Can the Monster Speak? Paul B. Preciado, 2021-08-03 Paul Preciado s controversial 2019 lecture at the cole de la Cause Freudienne annual conference published in a definitive translation for the first time In November 2019 Paul Preciado was invited to speak in front of 3 500 psychoanalysts at the cole de la Cause Freudienne s annual conference in Paris Standing in front of the profession for whom he is a mentally ill person suffering from gender dysphoria Preciado draws inspiration in his lecture from Kafka s Report to an Academy in which a monkey tells an assembly of scientists that human subjectivity is a cage comparable to one made of metal bars Speaking from his own mutant cage Preciado does not so much criticize the homophobia and transphobia of the founders of psychoanalysis as demonstrate the discipline s complicity with the ideology of sexual difference dating back to the colonial era an ideology which is today rendered obsolete by technological advances allowing us to alter our bodies and procreate differently Preciado calls for a radical transformation of psychological and psychoanalytic discourse and practices arguing for a new epistemology capable of allowing for a multiplicity of living bodies without reducing the body to its sole heterosexual reproductive capability and without legitimizing hetero patriarchal and colonial violence Causing a veritable outcry among the assembly Preciado was heckled and booed and unable to finish The lecture filmed on smartphones was published online where fragments were transcribed translated and published with no regard for exactitude With this volume Can the Monster Speak is published in a definitive translation for the first time
