Ahrens, Real Cost of Prisons Project

Prisoners Of The War On Drugs:

Real Cost of Prisons Comix Lois Ahrens, 2008-09-01 One out of every hundred adults in the U S is in prison This book provides a crash course in what drives mass incarceration the human and community costs and how to stop the numbers from going even higher Collected in this volume are the three comic books published by the Real Cost of Prisons Project The stories and statistical information in each comic book are thoroughly researched and documented Prison Town Paying the Price tells the story of how the financing and site locations of prisons affects the people of rural communities in which prisons are built It also tells the story of how mass incarceration affects people of urban communities where the majority of incarcerated people come from Prisoners of the War on Drugs includes the history of the war on drugs mandatory minimums how racism creates harsher sentences for people of color stories of how the war on drugs works against women three strikes laws obstacles to coming home after incarceration and how mass incarceration destabilizes neighborhoods Prisoners of a Hard Life Women and Their Children includes stories about women trapped by mandatory sentencing and the costs of incarceration for women and their families Also included are alternatives to the present system a glossary and footnotes Over 125 000 copies of the comic books have been printed and more than 100 000 have been sent to people who are incarcerated to their families and to organizers and activists throughout the country The book includes a chapter with descriptions of how the comix have been put to use in the work of organizers and activists in prison and in the free world by ESL teachers high school teachers college professors students and health care providers throughout the country The demand for the comix is constant and the ways in which they are being used are inspiring The U.S. War on Drugs at Home and Abroad

Jonathan D. Rosen, 2021-04-12 This book examines the U S war on drugs at home and abroad It provides a brief history of the war on drugs In addition it analyzes drug trafficking and organized crime in Colombia and Mexico and the role of the United States government in counternarcotics policies This work also examines the opioid epidemic addiction and alternative policies Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities Mary Bosworth, 2005 Are included Annotation 2004 Book

News Inc Portland OR booknews com Caught Marie Gottschalk, 2014-12-07 A major reappraisal of crime and punishment in America The huge prison buildup of the past four decades has few defenders today yet reforms to reduce the number of people in U S jails and prisons have been remarkably modest Meanwhile a carceral state has sprouted in the shadows of mass imprisonment extending its reach far beyond the prison gate It includes not only the country's vast archipelago of jails and prisons but also the growing range of penal punishments and controls that lie in the never never land between prison and full citizenship from probation and parole to immigrant detention felon disenfranchisement and extensive lifetime restrictions on sex offenders As it sunders families and communities and reworks conceptions of democracy rights and citizenship this ever widening carceral state poses a formidable political and social challenge In this book Marie Gottschalk examines why the carceral state with its growing number of outcasts remains so tenacious in the United States She analyzes the shortcomings of the two dominant penal reform strategies one focused on addressing racial disparities the other on seeking bipartisan race neutral solutions centered on reentry justice reinvestment and reducing recidivism In this bracing appraisal of the politics of penal reform Gottschalk exposes the broader pathologies in American politics that are preventing the country from solving its most pressing problems including the stranglehold that neoliberalism exerts on public policy She concludes by sketching out a promising alternative path to begin dismantling the carceral state The Prison and the Gallows Marie Gottschalk, 2006-06-19 The United States has built a carceral state that is unprecedented among Western countries and in US history Nearly one in 50 people excluding children and the elderly is incarcerated today a rate unsurpassed anywhere else in the world What are some of the main political forces that explain this unprecedented reliance on mass imprisonment Throughout American history crime and punishment have been central features of American political development This 2006 book examines the development of four key movements that mediated the construction of the carceral state in important ways the victims movement the women s movement the prisoners rights movement and opponents of the death penalty This book argues that punitive penal policies were forged by particular social movements and interest groups within the constraints of larger institutional structures and historical developments that distinguish the United States from other Western countries Federal Narcotics Laws and the War on Drugs Thomas C Rowe, 2013-04-15 We re losing the war on drugs but the fight isn t over yet Federal Narcotics Laws and the War on Drugs examines our current anti drug programs and policies explains why they have failed and presents a plan to fix them Author Thomas C Rowe who has been educating college students on recreational drug use for nearly 30 years exposes the truth about anti drug programs he believes were conceived in ignorance of the drugs themselves and motivated by racial cultural bias This powerful book advocates a shift in federal spending to move funds away from the failed elements of the war on drugs toward policies with a more realistic chance to succeed the drug courts education and effective treatment Common myths and misconceptions about drugs have produced anti drug programs that don t work won t work and waste millions of dollars Federal Narcotics Laws and the War on Drugs looks at how and why this has happened and what can be done to correct it The book is divided into How did we get into this mess which details the history of anti narcotic legislation how drug agencies evolved and the role played by Harry Anslinger Commissioner of the United States Bureau of Narcotics from 1930 to 1962 What works and what doesn t work which looks at the failure of interdiction efforts and the negative consequences that have resulted with a particular focus on the problems of prisons balanced against the drug court system and a third section that serves as an overview of various recreational drugs considers arguments for and against drug legalization and offers suggestions for more effective methods than our current system allows Federal Narcotics Laws and the War on Drugs also examines the creation of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics current regulations and structures current federal sentencing guidelines current state of the courts and the prison system mandatory sentencing and what judges think interdiction for heroin cocaine and crack cocaine and marijuana early education efforts the DARE program drug use trends drug treatment models the debate over legalization Federal Narcotics Laws and the War on Drugs also includes several appendices of federal budget figures cocaine and heroin purity and price and federal bureau of prisons statistics This unique book is required reading for anyone concerned about the drug problem in the United States and what is and isn't being done to correct it The Secret History Of The War On Weed \(One-Shot\) Gerry Duggan, Brian Posehn, 2022-04-20 BRIAN POSEHN GERRY DUGGAN SCOTT KOBLISH reform Voltron metaphorically only from their days on Deadpool also not appearing to tell a true story and lost chapter from our nation's sad and failed war on drugs The year is 1985 The First Lady decides to crush Northern California cannabis farmers and deploys the biggest tool in the armed forces Scotch McTiernan collectible first of many hilarious appearances If it weeds we can kill it Scotch puts his boots on the ground in Humboldt and does what he does best but what happens when he gets high for the first time This one shot has it all laughs tears heart action plus an activity page A portion of the proceeds from this comic will be donated to organizations dedicated to helping casualties of America's immoral drug war

