The Team the Titans Remember Mark A. O'Connell, 2017-10-31 In 2000 Walt Disney Pictures released the film Remember the Titans which stirred the hearts of many but falsely depicted the Titans of T C Williams playing their arch rival George C Marshall in a nail biter of a championship football game decided on the last play in a place called Roanoke Stadium Wrong The Titans played a small and scrappy bunch of players from Salem known as the Wolverines of Andrew Lewis High in the historic Victory Stadium of Roanoke Salem native Mark A O Connell sets the record straight for all time in this book which tells the true story of the championship game and also links the 1971 Andrew Lewis High Wolverines to a lasting legacy which had begun in 1962 under legendary head Coach Eddie Joyce Now you can read the true and unaltered story Now this from Coach Foster Andrew Lewis a small southwest Virginia school located in Salem and nicknamed the Wolverines played and won against some of the largest schools in Virginia West Virginia Maryland North Carolina and Tennessee Today these schools would be classified in Virginia as 6A the largest of all six classifications During the 1971 season Andrew Lewis played 7 schools that had student enrollments over 2 000 while Lewis s enrollment was only 975 students Lewis was 12 1 that year its only loss to T C Williams Remember the Titans Game which had an enrollment of 5 000 students Between 1962 and 1971 Andrew Lewis won 2 state championships 62 64 and was runner up 3 times 66 67 and 71 as a member of the largest classification in Virginia Over that span of time considered as the best years of Coach Joyce the Wolverines compiled a record of 88 wins 15 losses and 2 ties Dale Foster

Hideous Progeny Angela Smith, 2012-01-24 Twisted bodies deformed faces aberrant behavior and abnormal desires characterized the hideous creatures of classic Hollywood horror which thrilled audiences with their sheer grotesqueness Most critics have interpreted these traits as symptoms of sexual repression or as metaphors for other kinds of marginalized identities yet Angela M Smith conducts a richer investigation into the period s social and cultural preoccupations She finds instead a fascination with eugenics and physical and cognitive debility in the narrative and spectacle of classic 1930s horror heightened by the viewer s desire for visions of vulnerability and transformation Reading such films as Dracula 1931 Frankenstein 1931 Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde 1931 Freaks 1932 and Mad Love 1935 against early twentieth century disability discourse and propaganda on racial and biological purity Smith showcases classic horror s dependence on the narratives of eugenics and physiognomics She also notes the genre s conflicted and often contradictory visualizations Smith ultimately locates an indictment of biological determinism in filmmakers visceral treatments which take the impossibility of racial improvement and bodily perfection to sensationalistic heights Playing up the artifice and conventions of disabled monsters filmmakers exploited the fears and yearnings of their audience accentuating both the perversity of the medical and scientific gaze and the debilitating experience of watching horror Classic horror films therefore encourage empathy with the disabled monster offering captive viewers an unsettling encounter with their own impairment Smith s work profoundly advances cinema and disability studies in addition to general histories concerning the construction of social and political attitudes toward the Other

The Postmillennial Vampire
Susan Chaplin,2017-01-23 This book explores the idea that while we see the vampire as a hero of romance or as a member of an oppressed minority struggling to fit in and acquire legal recognition the vampire has in many ways changed beyond recognition over recent decades due to radically shifting formations of the sacred in contemporary culture The figure of the vampire has captured the popular imagination to an unprecedented extent since the turn of the millennium The philosopher Ren Girard associates the sacred with a communal violence that sacred ritual controls and contains As traditional formations of the sacred fragment the vampire comes to embody and enact this sacred violence through complex blood bonds that relate the vampire to the human in wholly new ways in the new millennium
