Religious Perspectives on Bioethics and Human Rights Joseph Tham,Kai Man Kwan,Alberto Garcia,2017-09-06 This book deals with the thorny issue of human rights in different cultures and religions especially in the light of bioethical issues In this book experts from Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Daoism Hinduism and Confucianism discuss the tension between their religious traditions and the claim of universality of human rights The East West contrast is particularly evident with regards to human rights Some writers find the human rights language too individualistic and it is foreign to major

religions where the self does not exist in isolation but is normally immersed in a web of relations and duties towards family friends religion community and society Is the human rights discourse a predominantly Western liberal ideal which in bioethics is translated to mean autonomy and free choice In today s democratic societies laws have been drafted to protect individuals and communities against slavery discrimination torture or genocide Yet it appears unclear at what moment universal rights supersede respect for cultural diversity and pluralism This collection of articles demonstrates a rich spectrum of positions among different religions as they confront the ever more pressing issues of bioethics and human rights in the modern world This book is intended for those interested in the contemporary debates on religious ethics human rights bioethics cultural diversity and multiculturalism Religious Diversity and Interreligious Dialogue Anna Körs,Wolfram Weisse,Jean-Paul Willaime,2020-04-07 This edited volume offers solutions on the challenges of religious pluralisation from a European perspective It gives special attention to interreligious dialogue and interfaith relations as specific means of dealing with plurality In particular the contributors describe innovative scientific approaches and broad political and social scopes of action for addressing the diversity of beliefs practices and traditions In total more than 25 essays bring together interdisciplinary and international research perspectives The papers cover a wide thematic range They highlight how religious pluralisation effects such fields as theology politics civil society education and communication media The contributors not only illustrate academic debates about religious diversity but they also look at the political and social scope for dealing with such Coverage spans numerous countries and beliefs from Buddhism to Judaism This book features presentations from the Herrenhausen Conference on Religious Pluralisation A Challenge for Modern Societies held in Hanover Germany October 2016 This insightful collection will benefit students and researchers with an interest in religion and laicism interreligious dialogue governance of religious diversity and religion in the public sphere Law and Religious Diversity in Education Kyriaki Topidi,2020-08-05 Religion is a prominent legal force despite the premise constructed and promoted by Western constitutionalism that it must be separated from the State in democracies Education constitutes an area of human life that leaves ample scope for the expression of religious identity and shapes the citizens of the future It is also the place of origin of a considerable number of normative conflicts involving religious identity that arise today in multicultural settings The book deals with the interplay of law and religion in education through the versatility of religious law and legal pluralism as well as religion s possible adaptation and reconciliation with modernity in order to consider and reflect on normative conflicts It adopts the angle of the constitutional dimension of religion narrated in a comparative perspective and critically reflects on regulatory attempts by the State and the international community to promote new ways of living together International Approaches to Governing Ethnic Diversity Jane Boulden,Will Kymlicka,2015-02-12 One of the most remarkable features of the post Cold War period has been the upsurge of international involvement in questions of ethnic diversity From the United Nations and the European Court of Human Rights to diverse international philanthropic and advocacy organizations a wide range of international actors have adopted policies and principles for addressing questions of ethnic rights identity and conflict International Approaches to Governing Ethnic Diversity explores whether and how these international actors contribute to the peaceful and democratic governance of ethnic diversity It focuses on two broad areas of international work the evolution of international legal norms regarding the rights of minorities and indigenous peoples and international approaches to conflict and post conflict development The book charts new territory by mapping the range of international actors who affect the governance of ethnic diversity and exploring their often contradictory roles and impacts Most international actors come to questions of ethnic diversity indirectly and reluctantly on the basis of widely varying mandates many of which were established to fulfill other objectives They naturally therefore have different priorities and perspectives And yet the book identifies a striking convergence amongst international actors around discourses of diversity and equality demonstrating the existence of an epistemic community where actors work within common vocabularies discourses and principles that attempt to link human rights pluralism development and peace

