American Foreign Policy Current Documents, 1988 Archæology and the Bible George Aaron Barton, 1927 Georgina's Service Stars Annie F. Johnston, 2023-09-18 Annie F Johnston's Georgina's Service Stars is a poignant children's book that immerses readers in a heartwarming tale of selflessness and service Set during World War I the story follows Georgina a young girl who volunteers for the Red Cross and finds herself deeply involved in efforts to support the war and help those in need Johnston's narrative style is engaging and accessible capturing the innocence and bravery of children facing extraordinary circumstances Through Georgina's experiences readers gain insights into the importance of empathy courage and community support making this book both entertaining and educational for young audiences With themes of sacrifice and patriotism woven throughout the story Georgina s Service Stars resonates with readers of all ages highlighting the power of service and kindness in times of hardship Annie F Johnston s background as a children s author and educator is evident in the depth and authenticity of the characters making this book a compelling and thought provoking read for anyone interested in historical fiction and children s literature Adaptation and Beyond Eva C. Karpinski,Ewa Kęłowska-Ławniczak,2023-09-29 This interdisciplinary collection focuses on recent adaptations both experimental and popular that put hybridity transtextuality and transmediality at play It reframes adaptation in terms of the transmedia concept of world building which accurately captures the complexity and multidirectionality of contemporary scattered and ubiquitous practices of adaptation The editors argue that the process of moving stories or their elements across different media platforms and repurposing them for new uses results in the production of hybrid transtextualities The book demonstrates how hybrid textualities augment narrative and literary forms as goals of their world building finding unexpected sites of cross pollination expansion and appropriation in spoken word and dance performance auto biographical comics advertising Chinese Kun opera and popular song lyrics This yoking of hybridity and transmediality yields not only diversified and often commercialized aesthetic forms but also enables the emergence a unique cultural space in between a mezzaterra capable of addressing current political issues and mobilizing broader audiences
