

The background of the slide is a reproduction of a painting by the English Romantic painter J.M.W. Turner. The painting, titled 'Rain, Steam, and Great Bridge' (1844), depicts a steam locomotive crossing the Maidenhead Railway Bridge over the River Thames. The scene is characterized by soft, atmospheric conditions of rain and steam, with a palette dominated by muted greens, blues, and greys. In the foreground, several lily pads float on the water, adding a touch of nature to the industrial scene. The overall style is Impressionist, emphasizing light and color over fine detail.
