Money Exchange Dealers Of Kabul A Study Of The Hawala System In Afghanistan:

The Money Exchange Dealers of Kabul Samuel Munzele Maimbo,2003 The Money Exchange Dealers of Kabul Samuel Munzele Maimbo,2003 Annotation The study examines the hawala system s operational characteristics vulnerability to financial abuse and regulatory implications

Reconstructing Afghanistan International Monetary Fund,2005-04-15 This book which reflects the IMF staff s work in Afghanistan from early 2002 through the first quarter of 2004 provides an overview of the institutional and economic achievements in Afghanistan in the post Taliban period that is from late 2001 to early 2004 During this period the staff focused on helping often under difficult circumstances the Afghan authorities quickly establish a basic framework for economic management and policies including rebuilding key institutions Reconstructing Afghanistan describes the strong economic recovery that took place during 2002 and 2003 traces the formulation and implementation of the government s budgetary policy discusses the progress made in rebuilding fiscal institutions and outlines the challenges and issues that the authorities faced in the area of monetary and exchange rate policy Institutional Innovation and Change in Value Chain Development Holly A. Ritchie,2016-03-02 George Bernard Shaw once said that reasonable people adapt themselves to the world but unreasonable people adapt the world to themselves In a sense this book explores how these so called unreasonable people may interact to re fashion the world around them in fragile economic development Drawing on empirical research in the volatile and traditional context of Afghanistan the study investigates the challenge of poor women s participation in business and diverse outcomes for local development Institutional Innovation and Change in Value Chain Development takes a unique look at nuanced institutional phenomena through the lens of social institutions with a subtle appreciation of the interaction of structure and agency Drawing on in depth qualitative research in Afghanistan the case studies specifically investigate the transformation of the women s norm of purdah and the subsequent development of new market institutions in three women s enterprises Shedding new light on the opaque process of institutional change the research shows that external actors such as NGOs can both initiate and guide institutional development in fragile environments Yet there may be limitations to their endeavours with strong resistance from local power holders Meanwhile dominant entrepreneurs are shown to play a major role in fostering institutional development pathways This influences the scope of inclusion and exclusion in enterprise and value chains and broader streams of socio economic development Shari'a Compliant Microfinance S. Nazim Ali,2013-03-01 In the recent past Islamic finance has made an impressive case on the banking scene by becoming an alternative to the popular conventional financial systems spurring a lively academic debate on how the Islamic finance industry can expand its services to cover the poor Several propositions have been aired which suggest that the Islamic finance industry should consider developing an efficient Shari a compliant microfinance model This book brings together original contributions from leading authorities on the subject of Shari a Compliant Microfinance Islamic

Microfinance to propose innovative solutions and models by carefully studying experiments conducted in various countries Where critiques of the current microfinance concepts methods regulatory measures and practices have often revolved around its practice of charging very high interest this book discusses the several models that draw on both theory and case studies to provide a sustainable Shari a compliant alternative Arguing that while Islamic finance might have made a remarkable contribution in the financial markets there remains a big question with regards to its social relevance the book provides new perspectives and innovative solutions to issues facing the Islamic microfinance industry A comprehensive reference book for anyone wanting to learn more about Shari a Compliant Microfinance this book will also be of use to students and scholars of microfinance Islamic finance and to anyone interested in learning about ethical and socially responsible businesses Horizontal Inequalities and Post-Conflict Development Frances Stewart,R. Venugopal,2016-04-30

This book evaluates the extent to which post conflict reconstruction has addressed problems of horizontal inequalities through country case studies on Burundi Rwanda Nepal Peru Guatemala Bosnia and Herzegovina and Afghanistan and four thematic studies on macro economic policies privatisation PRSP s and employment generation Suppressing Terrorist Financing and Money Laundering Jae-myong Koh,2006-07-25 When watching the collapse of the Twin Towers on CNN 11 September 2001 the international community was awakened to the urgent needs of open discussion to identify the emerging threat and the way to cope with it Given the unprecedented heinous nature of the incident the moves that the international community made were quick and included countermeasures in various dimensions One of the major countermeasures highlighted as a result was to target the financial infrastructure of terrorist organisations In this campaign diverse organisations have participated including the Security Council Financial Action Task Force FATF IMF World Bank etc At the same time various methodologies have also been introduced at both the international and national level Such a consensus and mobilisation of sources to one end in the international community may be considered phenomenal in the history of public international law and without doubt merits an in depth analysis for both academic and practical purposes In this context this book examines the evolution and implementation of int national standards on countering the financing of terrorism There are two dim sions to be taken into account to understand the structure of this book The first is concerned with a sequential perspective Given that 9 11 has provided a critical momentum in this area chapter 2 deals with the international position prior to 9 11 whereas chapters 3 4 and 5 analyse development following 9 11 The s ond is related to a hard law and soft law perspective Terronomics Sean S. Costigan,David Gold,2016-03-16 Today no single issue dominates the global political landscape as much as terrorism Aware of their unique position in the newly unipolar world terrorist leaders have articulated that economic warfare is a key component of the new terrorist agenda Governments have accentuated the role of economic tools in their counter terrorism policies while maintaining emphasis on the application of military force or hard power even though such tools often prove unnecessarily blunt or even sorely inadequate Given the complexity of the global threat posed by modern transnational terrorist groups combating terrorism with a mix of hard and soft power is more important than ever. As an invaluable new book in terrorism studies, Terronomics brings together contributions from renowned international scholars and practitioners to provide a multifaceted view of contemporary financial counterterrorism and terrorist funding efforts. It employs key concepts, terms, case studies, and policy recommendations to advance our understanding of the threats and possible courses of action, thus enabling us to grasp the critical financial and economic issues while providing potential counterterrorist strategies.

Rethinking Illicit Economies in Opium and Cocaine Eric D. U. Gutierrez, 2023-11-13. This book investigates the cross-border trade in illicit drug crops in the global south. It exposes an important paradox: despite all the dangers and negative consequences of these criminal networks, in many cases they also provide marginalised and excluded communities with important private sources of protection, investment, and employment. This book reconstructs and compares socioeconomic contexts, criminal careers, and changes in farmgate prices of illicit coca and opium poppy crops in Afghanistan, Myanmar, Colombia, and Bolivia. It investigates the politics of strange bedfellows: informal bankers without suits providing cross-border financial services to the undocumented and the unbanked; the criminals without borders and the mystery of illicit crop prices. The book challenges commonly held assumptions and casts new light on how relationships of conflict and accommodation are arranged and re-arranged in fluid, ever-changing contexts, producing often paradoxical outcomes. It then suggests policy reforms and alternative approaches to drug policy, development aid, and peacebuilding work. Researchers and students across development, peacebuilding, illicit economies, and conflict studies will find this book an important source of original research and analysis. It will also be useful for politicians, commentators, and public officials considering what to do differently in tackling illicit drug economies.
