Nagara And Commandery:

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 1999 Volume 2 discusses Southeast Asia's interaction with foreign countries during the period c 1500 to c 1800

Pelagic Passageways Rila Mukherjee, 2011 Due to the frontierization of nation states maritime historians have tended to ignore the northern Bay of Bengal Yet this marginal region now dispersed over the four nation states of India China Myanmar and Bangladesh was not marginal in the past Until recently however historians have concentrated largely on the big four the Gujarat Malabar Coromandel and western Bengal coasts Extreme eastern South Asia Bengal and the lands to its north east fanning into Burma and China or modern India's north east and beyond is the focus of Pelagic Passageways This regional unit including diverse topographic features plains forests estuaries deltas rivers mountains lakes plateaus and remote passes oscillates between unity and fragmentation between centrality and marginality in the larger space of the Bay of Bengal To attempt a history of this space is indeed challenging There is not one but two deltas here the western delta corresponding to present West Bengal in India and centred now on Kolkata and the south eastern delta in present Bangladesh centred on Dhaka and running into Arakan Not merely in terms of location but on a historical axis too the two deltas are vastly different as they have followed disparate trajectories dictated in part by their geographies Pelagic Passageways therefore questions the conventional fault line located on the south eastern Bengal delta between the historiography of South and South East Asia Concentrating on commodity and currency flows travel trade routes and interactive networks Pelagic Passageways visualizes the cultural space of the northern Bay of Bengal as embracing upland landlocked areas Ava Yunnan the Tripuri Dimas and Ahom states not usually seen as part of maritime history This collection of essays suggests that they too were a part of the social and commercial networks of the Indian Ocean While these countries literally fell off the map this volume proposes that we see these areas instead as crossroads mediating flows between the land dwelling and aquatic worlds invaluable to scholars and students of historical Southeast Asia Esoteric Buddhism in Mediaeval Maritime Asia Andrea Acri, 2016-09-05 This volume advocates a trans regional and maritime focused approach to studying the genesis development and circulation of Esoteric or Tantric Buddhism across Maritime Asia from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries ce The book lays emphasis on the mobile networks of human agents Masters textual sources Texts and images Icons through which Esoteric Buddhist traditions spread Capitalising on recent research and making use of both disciplinary and area focused perspectives this book highlights the role played by Esoteric Buddhist maritime networks in shaping intra Asian connectivity In doing so it reveals the limits of a historiography that is premised on land based transmission of Buddhism from a South Asian homeland and advances an alternative historical narrative that overturns the popular perception regarding Southeast Asia as a periphery that passively received overseas influences Thus a strong point is made for the appreciation of the region as both a crossroads and rightful terminus of Buddhist cults and for the re evaluation of the creative and transformative force of Southeast Asian agents in the transmission of Esoteric Buddhism across mediaeval Asia A History of the Vietnamese K. W. Taylor, 2013-05-09 The history of Vietnam prior to the nineteenth century is rarely examined in any detail In this groundbreaking work K W Taylor takes up this challenge addressing a wide array of topics from the earliest times to the present day including language literature religion and warfare and themes including Sino Vietnamese relations the interactions of the peoples of different regions within the country and the various forms of government adopted by the Vietnamese throughout their history A History of the Vietnamese is based on primary source materials combining a comprehensive narrative with an analysis which endeavours to see the Vietnamese past through the eyes of those who lived it Taylor questions long standing stereotypes and clichés about Vietnam drawing attention to sharp discontinuities in the Vietnamese past Fluently written and accessible to all readers this highly original contribution to the study of Southeast Asia is a landmark text for all students and scholars of Vietnam Vientiane Marc Askew, Colin Long, William Logan, 2006-12-07 Providing insights into this neglected Southeast Asian city this interesting book interprets Vientiane's landscape physical as well as imagined as a reflection of key aspects of Lao geo political history the nature of Lao urbanism and its critical relation to constructions of Lao identity in the contemporary period It is argued that the patterns of change seen through Vientiane's past embody the key political and economic processes and transformations impacting on the people of Laos The Lao urban past has rarely been an object of attention by scholars Laos in fact is continually portrayed as a rural backwater marginal to the dynamic trends affecting most of the Southeast Asian mainland In contrast to these persistent and static portrayals of Laos as a tiny landlocked backwater with no significant urban present or past the authors aim to document explain and evaluate the significance of the Lao urban landscape Focusing on the theme of Vientiane's marginality in its various forms the book interprets this apparent marginality as an historically produced phenomenon resulting from geo politics dating from the pre colonial period and extending into the post colonial period Drawing on a wide range of research materials Vientiane is the first work of its kind on this ignored city A Dictionary of Archaeology Ian Shaw, Robert Jameson, 2008-04-15 This dictionary provides those studying or working in archaeology with a complete reference to the field Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies Sitta von Reden, 2023-10-24 The Handbook of Ancient Afro Eurasian Economies offers in three volumes the first comprehensive discussion of economic development in the empires of the Afro Eurasian world region to elucidate the conditions under which large quantities of goods and people moved across continents and between empires Volume 3 Frontier Zone Processes and Transimperial Exchange analyzes frontier zones as particular landscapes of encounter economic development and transimperial network formation The chapters offer problematizing approaches to frontier zone processes as part of and in between empires with the goal of better understanding how and why goods and resources moved across the Afro Eurasian region Key frontiers in mountains and steppes along coasts rivers and deserts are investigated in depth demonstrating how local landscapes politics and pathways explain network practices and participation in long distance trade The chapters seek to retrieve local knowledge ignored in popular Silk Road models and to show the potential of frontier zone research for understanding the Afro Eurasian region as a connected space After Collapse Glenn M. Schwartz, John J. Nichols, 2010-08-15 From the Euphrates Valley to the southern Peruvian Andes early complex societies have risen and fallen but in some cases they have also been reborn Prior archaeological investigation of these societies has focused primarily on emergence and collapse This is the first book length work to examine the question of how and why early complex urban societies have reappeared after periods of decentralization and collapse Ranging widely across the Near East the Aegean East Asia Mesoamerica and the Andes these cross cultural studies expand our understanding of social evolution by examining how societies were transformed during the period of radical change now termed collapse They seek to discover how societal complexity reemerged how second generation states formed and how these re emergent states resembled or differed from the complex societies that preceded them The contributors draw on material culture as well as textual and ethnohistoric data to consider such factors as preexistent institutions structures and ideologies that are influential in regeneration economic and political resilience the role of social mobility marginal groups and peripheries and ethnic change In addition to presenting a number of theoretical viewpoints the contributors also propose reasons why regeneration sometimes does not occur after collapse A concluding contribution by Norman Yoffee provides a critical exegesis of collapse and highlights important patterns found in the case histories related to peripheral regions and secondary elites and to the ideology of statecraft After Collapse blazes new research trails in both archaeology and the study of social change demonstrating that the archaeological record often offers more clues to the dark ages that precede regeneration than do text based studies It opens up a new window on the past by shifting the focus away from the rise and fall of ancient civilizations to their often more telling fall and rise CONTRIBUTORS Bennet Bronson Arlen F Chase Diane Z Chase Christina A Conlee Lisa Cooper Timothy S Hare Alan L Kolata Marilyn A Masson Gordon F McEwan Ellen Morris Ian Morris Carlos Peraza Lope
