The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parreñas Shimizu,2023-12-08 In The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parre as Shimizu examines early twenty first century cinematic representations of Asian and Asian American children Drawing on psychoanalysis and her own perspective as a mother grieving for a deceased child Shimizu considers how cinema renders Asian American children through sexualized racial difference infantilization and premature adultification She looks at how Asian American childhood is characterized in film through experiences of alienation and trauma and contends that childhood development requires finding freedom and self sovereignty through agentic attunement In analyzing films that focus on queer Asian American youth such as Spa Night 2016 and Driveways 2019 and those that explore the trauma of being an immigrant like Yellow Rose 2019 and The Half of It 2020 Shimizu demonstrates that films can prompt viewers to evaluate their own childhood development They also allow the opportunity to understand the demands placed upon Asian American children particularly in regard to race and sexuality In this way cinema becomes a vehicle for empowering our inner child and the children all around us
