Fifty-Two Secrets for Praying with Scripture Edward Pascal Cave,Rev. Edward Pascal Cave,2005-05 Many people today feel a great hunger for a deeper experience of God through prayer We are no longer satisfied with merely saying prayers we want to enter a more personal relationship with God himself This desire is a rare blessing in itself for only God can plant such a hunger within us A dimension of prayer which many Christians use as a step toward satisfying this hunger is the use of Scripture as a starting point for reflection and meditation For as we listen prayerfully to God's word we become more and more experientially aware of his loving abiding presence Often however it can be difficult to know where to begin when using the Bible in prayer The purpose of this book is to help people begin to pray with Scripture by offering the actual reading for an entire year of daily prayer

Jesus, the Christ Thomas Sutton,1999-10-25 I was raised in a Christian home I loved hearing stories about Jesus and his life here on earth Growing up I became less and less enthusiastic about my religion for several reasons One critical reason was a natural process As I matured I became more aware of the hypocrisy of religion You know Do as I say not as I do One day a week act like a Christian and the other six days be selfish greedy and a bigot At that time my faith wasn't strong enough to endure Now I know that if I look hard enough I can find hypocrisy in anything I pray that I've grown beyond the paradox My book is an attempt to make the first four books of the New Testament easy to read It's written in prose In other words it's a narrative of Jesus' life using the first four Gospels My book combines Matthew Mark Luke and John into a chronological narrative of Jesus' life It is written through the eyes of you as Peter The book is Scriptural It doesn't change alter or sensationalize the original versions of events In some instances I combine multiple versions of the same event into one My inspiration for writing this book is to bring enthusiasm about Jesus to Christians and new revelations to non Christians Scriptures quoted from The Holy Bible New Century Version copyright 1987 1988 1991 by Word Publishing Nashville TN Used by permission
