Remembering Forward:

Remembering Forward Harold G. Clarke, 1995 Harold Clarke does more than remind the reader of a bygone age he takes us back in time with him to the rural South between the World Wars Whether exploring themes of community or the hydra of the Ku Klux Klan whether telling of a favorite fishing spot on the Ogeechee River or of the death of a childhood friend Clarke is a master storyteller whose stories never fail to invoke the complexity and the richness of life itself The Remembering Process Daniel Barrett, Joe Vitale, 2015-04-07 Personal problems World problems Healing issues Creativity challenges They can all be resolved with an amazing new method called remembering The Remembering Process reveals a breakthrough technique that anyone can use to easily create produce innovate solve resolve and more Beyond any New Age or self help teaching this process proves that it is not only possible to tap into the future but that it is also accessible to us in every moment This leading edge book is a mind stretching exploration in manifesting your goals and desires by remembering how they exist in the future Join award winning musician and music producer Daniel Barrett and best selling author and The Secret standout star Joe Vitale as they teach you this empowering practical technique and start creating the life you desire today Augustine on Memory Kevin G. Grove, 2021 Augustine of Hippo indisputably one of the most important figures for the study of memory is credited with establishing memory as the inner source of selfhood and locus of the search for God Yet those who study memory in Augustine have never before taken into account his preaching His sermons are the sources of memory's greatest development for Augustine In Augustine's preaching especially on the Psalms the interior gives way to communal exterior Both the self and search for God are re-established in a shared Christological identity and the communal labors of remembering and forgetting This book opens with Augustine's early works and Confessions as the beginning of memory and concludes with Augustine's Trinity and preaching on Psalm 50 as the end of memory The heart of the book the work of memory sets forth how ongoing remembering and forgetting in Christ are for Augustine are foundational to the life of grace To that end Augustine and his congregants go leaping in memory together keep festival with abiding traces and become forgetful runners like St Paul Remembering and forgetting in Christ the ongoing work of memory prove for Augustine to be actions of reconciliation of the distended experiences of human life of praising and groaning labouring and resting solitude and communion Augustine on Memory presents this new communal and Christological paradigm not only for Augustinian studies but also for theologians philosophers ethicists and interdisciplinary scholars of memory Post-Conflict Hauntings Kim Wale, Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, Jeffrey Prager, 2020-07-02 This book engages the globally pressing question of how to live and work with the haunting power of the past in the aftermath of mass violence It brings together a collection of interdisciplinary contributions to reflect on the haunting of post conflict memory from the perspective of diverse country case studies including South Africa Rwanda Zimbabwe Northern Ireland North and South Korea Palestine and Israel America and Australia Contributions offer theoretical empirical and practical insights on the nature of historical trauma and practices of collective healing and repair that include embodied artistic and culturally relevant forms of wisdom for dealing with the past While this question has traditionally been explored through the lens of trauma studies in relation to the post Holocaust experience this book provides new understandings from a variety of different historical contexts and disciplinary perspectives Its chapters draw on challenge and expand the trauma concept to propose more contextually relevant frameworks for transforming haunted memory in the aftermath of historical trauma Historical trauma and memory Pumla

Gobodo-Madikizela, Eric Ndushabandi, Kopano Ratele, 2021-12-06 How wounds from a previous generation may weigh on children and grandchildren contain much of interest Yet if we unpack the ghostly the eerie and the spectral in transgenerational hauntings if we allow for the suffering or the disturbed to forge social links such contacts may enable breaking into reconnections and afterlives One only needs to think of the near epidemic of rape in South Africa to sense violent hypermasculinity erupting as madness mediated by a history of brutal racialised reduction But it is also important to move beyond the brutalities and madness to consider the individual and collective refigurations surfacing out of layers of catastrophe Nancy Rose Hunt Conference Keynote Address Beyond Trauma Notes on a Word a Frame and a Diagnostic Category Historical Trauma and Memory Living with the Haunting Power of the Past is based on essays presented at a conference with the same name which was held in Kigali Rwanda in April 2019 The book gives readers front row seats as an interdisciplinary group of scholars from law psychology history the arts anthropology theology and philosophy address the complex matrix of the emotional legacies of historical trauma cultural legacies people interacting with their social and political environment and the interplay of these factors in different post conflict societies Texas Review , 1919

Embracing God's Future without Forgetting the Past Michael K. Girlinghouse, 2019-08-06 Many congregations today are dealing with changes that have led to decline and significant loss In Embracing God's Future without Forgetting the Past Michael K. Girlinghouse argues that until a congregation comes to terms with its perceived losses through a healthy process of grief it will be paralyzed in the present and unable to think creatively about the future Acknowledging and expressing grief will give the congregation the courage to redefine its relationship with the past and draw strength and encouragement from its memories as it steps into the future Drawing on more than thirty years of ministry experience in varied settings and concurrent study and teaching about loss grief and nostalgia Girlinghouse shows clergy church staff and lay leaders how they can work through the experience of loss and grief both personally and in their congregation Part 1 discusses loss and grief using a contemporary task based model for the grief process It also introduces recent research on the value of nostalgia In part 2 Girlinghouse helps leaders tell their congregation's story including its losses examine how that story fits in our current social context and explore ways to accept the reality of its losses and express grief over them Part 3 considers ways congregations can think more adaptively and creatively about the future without forgetting or devaluing the past Girlinghouse presents appreciative inquiry as a tool to discover and build on a congregation's strengths while coming to terms with its losses Part 4 is about embracing God's future for the congregation remembering forward and making the changes necessary to move from the sadness of loss to the joy of taking up life again Each chapter includes a Bible study and questions for reflection and discussion Believer on Sunday, Atheist by Thursday Ronald P.
