Remembering G And Other Stories:

The Ancient Memory and Other Stories John G. Neihardt, 2025-07-21 Death defying and vulnerable fur traders and Indians demi devils and almost angels and other complex personalities come fully to life in The Ancient Memory which completes the collecting of John G Neihardt's early short fiction begun with The End of the Dream and Other Stories. Originally published in popular magazines between 1905 and 1908 these stories about the American frontier illustrated Neihardt's artistry in the short form and foreshadow the themes situations and characterizations of his later better known work. Although two of the Indian stories the ironic Feather for Feather and the satirical A Political Coup at Little Omaha were collected in The Lonesome Trail in 1907 none has been reprinted since early in the twentieth century. Other stories included here are Like a Woman featuring the plucky Pelagie and The Face in the Balcony which is dedicated to those who have gone through life misunderstood. The Epic Minded Scot about a stranger who is stubbornly idealistic and scrupulous is considered one of Neihardt's best tales. The Brutal Fact revolves around a William Tell type of contest between trapping partners that anticipates Neihardt's Song of Three Friends. The Lure of Woman a study of greed and revenge was expanded into his novel Life's Lure. The ineffable Ancient Memory carries profound philosophical implications while presenting a strange doppelgänger of sorts. Finally the memorable Waters an alcoholic one legged one eyed frontier printer is introduced in The Discarded Fetish which with minor changes became the first half of the novel The Dawn Builder. In her foreword Neihardt's daughter Hilda Neihardt recalls intimate details incidental to the writing of these stories.

Harriet's Legacies Ronald Cummings, Natalee Caple, 2022-05-15 Historic freedom fighter and conductor of the Underground Railroad Harriet Tubman risked her life to ferry enslaved people from America to freedom in Canada. Her legacy instigates and orients this exploration of the history of Black lives and the future of collective struggle in Canada. Harriet's Legacies recuperates the significance of Tubman's time in Canada as more than just an interlude in her American narrative it is a new point from which to think about Black diasporic mobilities possibilities and histories. Through essays and creative works this collection articulates new territory for Tubman in relation to the Black Atlantic archive connecting her legacies of survival freedom and cultural expression within a transnational framework. Contributors take up the question of legacy in ways that remap discourses of genealogy and belonging positioning Tubman as an important part of today's freedom struggles. Integrating scholarship with creative and curatorial practices the volume expands conversations about culture and expression in African Canadian life across art literature performance politics and public pedagogy. Considering questions of culture community and futures Harriet's Legacies explores what happened in the wake of Tubman's legacy and situates Canada as a key part of that dialogue.

Reordering of Culture Alvina Ruprecht, 1995-11-15 Political economic and social barriers among Latin America the Caribbean and Canada are giving way to global forces and the global dreams they inspire. This collection of original articles and essays examines popular culture literature theatre belief systems indigenous practices and questions of identity exile and alienation The interconnectedness and distinction of cultural production throughout the Americas transplanted interests the mediation of African and European influences and the expression of shifting identities all reflect the development of a new American neighbourhood The Postcolonial Short Story Maggie Awadalla, Paul March-Russell, 2012-10-23 This book puts the short story at the heart of contemporary postcolonial studies and questions what postcolonial literary criticism may be Focusing on short fiction between 1975 and today the period in which critical theory came to determine postcolonial studies it argues for a sophisticated critique exemplified by the ambiguity of the form

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora Recycling Culture(s) Sara Martín, 2009-03-26 Culture survives today by means of a constant recycling optimistically trying to overcome its own decadence in the 21st century Recycling Culture s addresses from a variety of perspectives this strategy analyzing not only a wide range of texts but also of cultural practices As the volume shows culture thrives on a permanent state of flux borrowing materials for its own survival wherever they are found and always favouring hybridity This refers not only to how texts cross genre and medium boundaries but also to how identities and the very idea of culture grow out of recycling what is at hand both synchronically and diachronically Divided in two sections Part I Recycling the Book and the Screen and Part II Recycling Identity Consumption and History the twenty essays offered here are the work of an international group of scholars dealing with different linguistic and geographical environments A primary aim of the volume is breaking away with the compartmentalisation of Cultural Studies into non communicating linguistic domains to offer an eclectic engaging mixture of approaches This is the twelfth monographic volume of the series Culture Power edited by members of the permanent seminar on Cultural Studies Culture Power which has organised an international yearly conference since 1995 Recycling Culture s is the latest in the series of Culture and Power books to come out of Spain It features essays not only from many of the most distinguished cultural studies scholars on the Iberian Peninsular but many from beyond its borders What makes this volume so stimulating relevant and exiting is that the contributors range across an impressive assortment of contexts of and for recycling The book s thematic base is impressive taking in as it does the relevance of recycling history identity and a multitude of popular texts written and audio visual All contributions are theoretically informed and the authors consider subjects from comic book heroes James Bond and Clockwork Orange to African Carribean women Australian national myth and mobile phones The contributors and editor should be congratulated on producing a theoretically coherent challenging and important intervention into contemporary cultural studies Dr David Walton Senior Lecturer in Cultural Studies at the Univerisity of Murcia Spain author Introducing Cultural Studies Learning Through Practice Sage 2008

Unreliable Truths Sissy Helff, 2013 While many people see home as the domestic sphere and place of belonging it is hard to grasp its manifold implications and even harder to provide a tidy definition of what it is Over the past century discussion of home and nation has been a highly complex matter with broad political ramifications including the realignment of nation states and national boundaries Against this backdrop this book suggests that home is constructed on the assumption that what it defines is constantly in flux and thus can never capture an objective perspective an ultimate truth Along these lines Unreliable Truths offers a comparative literary approach to the construction of home and concomitant notions of uncertainty and unreliable narration in South Asian diasporic women s literature from the UK Australia South Africa the Caribbean North America and Canada Writers discussed in detail include Feroza Jussawalla Suneeta Peres da Costa Meera Syal Farida Karodia Shani Mootoo Shobha D and Oonya Kempadoo With its focus on transcultural homes Unreliable Truths goes beyond discussions of diaspora from an established postcolonial point of view and contributes with its investigation of transcultural unreliable narration to the representation of a g local South Asian diaspora

Embracing the Other Dunja M. Mohr, 2008 In the wake of addressing multiculturalism transculturalism racism and ethnicity the issue of xenophobia and xenophilia has been somewhat marginalized The present collection seeks from a variety of angles to investigate the relations between Self and Other in the New Literatures in English How do we register differences and what does an embrace signify for both Self and Other The contributors deal with a variety of topics ranging from theoretical reflections on xenophobia its exploration in terms of intertextuality and New Zealand Maori historiography to analyses of migrant and border narratives and issues of transitionality authenticity and racism in Canada and South Africa Others negotiate identity and alterity in Nigerian Malaysian Australian Indian Canadian and Caribbean texts or reflect on diaspora and orientalism in Australian Asian and West Indian contexts
