Relocating the Remains Keith Piper, 1997 Bodies in Code Mark B. N. Hansen, 2012-10-02 Bodies in Code explores how our bodies experience and adapt to digital environments Cyberculture theorists have tended to overlook biological reality when talking about virtual reality and Mark B N Hansen's book shows what they've been missing Cyberspace is anchored in the body he argues and it's the body not high tech computer graphics that allows a person to feel like they are really moving through virtual reality Of course these virtual experiences are also profoundly affecting our very understanding of what it means to live as embodied beings Hansen draws upon recent work in visual culture cognitive science and new media studies as well as examples of computer graphics websites and new media art to show how our bodies are in some ways already becoming virtual Donald Rodney Richard Birkett, 2023-05-30 An illustrated examination of Donald Rodney's seminal digital media work Autoicon 1997 2000 Donald Rodney's Autoicon a work originally produced as both a website and CD ROM was conceived by the artist in the mid 1990s but not completed until two years after his death in 1998 Referencing Jeremy Bentham's infamous nineteenth century Auto Icon the work proposes an extension of the personhood and presence of Rodney while critically challenging dominant conceptions of the self the body and historicity Grounded in a partial collection of medical documents that constitute biomedicine's attempts to comprehensively know and maintain Rodney's body during his lifelong experience of sickle cell anemia Autoicon pursues the artist's address from the mid 1980s onward of the British social and institutional body's cellular composition through racialized biopolitical power Autoicon consists of a Java based AI and neural network that engages the user in text based chat and provides responses by drawing from a dense body of data points related to Rodney and his work including documentation of artworks medical records interviews images notes and video Pulling both from this internal archive and the external archive of the Internet a montage machine composes constantly mutating images according to a rule based system established around Rodney's working process In this One Work edition curator Richard Birkett traces the distinct contemporary presence of Autoicon and the ideas and relations that emerged around its conception before and after Rodney's death particularly linking the work to the artist's seminal 1997 exhibition 9 Night in Eldorado Birkett addresses Autoicon as both an index of entangled social and material relations around Rodney a form of dispersed memory and a vector of critical creative production that continues to resonate with contemporary artistic practices and radical thought While attuned to late twentieth century discourse around the body's dissolution into the virtual and the technological potential for extending consciousness in its content and structure Autoicon locates these discourses of the human and posthuman in relation to the durable productive forces of post Enlightenment racialization and ableism The workings of the mind that Autoicon presents are intrinsically tied to Rodney's wider use in his work of bodily matter and genealogically bound to a Black history of displacement dispossession and resistance experienced physiologically socially and familially by the artist Autoicon offers up a counter manifestation of the subject as formed and multiplied through temporal disjuncture affectability and acts of preservation care and collectivity Relocating the Personal Barbara

,2016-08-01 This collection of essays investigates the convergence between the postmodern politics of mobility and a politics of metaphor a politics in other words in the context of which the production and displacement of meaning s constitute the major stakes Ranging from discussions of re territorialization multiculturalism digisporas and transnational politics and ethics to September 11th the Pentagon s New Map American legislation on Chinese immigration Gianni Amelio s film Lamerica Keith Piper s online installations and Doris Salcedo s Atrabiliarios the collection aims to follow three different theoretical trajectories First it seeks to rethink our concepts of mobility in order to open them up to the complexity that structures the thoughts and practices of a global order Second it critically examines the privileged position of concepts and metaphors of mobility within postmodern theory In juxtaposing conflictual theoretical formulations the book sets out to present the competing responses that fuel academic debates around this issue Finally it evaluates the influence of our increasingly mobile conceptual frameworks and everyday experience on the redefinition of politics that is currently under way especially in the context of Post Marxist theory Its hope is to contribute to the production of alternative political positions and practices that will address the conflicting desires for attachment and movement marking postmodernity

 Marks,2025-07-25 Selena Watt has found a house that speaks to her literally A year after experiencing the inexplicable behaviour of Rafferty House Selena isn't really surprised when the infamous McFadyen property sends a feeling of sorrow to her while she's touring it What she's not expecting however is to learn from her new friend Curt Wakefield that the angry ghost of its original owner is hanging around the local museum Nor does Selena expect her real estate agent to be found dead on the steps of the very house she now wants to buy Presented with another real life murder mystery Selena is eager to dive in but is immediately roadblocked by the police and according to Curt the belligerent spirit of Gertrude McFadyen Curt has done his best to keep secret his ability to see and talk to ghosts but the truth has a way of making itself known and there are far more ghosts in Groverton looking for release than he realized Untangling the sordid background of the McFadyens only raises more questions leading Selena and her friends from one mystery to another A century of muddled history four
