Jewish ingenuity which lies at the root of impressive Jewish successes in the modern West Renaissance and Renewal in the 12th century Robert Louis Benson,1982 The Haskins Society Journal 16 Diane Korngiebel,2006 The Haskins Society presents papers from leading scholars on the political and social history of the Western European world through the Viking times via the Anglo Saxon kingdoms to the break up of the Carolingian state in the mid 13th century Education in Twelfth-century Art and Architecture Laura Cleaver,2016 A study of the representation of education in material culture at a period of considerable change and growth On the facade of Chartres cathedral serene personifications of the arts of grammar rhetoric dialectic music arithmetic geometry and astronomy present passers by with a vision of education as an improving process leading to greater knowledge of God The arts proved a popular subject in medieval imagery and were included in manuscripts stained glass and luxury metalwork objects as well as on the facades of churches These idealized figures contrast with many textual accounts of education in which authors recorded the hardships of student poverty and the temptations of drink and women to be found in the cities where teachers were increasingly establishing themselves Thisbook considers how and why education was explored in the art and architecture of the twelfth century Through analysis of imagery in a wide range of media it examines how teachers and students sought to use images to enhance their reputations and the status of their studies It also investigates how the ideal models often set out in imagery compared with contemporary practice in an era that saw significant changes beginning with a shift away from monastic education and culminating in the appearance of the first universities LAURA CLEAVER is Senior Lecturer in Manuscript Studies Institute of English Studies University of London The Cambridge History of Medieval Political Thought C.350-c.1450 J. H. Burns,1988 This volume examines the history of a complex and varied body of ideas over a period of more than a thousand years Studies in Scholasticism Marcia L. Colish,2006 The papers brought together in this volume reflect three of Professor Colish s interests as a historian of medieval scholastic thought The first group presents investigations into Peter Lombard d 1161 and his contemporaries the second looks at how Peter s theology became mainstream Paris theology in the period between the Lombard s death and the early 13th century The last two papers offer broader reflections on the story lines of high medieval intellectual history Allegorical Form and Theory in Hildegard of Bingen's Books of Visions Dinah Wouters,2022-12-05 This book analyses how the three books of visions by Hildegard of Bingen use the allegorical vision as a form of knowledge It describes how the visionary s use of allegory and allegorical exegesis is linked to theories of cognition interpretation and prophecy It argues that the form of the allegorical vision is not just the product of a medieval symbolic mentality but specific to Hildegard s position and the major transformations taking place in the prescholastic intellectual milieu such as the changing use of Scripture or the shift from traditional hermeneutics to cognitive language philosophy The book shows that Hildegard uses traditional forms of knowledge prophecy the vision monastic theology allegorical hermeneutics in startlingly innovative ways by combining them and by revising them for her own time The Haskins Society Journal William
