Theology of Migration in the Abrahamic Religions E. Padilla,P. Phan,2014-10-02 This book provides an indispensable voice in the scholarly conversation on migration It shows how migration has shaped and has been shaped by the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam No theory of migration will be complete unless the theological insights of these religions are seriously taken into account

Untangling Terrorism from Religion: A Deeper Look into the Roots of Violent Extremism Sarwat Parvez,2025-06-08 Terrorism has long haunted modern societies capturing the attention of governments media outlets and the public alike In the rush to explain the inexplicable many turn to religion as the root cause But this simplistic and often biased interpretation overlooks the true complexity behind acts of terror Terrorism is not born from faith alone it is deeply entangled with political social and psychological conditions No single religion has a monopoly on violence and framing terrorism as inherently religious only hinders our understanding and our ability to respond effectively

Reimagining with Christian Doctrines Grace Ji-Sun Kim,J. Daggers,2014-01-10 This collection demonstrates a constructive potential in reimagining with doctrines which unlocks them from centuries of patriarchal constraint It opens the way for glimpsing divine action in the economy of salvation while human struggles for justice are placed within a wider arena when discrete theological resources are deployed in this way

Religion and Violence Jeffrey Ian Ross,2015-03-04 First Published in 2015 Daily newspaper headlines talk radio and cable television broadcasts and Internet news web sites continuously highlight the relationship between religion and violence These media contain stories about such diverse incidents as suicide attacks by Islamic fundamentalists in Afghanistan Iraq Israel Pakistan and elsewhere and assassinations of doctors who perform abortions by white American Christian true believers in the United States How does one make sense of the role of religion in violence and of perpetrators of violence who cite religion as a motivation This encyclopedia includes a wide range of entries biographies of key figures historical events religious groups countries and regions where religion and violence have intersected and practices rituals and processes of religious violence

Christianities in Migration Peter C. Phan,Elaine Padilla,2016-04-29 This book migrates through continents regions nations and villages in order to tell the stories of diverse kinds of nomadic dwellers It departs from Africa en routes itself toward Asia Oceania Europe and culminates in the Americas with the territories of Latin America Canada and the United States The volume travels through worn out pathways of migration that continue to be threaded upon today and theologically reflects on a wide range of migratory aims that result also in diverse forms of indigenization of Christianity Among the main issues being considered are How have globalization and migration affected the theological self understanding of Christianity In light of globalization and migration how is the evangelizing mission of Christianity to be understood and carried out What ecclesiastical reforms if any are required to enable the church to meet present day challenges Ninian Smart on World Religions John J. Shepherd, 2017-11-30 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster

Questions of Faith Peter Berger, 2015-11-04 Leading religious and cultural commentator Peter Berger explores how and what we can believe in modern times Deals clearly with questions such as Does God exist What was so special about Jesus How can one be Christian in a pluralistic society Structured around key phrases from the Apostles Creed Draws on the Christian theological tradition and the work of other relevant thinkers such as Freud and Simone Weil The author takes the position of an open minded sceptic exploring his own beliefs The United States Catalog Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928

Ritual, Emotion, and Materiality in the Early Christian World Soham Al-Suadi, Richard S. Ascough, Richard E. DeMaris, 2021-12-30 This volume advances our understanding of early Christianity as a lived religion by approaching it through its rites the emotions and affects surrounding those rites and the material setting for the practice of them The connections between emotions and ritual between rites and their materiality and between emotions and their physical manifestation in ancient Mediterranean culture have been inadequately explored as yet especially with regard to early Christianity and its water and dining rites Readers will find all three areas ritual emotion and materiality engaged in this exemplary interdisciplinary study which provides fresh insights into early Christianity and its world Ritual Emotion and Materiality in the Early Christian World will be of special interest to interdisciplinary minded researchers seminarians and students who are attentive to theory and method and those with an interest in the New Testament and earliest Christianity It will also appeal to those working on ancient Jewish and Greco Roman religion emotion and ritual from a comparative standpoint Christian Nurture Series Episcopal Church.
