

The background of the slide is a photograph of a stack of old, worn books and some papers. The books have yellowed, aged spines. In the foreground, there are several sheets of paper, some of which appear to be old photographs or documents with dark, possibly inked or painted, areas. The lighting is soft and focused on the books, creating a sense of history and scholarship.

Master Of Modern French Criticism:

The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt, 1913 This volume does not criticize criticism but criticizes critics The critics examined are among the most vital and significant personalities of their time To study Sainte Beuve and the other leading French critics is to get very close to the intellectual center of the century Readers may thus follow the main movement of this thought through this period and build up the necessary background for understanding the ideas of the present day whether they continue this earlier thought or react from it The so called anti intellectualist movement can only be understood with reference to such a background it is a reaction from the dogmatic naturalism that reached its height in the second half of the nineteenth century In the end the judgment of the keen sighted few in the present will be ratified by the verdict of posterity

Literature and the Democratic Culture Milton Hindus, 2023-04-14 This is a sustained inquiry into the thought of the influential scholar and critic Irving Babbitt 1865 1933 intellectual leader of the movement known as the New Humanism

Milton Hindus considers the subjects that most interested Babbitt ethics literature education and social and political conservatism in the United States In their most general sense his concerns were man and his nature as the root of all social order For Babbitt efforts to improve social conditions must begin and end with the individual human being In rejecting notions that society is primarily responsible for moral deficiencies in the individual or that the individual is born good only to be corrupted by society Babbitt places responsibility squarely with the individual As Hindus shows Babbitt sees human beings as a mixture of good and evil impulses shaped by what he called the inner check Virtue is thus a result of self discipline reinforced and confirmed by habit Babbitt's thinking emphasizing as it does proven values and accepted wisdom calls upon us to advance ourselves by rediscovery of the lessons of the past Hindus demonstrates that Babbitt has much to offer us as we consider contemporary social and political issues In contrast to those who emphasize avant garde postures and fashionable ideologies as well as those conservative followers of outdated theories and dead end formulas Babbitt's reinvigorating spirit inspires new insights Although there have been a number of studies of Irving Babbitt and the New Humanism Hindus is singular in his combination of detailed consideration of a number of Babbitt's books with his own essays on contemporary issues approached in what Hindus calls a Babbittian spirit Like Babbitt's own writings this book is addressed to the general reader It will be of particular importance to teachers of comparative literature and those interested in the connections between literature and social thought and philosophy The London Quarterly & Holborn Review, 1922

London Quarterly Review, 1913 Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review, 1926 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1830 On Literature, Culture, and Religion Irving Babbitt, 2017-07-05 Irving Babbitt was a giant of American criticism His writings from the 1890s to the 1930s helped advance American criticism and scholarship to international esteem More than seventy years after his death his intellectual staying power remains undiminished On Literature Culture and Religion is an ideal introduction to this seminal American thinker Babbitt's opinions were uncompromising and his vocal allies and opponents included almost every name in American literature and scholarship T S Eliot Edmund Wilson Paul Elmer More H L Mencken and Sinclair Lewis A founder of New Humanism Babbitt was best known for his indictment of Romanticism and his insistence that the modern age had gone wrong Babbitt argued for a renewal of humanistic values and standards which he found best articulated in classical Greece Hinduism and Buddhism The selections cover topics central to Babbitt criticism Romanticism classical literature French literature education democracy and Buddhism They typify Babbitt's method recondite allusion penetrating insight and analysis impeccable scholarship and unrelenting pursuit of the furthest ramification and the profoundest implication The original annotation is retained Brief introductions to the essays place them in the Babbitt canon A major introductory essay by George A Panichas surveys Babbitt's career and critical reception and summarizes the

concepts that inform Babbitt's writing Panichas raises again controversial issues that were not really resolved in Babbitt's time The essay will challenge those long familiar with Babbitt and New Humanism and those newly introduced thereto

The Athenaeum ,1830 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1918 The Gates of Horn Harry Levin,1986-04-10 The author explores this tradition in depth and defines it with a breadth of vision a dynamic vigor and freedom rarely paralleled today His method flexible generous humane in the best sense of the word eschews pedantry dogma useless theorizing and scholastic argumentation The New York Times Book Review I wish to make it clear that The Gates of Horn represents an outstanding critical accomplishment Saturday Review In the Odyssey Homer describes two gates of the imagination one of ivory through which fictitious dreams pass and the other of horn through which nothing but the truth may pass Realism is the type of literature that passes through the horn and in this significant study of the genre Levin examines a major form of Realism the French novel and focuses on five of its masters Stendahl Balzac Flaubert Zola and Proust Now available in paperback Levin's study is a veritable reconstruction of the artistic and intellectual life of a nation The Resistance to Theory Paul De Man,1986 Modern French Literature Benjamin Willis Wells,1896
