Reluctant Playwright:

The Reluctant Playwright W. P. B. Botha, 1993 This is a novel that captures life in South Africa fragmented confused violent yet challenges the idea that power lies only with the forces of oppression It s the story of Seamus Doyle who rejects his Irish Catholic past and resettles in a remote Transkei village A bruised cynic he attempts to detach himself from the drama in South Africa But for how long The Reluctant Playwright ,1993 The Best Men's Monologues from New Plays, 2019 Lawrence Harbison, 2019-11-14 Renowned editor Lawrence Harbison brings together approximately one hundred never before published men s monologues for actors to use for auditions and in class all from recently produced plays The selections include monologues from plays by both well known playwrights and future stars including Jonathan Yukitch Don Nigro Lloyd Su Daniel Damiano Molly Goforth Carlyle Brown Seth Svi Rosenfeld Brian Dykstra Steven Hayet David MacGregor and Nat Cassidy There are terrific comic pieces laughs and terrific dramatic pieces no laughs and all represent the best of contemporary playwriting This collection is an invaluable resource for aspiring actors hoping to ace their auditions and impress directors and teachers with contemporary pieces Playwriting Fraser Grace, Clare Bayley, 2015-11-19 Full of inspiration and practical advice Playwriting A Writers Artists Companion is a comprehensive companion to writing for the stage PART 1 includes reflections on the art and the craft of playwriting guidance on writing for a full range of genres and spaces and a brief history of playwriting itself PART 2 contains inspiring advice and reflections from leading playwrights April De Angelis Bryony Lavery David Greig Christina Reid Dennis Kelly Frank McGuinness Lynn Nottage Howard Brenton Roy Williams Tanika Gupta Timberlake Wertenbaker Polly Stenham Tom Stoppard Jack Thorne Steve Waters E V Crowe David Henry Hwang Lin Coghlan Zinnie Harris and Anne Washburn PART 3 offers practical exercises and advice on planning and conducting research working out plots and characters mastering authentic but accessible dialogue navigating the industry and the rehearsal and production process Audrey Wood and the Playwrights M. Barranger, 2013-01-07 From Tennessee Williams and Carson McCullers to Arthur Kopit and Brian Friel agent Audrey Wood encouraged and guided the unique talents of playwrights in the Broadway theatre of her day Her quiet determination and burning enthusiasm brought America s finest mid century playwrights to prominence and altered stage history Digital Humanities and the Lost Drama of Early Modern England Matthew Steggle, 2016-04-22 This book establishes new information about the likely content of ten lost plays from the period 1580 1642 These plays authors include Nashe Heywood and Dekker and the plays themselves connect in direct ways to some of the most canonical dramas of English literature including Hamlet King Lear The Changeling and The Duchess of Malfi The lost plays in question are Terminus Richard the Confessor 1593 Cutlack 1594 Bellendon 1594 Truth s Supplication to Candlelight 1600 Albere Galles 1602 Henry the Una c 1619 The Angel King 1624 The Duchess of Fernandina c 1630 42 and The Cardinal s Conspiracy bef 1639 From this list of bare titles it is argued can be reconstructed comedies tragedies and histories whose leading characters included a saint a robber a Medici duchess an impotent king at least one pope and an angel In each case newly available digital research resources make it possible to interrogate the title and to identify the play's subject matter analogues and likely genre But these concrete examples raise wider theoretical problems What is a lost play What can and cannot be said about objects in this problematic category Known lost plays from the early modern commercial theatre outnumber extant plays from that theatre but how in practice can one investigate them This book offers an innovative theoretical and practical frame for such work putting digital humanities into action in the emerging field of lost play studies

Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz, 2019-12-12 London's West End is a global success story staging phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue In Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural social and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical light comedy sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre

New Play Development Lenora Inez Brown, 2015-09-05 This is a book for dramaturgs of new work but it is also a particularly effective book for anyone working on new plays playwrights directors producers even actors Lenora skillfully dissects the process of workshopping new writing and clearly defines the roles for all involved I learned not only how to make a new play workshop more effective but how to approach my writing and my directing and how to meaningfully collaborate with others in this unique process This is a necessary handbook for anyone working on new plays today Anne Marie Cammarato Director

