A Dream Come True Stephan

Eicke, 2025-09-18 A Dream Come True is an extensive investigation of the working relationship between two revered artists David Lynch and Angelo Badalamenti as an insightful collage that bridges the gap between academic analysis and investigative journalism. The working relationship between director David Lynch and composer Angelo Badalamenti is one of the most fruitful and celebrated in cinema history. Yet despite their success and fame, this is the first book written about their decades-long collaboration. It offers new valuable insights to fans of both Lynch's and Badalamenti's work. The book analyses David Lynch the filmmaker through the lens of Angelo Badalamenti's music via extensive creative biographies of both in depth investigations into how the individual music pieces and scores came to be, how they were altered and changed during the editing process, and what clues both music and sound design can give to unlock the mysteries of individual works. It includes several of their collaborations including Blue Velvet, Twin Peaks, Lost Highway, The Straight Story, and Mulholland Drive among others. The result is an insightful collage of exclusive interviews with many of Lynch's and Badalamenti's colleagues and friends, transcribed music examples, direct quotes, previously unpublished photographs, dialogue taken from the films, and a careful examination of secondary, sometimes contradictory sources. More than 15 industry professionals, including Oscar-winning sound designer Randy Thom, music editor Lori Eschler, music editor and composer John Neff, musician Barry Adamson, PA John Wentworth, and film director Mark Pellington, share their experiences and insights in exclusive interviews. For each film, an analysis of both music and sound design reveals how the use of these twin elements helps establish and amplify moods and emotions and how they serve as keys to interpret the individual films and TV shows.

The Dream Thief Robert Schenkkan, 1999 Neil Gaiman in the 21st Century Tara Prescott, 2015-02-13 Neil Gaiman has emerged as one of the most influential literary figures of the 21st century. To borrow a phrase from his viral 2012 University of the Arts commencement speech, Gaiman makes good art from his graphic novels to his social media collaborations, award-winning fantasy fiction, and beloved children's books. This collection of new essays examines a range of Gaiman's prolific output with readings of the novels American Gods, Anansi Boys, The Graveyard Book, and The Ocean at the End of the Lane; children's books The Wolves in the Walls and Blueberry Girl; and the online short story collection A Calendar of Tales. Gaiman's return to the serial comic book form with Sandman: Overture is covered, and artist JH Williams III contributes an exclusive interview about his collaboration with Gaiman on Overture. Cartoonist Judd Winick offers a personal essay on his connection to Gaiman's work. Transmedial Narratology and Contemporary Media Culture Jan-Noël Thon, 2016-06 Narratives are everywhere, and since a significant part of contemporary media culture is defined by narrative forms, media studies need a genuinely transmedial narratology. Against this background, Transmedial Narratology and Contemporary Media Culture focuses on the intersubjective construction of storyworlds as well as on prototypical forms of narratorial and subjective representation. This book provides not only a method for the analysis of salient transmedial strategies of narrative representation in contemporary films, comics, and video games, but also a theoretical frame within which medium specific approaches from literary and film narratology from comics studies and game studies and from various other strands of media and cultural studies may be applied to further our understanding of narratives across media
