Prisoner Resettlement in Europe Frieder Dünkel,Ineke Pruin,Anette Storgaard,Jonas Weber,2018-10-11 Questions regarding how to improve the transitional phase from prison to life in society after release have gained major importance in the last decade in criminal policy All over the world release preparation and resettlement practice are discussed with the aim to reduce negative effects of imprisonment and re offending rates Small and large reforms aiming at the improvement of release processes and reintegration strategies have taken place in many European states This book describes the current European landscape of prisoner resettlement and brings together the results and ideas of leading European academic experts with the ambition of furthering national European and international reform debates This book presents national reports about resettlement processes and structures in 20 European countries written by national scholars these reports reveal important actors in resettlement processes as well as political decisions about the role of the communities in taking the prisoners back or the use of early release as a strategy to motivate the released prisoner to enter into a future without crime Thematic chapters then concentrate on several aspects of prisoner resettlement that are of importance across borders ethical legal and practical challenges are discussed with a view on European developments and theoretical frameworks of prisoner resettlement are used to develop comprehensive perspectives for future reform debates The book serves as a fundamental source for researchers politicians and practitioners in the field of prison and probation reform and practice It is also useful in the field of social work in so far that the analyses confirm that prisoner resettlement is not just a problem of criminal but also of social justice Sustainable reforms need the will of and good cooperation between all responsible actors and organizations from the justice social health and welfare sectors as well as from society as a whole in the consent for taking released prisoners back The Puzzle of Prison Order David Skarbek,2020-07-01 Many people think prisons are all the same rows of cells filled with violent men who officials rule with an iron fist Yet life behind bars varies in incredible ways In some facilities prison officials govern with care and attention to prisoners needs In others officials have remarkably little influence on the everyday life of prisoners sometimes not even providing necessities like food and clean water Why does prison social order around the world look so remarkably different In The Puzzle of Prison Order David Skarbek develops a theory of why prisons and prison life vary so much He finds that how they re governed sometimes by the state and sometimes by the prisoners matters the most He investigates life in a wide array of prisons in Brazil Bolivia Norway a prisoner of war camp England and Wales women s prisons in California and a gay and transgender housing unit in the Los Angeles County Jail to understand the hierarchy of life on the inside Drawing on economics and a vast empirical literature on legal systems Skarbek offers a framework to not only understand why life on the inside varies in such fascinating and novel ways but also how social order evolves and takes root behind bars

Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars The Angola Prison Seminary Michael Hallett, Joshua Hays, Byron Johnson, Sung Jang, Grant Duwe, 2016-08-05 Corrections officials faced with rising populations and shrinking budgets have increasingly welcomed faith based providers offering services at no cost to help meet the needs of inmates Drawing from three years of on site research this book utilizes survey analysis along with life history interviews of inmates and staff to explore the history purpose and functioning of the Inmate Minister program at Louisiana State Penitentiary aka Angola America s largest maximum security prison This book takes seriously attributions from inmates that faith is helpful for surviving prison and explores the implications of religious programming for an American corrections system in crisis featuring high recidivism dehumanizing violence and often draconian punishments A first of its kind prototype in a quickly expanding policy arena Angola s unique Inmate Minister program deploys trained graduates of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in bi vocational pastoral service roles throughout the prison Inmates lead their own congregations and serve in lay ministry capacities in hospice cell block visitation delivery of familial death notifications to fellow inmates sidewalk counseling and tier ministry officiating inmate funerals and delivering care packages to indigent prisoners Life history interviews uncover deep level change in self identity corresponding with a growing body of research on identity change and religiously motivated desistance The concluding chapter addresses concerns regarding the First Amendment the dysfunctional state of U S corrections and directions for future research Prison Nation Paul Wright, Tara Herivel, 2013-10-23 Prison Nation is a distant dispatch from a foreign and forbidden place the world of America s prisons Written by prisoners social critics and luminaries of investigative reporting Prison Nation testifies to the current state of America s prisoners living conditions and political concerns These concerns are not normally the concerns of most Americans but they should be From substandard medical care the inadequacy of resources for public defenders to the death penalty the issues covered in this volume grow more urgent every day Articles by outstanding writers such as Mumia Abu Jamal Noam Chomsky Mark Dow Judy Green Tracy Huling and Christian Parenti chronicle the injustices of prison privatization class and race in the justice system our quixotic drug war the rarely discussed prison AIDS crisis and a judicial system that rewards mostly those with significant resources or the desire to name names Correctional facilities have become a profitable growth industry for companies like Wackenhut that run them and companies like Boeing that use cheap prison labor With fascinating narratives shocking tales and small stories of hope Prison Nation paints a picture of a world many Americans know little or nothing about Prison Food in America Erika Camplin, 2016-12-08 America seems presently fascinated by prison culture and the inner workings of what happens behind clinked doors With TV shows creating binge watchers of us all and celebrities piquing public interest as they end up behind bars Americans seem to enjoy a good gawk at prison life Each year more than 13 million visitors still trek out to Alcatraz Island one of the most famous prisons in the world And why shouldn t they be curious about prison We as a nation currently incarcerate more people per capita than any other country and our prisons are notoriously rough violent and overcrowded At the same time we love our food take pictures of it post it socially and discuss our foodie favorites Rarely do we consider the food experiences of those for whom sustenance is more difficult to obtain particularly those incarcerated where choice and access is severely limited Prison food is often everything to prisoners It is the only marker of time throughout the day Food becomes commerce in the microeconomies behind prison walls It is often the only source of pleasure in a monotonous routine It creates sites of community when prisoners ban together to create recipes but also becomes a site of discord when issues surrounding fairness and equity arise in the chow hall Prison Food in America offers a high level snapshot of the fare offered behind bars its general guidelines and regulations fascinating stories about prisoners and food and the remarkable and varied ways food plays a role in the fabric of prison culture

Confinement, Punishment and Prisons in Africa Marie Morelle, Frédéric Le Marcis, Julia Hornberger, 2021-05-10 This interdisciplinary volume presents a nuanced critique of the prison experience in diverse detention facilities across Africa The book stresses the contingent porous nature of African prisons across both time and space It draws on original long term ethnographic research undertaken in both Francophone and Anglophone settings which are grouped in four parts The first part examines how the prison has imprinted itself on wider political and social imaginaries and in turn how structures of imprisonment carry the imprint of political action of various times The second part stresses how particular forms of ordering emerge in African prisons It is held that while these often involve coercion and neglect they are better understood as the product of on going negotiations and the search for meaning and value on the part of a multitude of actors The third part is concerned with how prison life percolates beyond its physical perimeters into its urban and rural surroundings and vice versa It deals with the popular and contested nature of what prisons are about and what they do especially in regard to bringing about moral subjects The fourth and final part of the book examines how efforts of reforming and resisting the prison take shape at the intersection of globally circulating models of good governance and levels of self organisation by prisoners The book will be an essential reference for students academics and policy makers in Law Criminology Sociology and Politics
