Excerpt from Select Constitutional Documents Illustrating South African History 1795-1910. In the case of the Orange Free State and the South African Republic the Grondwet or constitution of each contains provisions for every branch of government. Here again it would lead to chaos if the documents were to be subdivided; therefore a purely chronological arrangement has been made. When any particular subject is to be consulted, the Index at the end of the volume will serve as a guide. The laws of these two countries were drawn up in Dutch. With the originals an English translation has been given in every case. I have attempted to make the rendering as literal as possible. Where a portion of an Act in Dutch has been summarised, I have adhered as much as possible to the spelling and grammatical forms of the original. Titles of dignity occurring in the Dutch text have as a rule been omitted in translating.
