king's son Zheng who the Shiji suggests was actually L's son eventually became the first emperor Qin Shi Huang in 221 BC. When Zhuangxiang died in 247 BC, L Buwei was made regent for the 13-year-old Zheng. In order to establish Qin as the intellectual center of China, L recruited scholars, treating them generously so that his retainers came to number three thousand (Knoblock and Riegel 2000: 13). In 239 BC, he, in the words of the Shiji, ordered that his retainers write down all that they had learned and assemble their theses into a work consisting of eight Examinations, six Discourses, and twelve Almanacs totaling more than 200,000 words (Knoblock and Riegel 2000: 14). According to Shiji, L exhibited the completed encyclopedic text at the city gate of Xianyang, capital of Qin, and above it was a notice offering a thousand measures of gold to any traveling scholar who could add or subtract even a single word. The Lishi Chunqiu text comprises 26 juan (scrolls) of books in 160 pian (sections) and is divided into three major parts: the Ji (The Almanacs), Books 1-12, correspond to the months of the year and list appropriate seasonal activities to ensure that the state runs smoothly. This part, which was copied as the Liji chapter Yueling, takes many passages from other texts, often without attribution. The Lan (The Examinations), Books 13-20, each have 8 sections corresponding to the 64 Hexagrams in the Yijing. This is the longest and most eclectic part, giving quotations from many early texts, some no longer extant. The Lun (The Discourses), Books 21-26, mostly deal with rulership, excepting the final four sections about agriculture. This part resembles the Lan in composition. The book is the second volume of Lishi Chunqiu, covering the or The Examinations.

The Book of the Prophet Isaiah, ...: Chapters 1-39. v. 2 Chapters 40-66, 1900 Unless the Lord builds the house Volume 2 Arthur Eedle, 2010-12-02 This second book of Biblical studies is of a specialist nature. For example, there is a series entitled Hidden Treasures of Genesis in which a number of traditionally accepted concepts come under close examination of the Hebrew text. A second series entitled Studies in Biblical Science investigates areas where scientific and mathematical truths undergird the Scriptures and bring glory to God. A short series gathering available evidence on Lucifer opens up much information on the mind and character of man's great accuser. And then there is a series of Historical studies relating to Biblical cities which unveils important information. Other subjects under examination are the Coming of the Lord, the Origin and meaning of Evil, Hidden Numerical Treasures, and the Millennium.
