Saying and Doing in Zapotec Mark A. Sicoli, 2020-09-17 A multimodal ethnography of language as living process this book demonstrates methods for the integrated analysis of talk gesture and material culture developing a fresh way to understand human language through a focus on jointly achieved social actions to which it is part Based on findings from a participatory multimedia language documentation project in a highland Zapotec community of Oaxaca Mexico Mark A Sicoli brings together goals of documentary linguistics and anthropological concern with the everyday means and ends of human social life with theoretical consequences for the analysis of linguistic and cultural reproduction and change This book argues that resonances emergent in the whole of multiparticipant multimodal interaction are organizational of human social cognitive process important for understanding both the shape linguistic utterances take in interaction dialogic resonance and the relationships built between distinct sign modes intermodal resonance In this way Saying and Doing in Zapotec develops a new theory characterizing the logic of resonance in human interaction as semiotic process that connects and juxtaposes interactional moves into assemblages of relations resonances and collaborations that build an emergent lifeworld for a language

How Forests Think Eduardo Kohn, 2013-08-03 Can forests think Do dogs dream In this astonishing book Eduardo Kohn challenges the very foundations of anthropology calling into question our central assumptions about what it means to be human and thus distinct from all other life forms Based on four years of fieldwork among the Runa of Ecuador s Upper Amazon Eduardo Kohn draws on his rich ethnography to explore how Amazonians interact with the many creatures that inhabit one of the world s most complex ecosystems Whether or not we recognize it our anthropological tools hinge on those capacities that make us distinctly human However when we turn our ethnographic attention to how we relate to other kinds of beings these tools which have the effect of divorcing us from the rest of the world break down How Forests Think seizes on this breakdown as an opportunity Avoiding reductionistic solutions and without losing sight of how our lives and those of others are caught up in the moral webs we humans spin this book skillfully fashions new kinds of conceptual tools from the strange and unexpected properties of the living world itself In this groundbreaking work Kohn takes anthropology in a new and exciting direction one that offers a more capacious way to think about the world we share with other kinds of beings

Key Works in Radical Constructivism Ernst von Glasersfeld, 2007-01-01 Key Works on Radical Constructivism brings together a number of essays by Ernst von Glasersfeld that illustrate the application of a radical constructivist way of thinking in the areas of education language theory of knowledge and the analysis of a few concepts that are indispensable in almost everything we think and do Ernst von Glasersfeld s work opens a window on how we know what we know The present work grew out of a desire to make more accessible this line of thought to highlight its originality and consistency and to illustrate its fecundity in the domains of cognition and learning The first three parts of this book contain texts by Glasersfeld that outline the constructivist approach and explicate the frequently drastic reconceptualizations he has suggested Both the last part and the postscript consist of commentaries by Edith Ackermann Jacques D sautels G rard Fourez Leslie P Steffe and Kenneth Tobin scholars in the fields that Glasersfeld has been concerned with They examine a number of critical aspects pertaining to radical constructivism s current and future development often tracing out paths that warrant further exploration and reflection in particular concerning the sociopolitical dimension of knowledge Key Works on Radical Constructivism is intended as a reference book for researchers educators and students of education and for anyone interested in grasping or deepening their grasp of radical constructivism s tenets ambitions and concerns Readers will discover in this collection of firsthand contributions the contours of a bold contemporary debate about a most compelling current of thought AB Bookman's Weekly ,1998

Manual Sign-Communication System for Special Populations, Volume 2. John D. Bonvillian,Nicole Kissane Lee,Tracy T. Dooley ,Filip T. Loncke ,2020-07-30 Simplified Signs presents a system of manual sign communication intended for special populations who have had limited success mastering spoken or full sign languages It is the culmination of over twenty years of research and development by the authors The Simplified Sign System has been developed and tested for ease of sign comprehension memorization and formation by limiting the complexity of the motor skills required to form each sign and by ensuring that each sign visually resembles the meaning it conveys Volume 1 outlines the research underpinning and informing the project and places the Simplified Sign System in a wider context of sign usage historically and by different populations Volume 2 presents the lexicon of signs totalling approximately 1000 signs each with a clear illustration and a written description of how the sign is formed as well as a memory aid that connects the sign visually to the meaning that it conveys While the Simplified Sign System originally was developed to meet the needs of persons with intellectual disabilities cerebral palsy autism or aphasia it may also assist the communication needs of a wider audience such as healthcare professionals aid workers military personnel travellers or parents and children who have not yet mastered spoken language The system also has been shown to enhance learning for individuals studying a foreign language Lucid and comprehensive this work constitutes a valuable resource that will enhance the communicative interactions of many different people and will be of great interest to researchers and educators alike Lavinia Fontana's Mythological Paintings Liana De Girolami

Cheney,2020-08-18 This volume investigates emblematic and art historical issues in Lavinia Fontana s mythological paintings Fontana is the first female painter of the sixteenth century in Italy to depict female nudes as well as mythological and emblematic paintings associated with concepts of beauty and wisdom Her paintings reveal an appropriation of the antique a fusion between patronage and culture and a humanistic pursuit of Mannerist conceits Fontana s secular imagery provides a challenging paragone with the male tradition of history painting during the sixteenth century and paves the way for new