Religious Diversity and Intercultural Education John Keast,Council of Europe,2007-01-01 This reference book is intended to help teachers teacher administrators policy makers and others deal with the important issue of religious diversity in Europe s schools The religious dimension of intercultural education is an issue that affects all schools whether they are religiously diverse or not because their pupils live and will work in increasingly diverse societies The book is the main outcome of the project 1The Challenge of intercultural education today religious diversity and dialogue in Europe developed by the Council of Europe between 2002 and 2005 It is in four parts theoretical and conceptual basis for religious diversity and intercultural education educational conditions and methodological approaches religious diversity in schools in different settings examples of current practice in some member states of the Council of Europe Minority Recognition and the Diversity Deficit Jessika Eichler,Kyriaki Topidi,2022-11-17 This book addresses one of the most serious societal questions of our time how to create new spaces and frameworks for minority recognition given the State centric sovereignty discourse and the persisting equality jargon that dominate today's world By so doing it approaches minority rights by means of a critical engagement with its underlying premises Notably it makes attempts to both construct and reconfigure neglected legal categories in particular collective rights and to deconstruct domestic constitutional orders More precisely it does so through diametrically opposed levels of analysis that is top down and bottom up logics by exploring sociolegal strategies forms and formats of governance on the one hand and grassroots demands on the other Drawing on empirical findings in Europe and Latin America the book gives us a sense of how recognition needs to be contextualised against the background of right wing trends in Europe and the re building of the State in the Andes This is a fascinating study of one of the key questions engaging human rights minority studies and discrimination law Religious-Spiritual Diversity in Organisations Edwina Pio,Robert Kilpatrick,Peter Lineham,2024-02-12 Challenges involved in the interplay between religion and business are incredibly complex and as such this book thoughtfully considers the critical issue of inclusion and how employers should view its importance Whilst exploring the intricacies of organised religion it investigates how mindful religious wisdom can be harmoniously applied within corporate and not for profit environments Public Commissions on Cultural and Religious Diversity Solange Lefebvre,Patrice Brodeur,2017-05-08 Due to growing negative perceptions about relations between historically entrenched dominant populations and various minority groups issues relating to the need to better manage cultural and religious diversity have been intensifying in many countries These negative perceptions have recently led to a significant increase in popular support for right and extreme right nationalist discourses and have created so much public tension that national governments have had no choice but to respond In the last two decades in several Western contexts in particular the issues raised by such combined challenges have culminated in the creation of government initiated or private national commissions This book presents the results of a multidisciplinary analysis from a broader framework that includes the national public commissions which have addressed the challenges of managing cultural and religious diversity in Belgium Britain Canada Quebec France Morocco and Norway including also other cases of public management in Australia and Singapore It includes in depth studies of the issues and controversies examined by each of the commissions such as the ways they perceived the issues their results and impact the key political players involved the media debates and reception surrounding each commission the communication strategies and difficulties their leaders encountered as well as the legal aspects each commission has raised The reports represent a rich body of work charting the fundamental questions nations face about their nature history and future while the impact on peoples lives tells us much about different approaches to the issues of cultural identity between countries Embracing Workplace Religious Diversity and Inclusion Ed Hasan,2022-08-23 This book highlights the key contemporary issues and challenges relating to workplace religious diversity and inclusion Challenging organizations to take religion and religious inclusion in the workplace seriously it explores multiple

Religious Education in a World of Religious Diversity Wilna A.J. Meijer, Siebren Miedema, Alma Lanser-van der Velde, 2009 This volume brings together a selection of papers presented at the Fifteenth Session of the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values ISREV which took place in 2006 in Driebergen the Netherlands addressing the theme Religious Education in a World of Religious Diversity The authors were invited to combine the concept of diversity with the dimensions of temporality of time and history in reworking their contributions for this book This temporal aspect is in a sense inherent in educational thinking On the one hand education as intergenerational transmission has a conservative aspect tradition being what is actually and presently transmitted from the past and or what is considered worthwhile to be passed on On the other hand acknowledging the activity of students themselves as a prerequisite for any education to happen brings the open endedness and therefore the future into the pedagogical arena in terms of development learning reflection edification et cetera So the question answered in this volume is what does this inherent historicity mean for religious education as well as for the concept religion and religious diversity In answering this question the contributions represent the global character of the concern with religious diversity in relation to religious education and originate respectively from the following countries Canada Bhikkhu English United States Moran Latvia Ilshko Russia Kozyrev Germany Pirner South Africa Roux du Preez Ferguson Japan Omori Australia de Souza Turkey Sel uk and the Netherlands Meijer Miedema

