Agricultural Experiment Station, 1903 Report of the Agricultural Experiment Station, 1903 Bulletin - Agricultural Experiment Station, University of Rhode Island, 1903 Remembering Our Leaders, 1989 Profiles of leaders of India who helped India's awakening God Remembers Charles L. Feinberg, 2003-06-20 If any portion of the Old Testament has come in for undeservedly scant attention it has been the minor prophets Their significance has been obscured by our neglect Among the major messages of these prophets that of Zechariah shines forth with special prominence Zechariah's prophecy is given primarily to console and comfort weary Israel The nation's initial enthusiasm for rebuilding the temple and resettling the land had waned With growing opposition to the temple reconstruction they had turned to the pursuit of their own affairs Zechariah along with Haggai ardently seeks to bring Israel from their indifference to a complete spiritual return to the Lord The prophet's pronouncement is of a coming day of unparalleled glory a day when Messiah will rule the entire earth from Jerusalem The book's major eschatological importance can be clearly seen for it reveals a wealth of information about Messiah and about the future and role of Israel during the important Day of Jehovah The prophet provides this information for us in concise epitomized form In God Remembers Charles Feinberg brings a high level of scholarship to his study of this significant and exegetically difficult book His familiarity with and love for the Old Testament can be readily seen in his thorough and readable exposition of the message of Zechariah In addition to the main body of the commentary God Remembers includes an informative introduction thorough scripture and subject indexes and an annotated selected bibliography further enhancing the usefulness of this important reference work Annual Report University of Rhode Island. Climo, Maria G. Cattell, 2002-10-23 In Social Memory and History a group of anthropologists sociologists social linguists gerontologists and historians explore the ways in which memory reconstructs the past and constructs the present A substantial introduction by the editors outlines the key issues in the understanding of social memory its nature and process its personal and political implications the crisis in memory and the relationship between social and individual memory Ten cross cultural case studies groups ranging from Kiowa songsters Burgundian farmers elderly Philadelphia whites Chilean political activists American immigrants to Israel and Irish working class women then explore how social memory transmits culture or contests it at the individual community and national levels in both tangible and symbolic spheres Documents of the ... Legislature of the State of New Jersey New Jersey. Legislature, 1905 Portraits of Remembrance Margaret Hutchison, Steven Trout, 2020-04-28 Interdisciplinary collection of essays on fine art painting as it relates to the First World War and commemoration of the conflict Although photography and moving pictures achieved ubiquity during the First World War as technological means of recording history the far more traditional medium of painting played a vital role in the visual culture of combatant nations. The public's appetite for the kind of up close frontline action that snapshots and film footage could not yet provide resulted in a robust market for drawn or painted battle scenes. Painting also figured significantly in the formation of collective war memory after the armistice. Paintings became sites of memory in two ways: first many governments and communities invested in freestanding panoramas or cycloramas that depicted the war or featured murals as components of even larger commemorative projects and second certain paintings whether created by official artists or simply by those moved to do so emerged over time as visual touchstones in the public's understanding of the war. Portraits of Remembrance Painting Memory and the First World War examines the relationship between war painting and collective memory in Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Croatia, France, Germany, Great Britain, New Zealand, Russia, Serbia, Turkey, and the United States. The paintings discussed vary tremendously ranging from public murals and panoramas to works on a far more intimate scale including modernist masterpieces and crowd pleasing expressions of sentimentality or spiritualism. Contributors raise a host of topics in connection with the volume's overarching focus on memory including national identity, constructions of gender, historical accuracy, issues of aesthetic taste, and connections between painting and literature as well as other cultural forms.
