M. Waidson, 1971 Directions, 1979 Books, 1972 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 News Sheet, 1970 Choice, 1987 Contemporary German Fiction Writers Wolfgang Elfe, James N. Hardin, 1988 Essays on West German East German and Swiss German authors who experienced Nazi rule and World War II as adults Entries examine these writers coming to terms with the experience of fascism and how they were often the conscience of a society that was inclined to forget its recent past The lives and works of these writers provide an insight not only into German literature but also into several decades of German history Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1984 Books in Print Supplement, 1985 Book Review Digest, 1992 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 Fiction, 1876-1983: Titles R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, R.R. Bowker Company. Publications Systems Department, 1983 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Books in Print, 1982 Cultural Impact in the German Context Rebecca Braun, Lyn Marven, 2010 Examines then employs the metaphor of cultural impact in an effort to understand how culture works in the German speaking world How to gauge the impact of cultural products is an old question but bureaucratic agendas such as the one recently implemented in the UK to measure the impact of university research including in German Studies are new Impact is seen as confirming a cultural product's value for society not least in the eyes of cultural funders Yet its use as an evaluative category has been widely criticized by academics Rather than rejecting the concept of impact however this volume employs it as a metaphor to reflect on issues of transmission reception and influence that have always underlain cultural production but have escaped systematic conceptualization It seeks to understand how culture works in the German speaking world how writers and artists express themselves how readers and audiences engage with the resulting products and how academics are drawn to analyze this dynamic process Formulating such questions afresh in the context of German Studies the volume examines both contemporary cultural discourse and the way it evolves more generally. It links such topics as authorial intention, readerly reception, intertextuality, and modes of perception to less commonly studied phenomena such as the institutional practices of funding bodies that underpin cultural discourse.

Heinrich Böll's Gruppenbild Mit Dame in the Context of the Author's Earlier Work Patricia Ann Mayne Burke, 1976 Heimat, Space, Narrative Friederike Ursula Eigler, 2014. Explores how contemporary novels dealing with flight and expulsion after the Second World War unsettle traditional notions of Heimat without abandoning place-based notions of belonging. At the end of the Second World War, millions of Germans and Poles fled or were expelled from the border regions of what had been their countries. This monograph examines how in Cold War and post-Cold War Europe, since the 1970s, writers have responded to memories or postmemories of this traumatic displacement. Friederike Eigler engages with important currents in scholarship on Heimat, the much-debated German concept of homeland, on the spatial turn in literary studies, and on German-Polish relations, arguing for a transnational approach to the legacies of flight and expulsion and for a spatial approach to Heimat. She explores notions of belonging in selected postwar and contemporary German novels with a comparative look at a Polish novel. Olga Tokarczuk's House of Day, House of Night (1998). Eigler finds dynamic manifestations of place in Tokarczuk's novel, in Horst Bienek's 1972/82 Gleiwitz tetralogy about the historical border region of Upper Silesia, and in contemporary novels by Reinhard Jirgl, Christoph Hein, Kathrin Schmidt, Tanja Dückers, Olaf Miller, and Sabrina Janesch. In a decisive departure from earlier approaches, Eigler explores how these novels foster an awareness of the region's multiethnic and multinational histories, unsettling traditional notions of Heimat without altogether abandoning place-based notions of belonging. Friederike Eigler is Professor of German at Georgetown University.
