and the Modernist Novel Pericles Lewis, 2010-01-07 The modernist period witnessed attempts to explain religious experience in non religious terms Such novelists as Henry James Marcel Proust James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Franz Kafka found methods to describe through fiction the sorts of experiences that had traditionally been the domain of religious mystics and believers In Religious Experience and the Modernist Novel Pericles Lewis considers the development of modernism in the novel in relation to changing attitudes to religion Through comparisons of major novelists with sociologists and psychologists from the same period Lewis identifies the unique ways that literature addressed the changing spiritual situation of the early twentieth century He challenges accounts that assume secularisation as the main narrative for understanding twentieth century literature Lewis explores the experiments that modernists undertook in order to invoke the sacred without directly naming it resulting in a compelling study for readers of twentieth century modernist literature

Interpretation of Nietzsche's Second Untimely Meditation Martin Heidegger, 2016-09-12 A readable and fluent translation of a work that demonstrates a crucial shift in Heidegger's approach to Nietzsche in the late 1930s Phenomenological Reviews In Nietzsche's Second Untimely Meditation Martin Heidegger offers a radically different reading of a text that he had read decades earlier This evolution in his relationship with Nietzsche has a significant impact on his understandings of the differences between animals and humans temporality and history and the Western philosophical tradition developed With his new reading Heidegger delineates three Nietzschean modes of history which should be understood as grounded in the structure of temporality or historicity He also offers a metaphysical determination of life and the essence of humankind Despite the fragmentary and disjointed quality of the original lecture notes that comprise this text Ullrich Hasse and Mark Sinclair deliver a clear and accessible translation The Chinese in Britain, 1800-Present G. Benton, E. Gomez, 2007-12-18 This study points up the complex interplay of ethnic and national identities in the lives of Chinese in Britain arguing that transnational studies reinforce essentialist conceptions of identity and cultural authenticity in diasporic communities and thus frustrate the promotion of ethnic co existence and social cohesion in multi ethnic societies From the Passion to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre Jordan J. Ryan, 2021-01-14 Since the early 4th century Christian pilgrims and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan s overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de m moires sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception
