Seek Out The Guilty:

Seek Out the Guilty David Thomas, Roderick Grant, 1969      Call the Mothers Shaylih Muehlmann, 2024-08-06 A gripping portrait of the relentless women taking missing persons kidnapping and extortion cases into their own hands and building a movement for one another In this riveting exploration of the lives of mothers whose children are among the 100 000 disappeared in Mexico's war on drugs Shaylih Muehlmann shows how families have mobilized on the ground to get answers and justice It is often mothers who confront government corruption indifference and incompetence by taking on the responsibilities of searching for missing persons and dealing with kidnapping and extortion cases In bringing the voices of these women to the fore Muehlmann demonstrates how the war on drugs affects everyday life in Mexico and how these activists have become detectives forensic specialists and even negotiators with drug traffickers Call the Mothers provides a unique look at a grassroots movement that draws from the symbolic power of motherhood to build a network of collectives that redefine traditional gender roles and challenge injustice and impunity      Forever Flowing Vasilii Semenovitch Grossman, 1997 The novel tells the story of Ivan Grigoryevich who has returned to Russia after thirty years in the Gulag After short and unsatisfying visits to familiar places and persons in Moscow and Leningrad the hero settles in a southern provincial town where he briefly establishes a new life with a war widow Ivan Grigoryevich eventually returns to his boyhood home on the Black Sea where he is finally able to come to terms with the inhumanity of the new Russian regime      An Introduction to Criminological Theory Marilyn McShane, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1997 This is a book about the different ways in which crime and criminal behaviour has been explained in modern times It will be seen that there are different explanations or theories which have been proposed at various times during the past 200 years by among others legal philosophers biologists psychologists sociologists and political scientists      California. Supreme Court. Records and Briefs California (State)., Number of Exhibits 1_x000D_ Court of Appeal Case s B033163      The Uncontrollability of the World Hartmut Rosa, 2020-10-06 The driving cultural force of that form of life we call modern is the desire to make the world controllable Yet it is only in encountering the uncontrollable that we really experience the world only then do we feel touched moved and alive A world that is fully known in which everything has been planned and mastered would be a dead world Our lives are played out on the border between what we can control and that which lies outside our control But because we late modern human beings seek to make the world controllable we tend to encounter the world as a series of objects that we have to conquer master or exploit And precisely because of this life the experience of feeling alive and truly encountering the world always seems to elude us This in turn leads to frustration anger and even despair which then manifest themselves in among other things acts of impotent political aggression For Rosa to encounter the world and achieve resonance with it requires us to be open to that which extends beyond our control The outcome of this process cannot be predicted and this is why moments of resonance are always concomitant with moments of uncontrollability This short book the sequel to Rosa's path breaking work on social acceleration and resonance will be of great interest students and scholars in sociology and the social sciences and to anyone concerned with the nature of modern social life examines the debates and legal developments surrounding collective responsibility under international law The philosophical debates on collective responsibility provide an introduction to the examination of whether collective responsibility is ever appropriate or even lawful under international law As the international criminal justice project begins to flourish it is of paramount importance that the extent of the potential liability of individuals for the acts of others is clarified and held up to rigorous scrutiny It is of equal importance that there is a clear understanding of whether the means of responding to ongoing violations of international humanitarian law can include measures based on collective responsibility Global events have created an impetus for the parameters of responsibility to be clearly defined The rise of non State actors within the international legal regime raises complex questions surrounding their status power and the means for holding them accountable Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint     Effects of Certain Acids and Their Sodium Salts Upon the Growth of Sclerotinia Cinerea ... Marin Sheppard Dunn,1926     Shadow Seduction Teddy Bart,2011-08-10 Why do decent people do shameful things While media attention focuses on the misbehavior of the rich and famous every day thousands of ordinary people make choices for which they suffer humiliation emotional pain and loss They can hide behind the cloak of anonymity and their stories are rarely told Such was the case of Jonathan Feldman a respected sixty nine year old businessman Since childhood Jonathan has had an ongoing relationship with what Dr Carl Jung would call his shadoweverything that is repressed undeveloped and denied in ones self For Jonathan this darker alter ego is the famous actor he had aspired to become Jonathans shadow manifests as an apparitional entity co existing as the antagonist snidely debating with Jonathan as he wrestles with his options cleverly influencing him to make a series of bad choices And if Jonathan isnt careful his shadow could ultimately lead him into planning his final exit As he did with A Particle of God author Teddy Bart probes one of lifes enigmas through the journey toward self discovery of Jonathan Feldman     Pacific Affairs ,1967 Includes book reviews and bibliographies