Fosse: Plays Six Jon Fosse, 2024-05-16 Jon Fosse has been called the Beckett of the 21st century Le Monde and the Royal Court production of Nightsongs was dubbed Waiting for Godot without the gags Just as Beckett's plays and those of all great playwrights grew out of their time and influenced the current styles of drama and were part of what brought their times forward so do Fosse's plays now Fosse Plays Six marks the culmination of this Norwegian playwright's body of work for the stage to be published in the English language The volume includes the plays Rambuku Freedom Over There These Eyes Girl in Yellow Raincoat Christmas Tree Song and Sea Rambuku Two people One finds it difficult to speak The other attempts to understand But what is Rambuku Or who is Rambuku Freedom There is a sense of otherness in Fosse's work that challenges our notions of a concept such as freedom This play questions if freedom as we often understand it is perhaps a prison Over There A woman follows a man to his death But do they see the same images on the way to the top of the mountain These Eyes A snapshot of the dreamlike state of life The characters exist in an in-between space which becomes their reality Girl in Yellow Raincoat An examination of our collective weakness and the fragility of children It asks questions about notions surrounding fear Christmas Tree Song A man celebrates Christmas alone and reflects in a somewhat ironic way on his life as he attempts to put up a Christmas tree Sea A group of people gathered in a kind of limbo on a ship disappearing into something unknown

Working Together in Theatre Robert Cohen, Joel Veenstra, 2024-10-31 This book explores how theater artistry melds the forces of collaboration and leadership igniting creativity from the first spark of an idea to the climactic curtain call It throws the spotlight on the dynamic interplay of roles covering the collaboration between producer director playwright actor designer stage manager dramaturg and stage crew Each chapter illuminates various strategies and insights revealing how you can harness these transformative techniques on your own journey crafting spellbinding productions through the power of collective creativity In this new edition Joel Veenstra builds upon updates and expands on Robert Cohen's original concepts in the following ways Updated case studies and examples drawn from the combined 75 years of professional theatre making experience of Cohen and Veenstra as well as insights from their extensive network of collaborators Revised flow and scope to include the collaborator's worldview specific practices for creating collaborative milieu from the start and conflict resolution tools Modernized with new research perspectives and insights from leadership experts like Bren Brown and Simon Sinek and team-based organizations like Google and The Second City Refreshed exercises to enhance practical understanding and application of the concepts Expanded lens for applications beyond the realm of theatre making to any collaboration Revised appendices with recommended digital resources

Haitian Revolutionary Fictions Marlene L. Daut, Grégory Pierrot, Marion C. Rohrleitner, 2022-01-25 The Haitian Revolution 1791-1804 was the first antislavery and anticolonial uprising led by New World Africans to result in the creation of an independent and slavery-free nation-state The momentousness of this thirteen-year-long war generated thousands of pages of writing This anthology brings together for the first time a transnational and multilingual selection of literature about the revolution from the beginnings of the conflicts that resulted in it to the end of the nineteenth century With over two hundred excerpts from novels poetry and plays published between 1787 and 1900 and depicting a wide array of characters including Anacaona Makandal Boukman Toussaint Louverture Jean Jacques Dessalines and Henry Christophe this anthology provides the perfect classroom text for exploring this fascinating revolution its principal actors and the literature it inspired while also providing a vital resource for specialists in the field This landmark volume includes many celebrated authors such as Alexandre Dumas Victor Hugo Heinrich von Kleist Alphonse de Lamartine William Wordsworth Harriet Martineau and William Edgar Easton but the editors also present here for the first time many less well known fictions by writers from across western Europe and both North and South America as well as by nineteenth century Haitian authors refuting a widely accepted perception that Haitian representations of their revolution primarily emerged in the twentieth century Each excerpt is introduced by contextualizing commentary designed to spark discussion about the ongoing legacy of slavery and colonialism in the Americas Ultimately the publication of this capacious body of literature that spans three continents offers students scholars and the curious reader alike a unique glimpse into the tremendous global impact the Haitian Revolution had on the print culture of the Atlantic world New World Studies

The Director as Collaborator Robert Knopf, 2017-04-07 The Director as Collaborator teaches essential directing skills while emphasizing how directors and theater productions benefit from collaboration Good collaboration occurs when the director shares responsibility for the artistic creation with the entire production team including actors designers stage managers and technical staff Leadership does not preclude collaboration in theater these concepts can and should be complementary Students will develop their abilities by directing short scenes and plays and by participating in group exercises New to the second edition updated interviews exercises forms and appendices new chapter on technology including digital research previsualization and drafting programs and web sharing sites new chapter on devised and ensemble based works new chapter on immersive theater including material and exercises on environmental staging and audience performer interaction
