Abolition Kevin Andrew, 2014-08-11 On the Move Sue Boinski, Paul A. Garber, 2000-05-15 Getting from here to there may be simple for one individual But as any parent scout leader or CEO knows herding a whole troop in one direction is a lot more complicated Who leads the group Who decides where the group will travel and using what information How do they accomplish these tasks On the Move addresses these questions examining the social cognitive and ecological processes that underlie patterns and strategies of group travel Chapters discuss how factors such as group size resource distribution and availability the costs of travel predation social cohesion and cognitive skills affect how individuals as well as social groups exploit their environment Most chapters focus on field studies of a wide range of human and nonhuman primate groups from squirrel monkeys to Turkana pastoralists but chapters covering group travel in hyenas birds dolphins and bees provide a broad taxonomic perspective and offer new insights into comparative questions such as whether primates are unique in their ability to coordinate group level activities Watch's Wild Cry Robert F. Weir, 2024-11-05 At the age of nineteen Robert F. Weir of West Point New York ran away to sea where he spent the next ten years of his life Assuming the pseudonym Robert Wallace Weir sailed aboard the bark Clara Bell out of New Bedford Massachusetts in 1855 for a voyage to the whaling grounds of the Atlantic and Indian Oceans Upon the death of one of the Clara Bell's boatsteerers harpooners Weir was promoted to this position of great responsibility Recording daily events aboard the Clara Bell over the course of nearly three years from 1855 to 1858 Weir's journal vividly relates the whaleman's life both in prose and in detailed hand drawn illustrations This is a timeless account of life on a nineteenth century whaler from the misery of seasickness and the rigors of sea voyages to the thrill and violence of whale hunts to the sights sounds and foods of foreign cultures The Weir journal is a staff favorite at Mystic Seaport Museum for its compelling story beautiful illustrations and immaculate penmanship

Warthogs and Mongooses Janey Levy, 2021-07-15 In the animal world it's rare for two mammal species to form a mutualistic relationship It's especially rare for that to happen when neither species is a primate but that's exactly what happens between warthogs and banded mongooses Young readers will be thrilled to discover these contrasting creatures and the fascinating bond between them Accessible text addresses important science concepts and lively images bring this relationship into full focus Fun facts and a graphic organizer enhance the narrative Contessa Jack Fitzgerald, 1999 Contessa transcends a life span of extraordinary breadth and variety Contessa's story is not only a bombshell of an expose but is also an insightful treatment of the life and career of a sensitive creative talented and enigmatic icon of the theater and film It offers the reader the untold stories and details of her victories and defeats Here is a totally candid and intimate self portrait of a remarkable woman her personal failures as well as her public successes Contessa the human being is warm witty humorous and relentlessly honest Her story of chaos shows how she fought back at life and won control over her own destiny The fictitious Contessa is tempestuous scintillating poignant and passionate open honest and generous High praise
