Handler,Sam Luce,2024-08-06 Resiliently rooted in Christ living into this formational moment What would it look like to form kids with lasting faith in Jesus no matter the culture or context Does this seem possible It s getting harder to imagine in our highly secularized culture Current approaches to faith formation aren t working Matt Markins Sam Luce and Mike Handler combine leadership experience from Awana global pioneer in children s discipleship with pastoral wisdom to provide a much needed timely resource for the church and home Forming Faith helps us understand what isn t working why it doesn t work and what we can do to build the church Markins Luce and Handler fathers and leaders look at the blueprint often employed in children s ministries that seems innovative but is greatly misguided Forming Faith brings not only analysis it provides biblically based backed by research solutions to form lasting faith in our children We have real concerns and fears for the kids we love More than anything we want to see younger generations follow Jesus with conviction and compassion What must we be doing at church and at home to strengthen our influence This resource provides the focus resiliency and hope we all need

Between Heaven and Earth Robert A. Orsi,2013-10-31 Between Heaven and Earth explores the relationships men women and children have formed with the Virgin Mary and the saints in twentieth century American Catholic history and reflects more broadly on how people live in the company of sacred figures and how these relationships shape the ties between people on earth In this boldly argued and beautifully written book Robert Orsi also considers how scholars of religion occupy the ground in between belief and analysis faith and scholarship Orsi infuses his analysis with an autobiographical voice steeped in his own Italian American Catholic background from the devotion of his uncle Sal who had cerebral palsy to a crippled saint Margaret of Castello to the bond of his Tuscan grandmother with Saint Gemma Galgani Religion exists not as a medium of making meanings Orsi maintains but as a network of relationships between heaven and earth involving people of all ages as well as the many sacred figures they hold dear Orsi argues that modern academic theorizing about religion has long sanctioned dubious distinctions between good or real religious expression on the one hand and bad or bogus religion on the other which marginalize these everyday relationships with sacred figures This book is a brilliant critical inquiry into the lives that people make for better or worse between heaven and earth and into the ways scholars of religion could better study of these worlds
