The Compulsory Maintenance of Religion Proved to be Unchristian and Unjust ... in a Course of Lectures ... by Various Ministers and Gentlemen. [Published by the Committee of the Norfolk and Norwich Religious Liberty Society.] Reprinted from the Norfolk News Norfolk and Norwich Religious Liberty Society (NORWICH), 1847      Religion Under Socialism in China Zhufeng Luo, 1991 A study of religion in contemporary China based on field research by Chinese social scientists Written by a group of scholars at the Religion Research Institute of the Shanghai Academy of Social Sciences it responds to the designation of religion as one of the twelve key topics for special study by the Sixth Five Year Plan for Economic Development an astonishing reversal for the cultural revolution goal of the eradication of religion completely and forever

Nonreligious Imaginaries of World Repairing Lori G. Beaman, Timothy Stacey, 2021-08-12 The world is confronted with multiple intersecting crises including exploitation inequality political polarization and climate change World repairing work is vitally needed But just at a time when humans most obviously require robust moral imaginaries on which to draw it is no longer clear what kinds of beliefs meanings stories and encounters inspire them to act We know that nonreligious identities are on the rise in numerous countries throughout the world But with so much focus on the non part of nonreligion what we don't know is what nonreligious imaginaries actually look sound and feel like What do nonreligious people believe in What stories inspire them In what moments do they find meaning This book seeks to answer these questions through a series of short essays exploring the nonreligious imaginaries that emerge in a range of world repairing practices including ethical consumption community organizing eating habits and environmental activism In so doing the book provides a crucial contribution to two areas of increasing social and political concern First the need to understand not only what nonreligious people are rejecting but also their sources of meaning and action Second the urgent need for cultural tools for mobilizing people towards more compassionate and sustainable practices      Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature , 1917      The
