Religious Pluralism A Metaphorical Approach:

Religious Pluralism, 2000 Religious Pluralism stems from a series of Gifford Research Fellowship lectures A stipulation of these lectures is that they be public popular addressed to the intelligent lay person not just the specialist Religious Pluralism is not written from the stance of any particular faith It addresses issues that might concern anyone who thinks about religion particularly the individual in search of or interested in choosing a faith We live in a religiously plural world one in which Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism Sikhism Taoism etc variously picture the nature purpose of human existence Which religious account if any should we accept on what ground Is it legitimate to construct a world view using material from several faiths Using the image of a hall of mirrors to symbolize our new multi religious consciousness Religious Pluralism A Metaphorical Approach considers how the individual might answer such challenging questions Chris Arthur received a PhD from the University of Edinburgh where he took a First Class Honours degree in Religious Studies In 1984 he was awarded the Gifford Research Fellowship at the University of St Andrews At the University of Wales he teaches courses in Buddhism Religion the Media Methodology

Process and Pluralism Zhihe Wang, 2013-05-02 This book offers a uniquely process relational oriented Chinese approach to inter religious dialogue called Chinese Harmonism The key features of Chinese harmonism are peaceful co existence mutual transformation and openness to change As developed with help from Whiteheadian process thought Chinese harmonism provides a middle way between particularism and universalism showing how diversity can exist within unity Chinese harmonism is open to similarities among religions but it also emphasizes that differences among religions can be complementary rather than contradictory Thus Chinese harmonism implies an attitude of respect for others and a willingness to learn from others without reducing the other to one's own identity that is to sameness By emphasizing the possibility of complementariness a process oriented Chinese harmonism avoids a dichotomy between universalism and particularism represented respectively by John Hick and S Mark Heim and will make room for a genuine openness and do justice to the culturally and religiously other
