Pearl: An Australian Story Judith Dring, 2014-11-17 Dripping in detail Judith Dring's Pearl An Australian Story brings to life the complex nature of a small Australian town. The realness of the world Judith Dring creates is truly remarkable and should not be missed. Set during wartime in the 1940s the country and small towns of Australia still reel with the social issues of sex and race. Sally innocent but with keen eyes and a sharp mind is slowly exposed to these ever present facts of small town life. In a world speckled with abusive husbands and wealthy classmates Sally must work through the inequity of being a poor female to find a better life. Through much of her youth her best friend Pearl opens her eyes to the world around her. However as Sally will learn later Pearl is an outcast herself. When Pearl must leave her will Sally be able to navigate the path to adulthood and success on her own.

An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion James Jupp, 2018-04-10 An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion presents Australian traditions myths and legends in an understanding but often critical light in the belief that such devices have often been used by interested parties and even governments to maintain social solidarity and to mould a very complex people into a coherent and obedient whole. Australia is not and never has been an equal society. It has not always been a peaceful and tolerant society but it is more so than most other states and especially many of those sending immigrants. It is not a perfect democracy. Many have been mistreated and even persecuted but that most of those suffering at present are either indigenous or refugees should not be a cause of indifference. Australians may be suspicious of foreigners and social and political deviants. But they have passed a whole series of reforming laws since the Federation in 1901 not all of which have been as racist as the White Australia policy. An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion attempts to get a little bit closer to the truth of two hundred years of creating a liveable society in what was a remote and unknown part of the world.

Vulnerability and Resilience Jione Havea, 2020-01-28 In Vulnerability and Resilience vulnerability is not the final word. Rather resilience provides the cutting edge and living breath in the stories of subjects who are vulnerable. And they have many stories stories of being trapped in bodies teachings and or situations that make them and others like them vulnerable to discrimination hatred and rejection stories of being trapped because of their bodies theologies and or cultures and stories of being trapped for no good reason. For subjects who are vulnerable life is like a maze of traps and stories of resilience keep them going. The contributors to Vulnerability and Resilience refuse to be trapped. At the intersection of body and liberation theologies they tell their stories in the hope that they will expose cultures that make individuals and communities vulnerable and that those stories will encourage vulnerable subjects to be resilient and bring change to theological institutions that conserve vulnerability. Because of the location of the contributors the Americas Africa Asia Europe Caribbean and Oceania this book is a testimony that vulnerability is present all over the world and that resilience is a liberating alternative.

Looking for Elizabeth Helen Trinca, 2025-07-15 The full story of an Australian literary enigma Why did Elizabeth Harrower one of Australia's most important postwar authors stop writing at the height of her powers After publishing four books that earned the admiration of Patrick White Shirley Hazzard and Christina Stead Harrower published no more novels She faded from the literary landscape until being rediscovered decades later to international acclaim In Looking for Elizabeth Helen Trinca unravels this mystery Exploring the personal and artistic forces that shaped Harrower's writing she draws a sensitive portrait of a wounded divorced child and the legacy of abandonment she carried throughout her life She probes the contradictions of a woman who wielded extraordinary insight into others' lives but guarded her own fiercely And she vividly brings to life the literary circles of this fascinating era in Australian culture Based on interviews with Harrower and full access to her archive Looking for Elizabeth is the first full biography of this significant figure in Australian letters A masterful deep dive into the enigmatic life of a writer who stunned and then stopped This is a monumental addition to Australian literary biography that's destined to become a classic Nikki Gemmell A biography that is every bit as beguiling and complex as its towering subject Exacting exhaustive and utterly essential The more I read the more compelled I felt to cut out a picture of Elizabeth Harrower and stick it above my writing desk Trent Dalton growth and social prosperity and natural resource exploitation while not romanticising social material relations to nature The authors explore diverse understandings of care through a range of analytical approaches contexts and case studies and pays particular attention to the complicated nexus between re productivity nature womanhood and care It includes strong contributions on community economies everyday practices of care the politics of place and care of non human others as well as an engagement on concepts such as wealth sustainability food sovereignty body politics naturecultures and technoscience Feminist Political Ecology and the Economics of Care is aimed at all those interested in what feminist theory and practice brings to today s major political economic and environmental debates around sustainability alternatives to economic development and gender power relations Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02 Animal Nation Adrian Franklin,2006 Traces the complex relationship between animals and humans in Australia Starts with the colonial period and brings us full circle to the present when native species are protected above all others The Cane Barracks Story Eugenie Navarre,2008-06 The barracks book is the history of cane barracks between Mossman and Ingham narrated by the colourful characters who were the essence and energy of barrack culture and folklore Cane barracks remain the most characteristic and enduring example of Tropical North Queensland architecture Hundreds of these original structures have been lost to cyclone flood fire and time others miraculously have endured a handful from the 1890s to bring an historic insight and hand era nostalgia to this fast moving modern NQ tourist oriented 21st century The Rotarian ,1971-03 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal,2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies Australia To-day ,1911 Motion Picture Story Magazine ,1913 Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina Aveyard,Albert Moran,Errol Vieth,2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world's best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies

Plants as Persons

Matthew Hall, 2011-05-06 Plants are people too No but in this work of philosophical botany Matthew Hall challenges readers to reconsider the moral standing of plants arguing that they are other than human persons Plants constitute the bulk of our visible biomass underpin all natural ecosystems and make life on Earth possible Yet plants are considered passive and insensitive beings rightly placed outside moral consideration As the human assault on nature continues more ethical behavior toward plants is needed Hall surveys Western Eastern Pagan and Indigenous thought as well as modern science for attitudes toward plants noting the particular resources for plant personhood and those modes of thought which most exclude plants The most hierarchical systems typically put plants at the bottom but Hall finds much to support a more positive view of plants Indeed some indigenous animisms actually recognize plants as relational intelligent beings who are the appropriate recipients of care and respect New scientific findings encourage this perspective revealing that plants possess many of the capacities of sentience and mentality traditionally denied them
