settled and migrant communities over the course of five centuries and offers an innovative vantage point on Europe s past with insights for its present Byzantine Style, Religion and Civilization Elizabeth Jeffreys,2006-10-12 A volume of cutting edge essays written in honour of renowned Byzantinist Sir Steven Runciman Shrines of the 'Alids in Medieval Syria Stephennie Mulder,2019-08-06 This book explores the relationship between Sunnis and Shi is as expressed in the patronage and architecture of shrines and links them to the wider pan Islamic landscape of interconnected pilgrimage sites created from these acts of patronage A Companion to the Medieval World Carol Lansing,Edward D. English,2012-12-26 Drawing on the expertise of 26 distinguished scholars this important volume covers the major issues in the study of medieval Europe highlighting the significant impact the time period had on cultural forms and institutions central to European identity Examines changing approaches to the study of medieval Europe its periodization and central themes Includes coverage of important questions such as identity and the self sexuality and gender emotionality and ethnicity as well as more traditional topics such as economic and demographic expansion kingship and the rise of the West Explores Europe s understanding of the wider world to place the study of the medieval society in a global context Christianization in Early Medieval Transylvania ,2022-06-20 Little is known about the Christianization of east central and eastern Europe due to the fragmentary nature of the historical record Yet occasionally unexpected archaeological discoveries can offer fresh angles and new insights This volume presents such an example the discovery of a Byzantine like church in Alba Iulia Transylvania dating from the 10th century a unique find in terms of both age and function Next to its ruins another church was built at the end of the 11th century following a Roman Catholic architectural model soon to become the seat of the Latin bishopric of Transylvania Who built the older Byzantine style church and what was the political religious and cultural context of the church How does this new discovery affect our perception of the ecclesiastical history of Transylvania A new reading of the archaeological and historical record prompted by these questions is presented here thereby opening up new challenges for further research Contributors are Daniela Marcu Istrate Florin Curta Horia I Ciugudean Aurel Dragot Monica Elena Popescu