Religious Diversity in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Gary D. Bouma, Rodney Ling, Douglas Pratt, 2009-12-04 Religious diversity is now a social fact in most countries of the world While reports of the impact of religious diversity on Europe and North America are reasonably well known the ways in which Southeast Asia and Asia Pacific are religiously diverse and the ways this diversity has been managed are not This book addresses this lack of information about one of the largest and most diverse regions of the world It describes the religious diversity of 27 nations as large and complex as Indonesia and as small as Tuvalu outlining the current issues and the basic policy approaches to religious diversity Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands are portrayed as a living laboratory of various religious blends with a wide variance of histories and many different approaches to managing religious diversity While interesting in their own right a study of these nations provides a wealth of case studies of diversity management most of them stories of success and inclusion

Religious Diversity in Canadian Public Schools Dia Dabby, 2022-02-01 Canadian public schools have long been entrusted with the mandate of socializing children Yet this duty can rest uneasily alongside religious diversity questions Grounding its analysis in three seminal Supreme Court cases involving religion in schools Religious Diversity in Canadian Public Schools reveals legal processes that are unduly linear compressing multidimensional conversations into an oppositional format and stripping away the voices of children themselves Dia Dabby contends that schools are in fact microsystems worthy of their own consideration and with the power to construct their own rules and relationships This compelling work connects many of the themes that have animated public discourse since multiculturalism was officially enacted in Canada Situating its analysis in relation to concepts of nation education and diversity Religious Diversity in Canadian Public Schools encourages a deeper conversation about how religion is mediated through public schools and invites a critical reassessment of the role of law in education Religious Diversity and Education. Nordic Perspectives Geir Skeie, 2009 In the last ten years or so religious plurality has become higher on the agenda for religious education research in the Nordic countries This attention to religious plurality partly reflects processes of globalisation that include both physical migration and communication of ideas and is seen across the world making it smaller It also reflects the preoccupation of governments with social cohesion and as part of this intercultural education In the curricula of the Nordic countries this is manifested in different ways setting also the agenda for parts of educational research This book addresses issues related to the increasing religious plurality in the Nordic countries These issues are a challenge to many religious groups including historically dominant Lutheran national churches both nationally and locally They have also led to a reorientation in religious education research in the last decade A rich variety of research perspectives are presented under three headings Theoretical and methodical perspectives The world of the students Teachers and textbooks Nordic religious education research here proves to be internationally oriented in terms of theoretical perspectives whilst also contributing to the debate through important empirical studies Examples of issues covered in the book are unintended learning dialogue gender life interpretation spirituality identity and values In different ways all the contributions in this book shed light on the common theme of diversity and are based on a will to include diverse perspectives both on the actors and the material of the classroom as well as on the life world of young people The researchers represent different generations and different theoretical and methodological perspectives Diversity and European Human Rights Eva Brems, 2013 A demonstration of how European Court of Human Rights judgments might better accommodate the concerns of minorities The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity Lene Kühle, Jørn Borup, William Hoverd, 2018-06-19 Drawing on international and thematic case studies The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity asks its readers to pay attention to the assumptions and processes by which scholars religious practitioners and states construct religious diversity The study has three foci theoretical and methodological issues religious diversity in non Western contexts and religious diversity in social contexts Together these trans contextual studies are utilised to develop a critical analysis exploring how agency power and language construct understandings of religious diversity As a result the book argues that reflexive scholarship needs to consider that the dynamics of diversification and homogenisation are fundamental to understanding social and religious life that religious diversity is a Western concept and that definitions of religious diversity are often entangled by and within dynamic empirical realities Contributors are Martin Baumann Peter Beyer Jørn Borup Paul Bramadat Marian Burchardt Henrik Reintoft
