Real Women Run Sandra Faulkner, 2018-01-17 Real Women Run is an innovative feminist ethnography that consists of a series of linked essays and presentations about women who run at the intersections of queer feminist and running identities Faulkner uses feminist grounded theory poetic inquiry and qualitative content analysis to examine women s embodied stories of running how they run how running fits into the context of their lives and relationships how they enact or challenge cultural scripts of women s activities and normative running bodies and what running means for their lives and identities During a two and a half year ethnography with women who run Faulkner engaged in an intersectional qualitative content analysis of websites and blogs targeted to women runners a grounded theory poetic analysis of 41 interviews with women who run and participant observation at road races Real Women Run speaks to the call for a more physical feminism This ethnography sees women s physical and mental strength developed through running as a way to embrace the contradictions between a deconstructed focus on the mind body split and the focus on individuals actual material bodies and their everyday interactions with their bodies and through their bodies with the world around them Run It Out Tom

First Marathons Gail Waesche Kislevitz,2014-04-28 Inspiring reading The Wall Street Journal One of the scariest things about running a marathon for the first time isn t the distance the muscle pain the chafing or the blisters It s not knowing what s going to happen That s why this disarmingly honest collection of first time accounts is so refreshing Runner s World UK First Marathons is the collected stories of 37 runners told in their own words describing the experience of running their first marathon Everything is covered from the early flickerings of desire all the way to full blown obsession the training the food the emotions every mile of this incredible journey First Marathons is the best instruction book you will ever find because you learn from the heartfelt life experience of others Illumination and inspiration are on every page These runners are old and young fat and thin men and women Some are famous like Grete Waitz Ted Corbitt and Bill Rodgers and others are just ordinary people all of whom have achieved something truly extraordinary Their collective message anyone can run a marathon everyone should It will change your life forever

Hot Shot Running Back Stephanie Queen,2023-11-20 George I thought I was a hot shit on campus until I met Jack Hunter He was a demi god a black hole on campus sucking up every girl in his orbit until they may as well be invisible Or until I may as well be invisible In spite of that he s my best friend and I spend four years making do with his leftovers consoling girl after girl once he's rejected them. It was a tough job but I didn't mind it. Rich sarcasm here. But I didn't mind until it came to Izzy. She's my achilles heel, the one girl I never let out of my sights, no matter if she sees me or not, but she got sucked into Jack's orbit too and he doesn't let go of her easily. Worse, she doesn't want to let go of him. She clings to his ghost even as I console her, even when she'll let me be no more than a friend. I want to be okay with that. I don't want to hate my best friend. I don't want to see Izzy's heart broken. But I also fucking lutely do not want to be nothing more than a friend to her. I need Izzy to choose me. But how can I ever be sure I'm nothing more than leftovers? Hot Shot Running Back is in the Big Men on Campus world and can be read as a stand-alone George Izzy story. It's a steamy college/new adult football romance where the hot friend finally wins the girl in a sizzling happy ever after ending. Contains sex and language for a mature audience.

Don't Call It a Comeback Keira D'Amato, 2025-09-09. Don't Call It a Comeback is fireworks in a crowded field of athlete memoirs. With a knack for hilariously vulnerable storytelling, Keira unspools a fascinating tale of her unconventional running career. Shelby Van Pelt, New York Times bestselling author of Remarkably Bright Creatures, A victorious tale of coming back in middle age to topple marathon records from the running world's most beloved underdog mom of two and woman voted most fun follow on Strava. Keira D'Amato was an all-American runner who used to chase success. But after being injured in her early twenties, she assumed her running career was over and settled into life as a military spouse and mother of two young children. In her early thirties, she found herself overweight, out of shape, and battling postpartum depression. She knew that improving her fitness would make her feel better and told herself to just get out and run ninety seconds down her street and back. To her dismay, she couldn't do it. But two days later, she tried again. And six years after that, she broke the American women's record in the marathon at the age of thirty-seven. Keira has created a buzz in the world of professional athletics by taking the road less traveled. The normal trajectory for an elite female athlete has been to focus on sport first, then get a real job and finally have a family. Keira upended that: she married her high school sweetheart, had two babies in quick succession, began her career in real estate, and only then returned to running. But it's not just her relatable background that makes Keira so popular amongst fellow runners. We assume that to be successful, one must be serious and humorless with an all-or-nothing approach to ambition. But what if the opposite were true, that cultivating more fun and more variety in your life could actually help you reach your biggest goals? At an age when most athletes consider retirement, Keira is just getting started. And she's determined to share the secrets of her success to help readers to start chasing their own happiness, to dream a big scary dream, and ultimately to find their way back to themselves.

Don't Make Me Turn This Van Around! Alexandra Lytle, 2012-05. One of my sons is hairy, very hairy. We are talking Sasquatch league hair on chest, stomach, and back hair that could be parted and styled, and it started when he was about twelve. He was self-conscious about it and would often try different ways to remove it, much to the delight of his siblings who would watch and offer advice. His nickname was Silverback. Welcome to the wonderful world of the Lytle family, where hitting puberty earns you nicknames Nana deems grandkids dorks the pets are in perpetual toddler danger and everyone's having a blast Which is the grossest A Grandma in a bikini B Jiggling belly fat C Licking a cat D All of the above If you picked D you are correct Being normal is overrated and hard to maintain so the Lytle clan just lets the chips fall where they may These snapshots of their daily lives will leave you laughing or gagging or both If you have ever felt like your family was the only one that seemed a little odd take heart After reading Don't Make Me Turn This Van Around you'll think your loved ones are utter bores

Bright Eyes Bridey Thelen-Heidel, 2024-09-24 Fans of Jennette McCurdy's I'm Glad My Mom Died will root for Bridey Thelen Heidel as she struggles to unshackle herself from her mother's chaos in this triumphant debut memoir Bridey is tethered to her mom's addiction to dangerous men who park their Harley Davidsons in the house and kick holes in all their doors Raised to be her mother's keeper rescuer and punching bag Bridey gets used to stuffing her life into black trash bags hauling them between Alaska and California and changing schools every time her mom moves in a new monster or runs away from one Desperately seeking the normal life she's observed in sitcoms and her friends' families Bridey earns her way into a fancy private college where she tries to forget who she is until her mom calls with a threat that drops Bridey to her knees Watching doctors and police interrogate her mother at the hospital Bridey realizes her mom has become a monster herself and she doesn't want to be saved But Bridey does Bright Eyes is about the indomitable spirit of a young girl forced to be brave required to be resilient and conditioned to be optimistic and how she ultimately uses the same traits that helped her to survive her mother's chaos to create her own happily ever after