Crimes of Punishment Theodore L. Dorpat, 2007 This groundbreaking book by an award winning psychoanalyst and forensic psychiatrist presents a comprehensive exploration of a timely but often taboo topic the failure of punishment to deter crime and violence an issue that affects us both individually and as a culture Written at the culmination of the author's fifty year career as a psychoanalyst forensic psychologist and scholar this wide ranging work identifies the origins of violence and investigates the surprising consequences of punishment from a multitude of perspectives In his treatment of the topic Dr Dorpat utilizes scientific research ethical reasoning and his vast clinical experience and insight He also suggests the benefits of new and emerging humane alternatives to the revenge punishment model currently entrenched in our society such as restorative justice In contrast to most contemporary measures these new approaches while still imprisoning dangerous individuals effectively stress reparation and forms of sanctioning other than incarceration When restitution replaces revenge everyone benefits Crimes of Punishment examines four key interrelated social methods of punishment These are 1 the corporal punishment of children 2 the incarceration of adults in prisons 3 capital punishment the death penalty and 4 emotional verbal abuse As he elucidates and analyzes each of these forms of punishment Dr Dorpat clearly and logically makes the case that punishment is not only ineffectual but that it also engenders more of what it ostensibly aims to stop violence and misbehavior Both children and adults who are subjected to punishment tend to become more violent individuals In covering the full scope of our contemporary justice system Dr Dorpat brings to the forefront those who are often overlooked or dismissed the victims of crime His concluding chapters present and clarify the psychological wounds and needs of these individuals and demonstrate how restorative justice is effective in attending to victims in an ethical and healing manner In a humane and ethically evolved society restitution replaces punishment Market Comparison Crimes of Punishment is unique in that it covers not just one but four different types of punishment the corporal punishment of children the incarceration of adults the death penalty and verbal emotional abuse Two earlier books written by psychiatrists expose the terrible conditions in America's prisons They are The Crime of Punishment New York Viking 1968 by Karl Menninger and Prison Madness by Terry Kupers San Francisco Jossey Bass 1999 This book differs in two important ways from the books written by Menninger and Kupers First The Crimes of Punishment covers other kinds of punishment while those authors deal only with the punishment of incarceration Secondly the reforms they recommend are merely piecemeal modifications of the present criminal justice systems whereas Dr Dorpat argues for a radical change that includes the abolition of today's punitive prison Retributive Justice system and the establishment of a new and different system namely Restorative justice a system that has been developed over the past decade in Australia and New Zealand The Crimes of Punishment differs from Menninger's book in covering the many changes that have occurred in prisons since 1968 In several short chapters on restorative justice the book also explores this exciting new approach and serves as an informed introduction to a new important and effective moral approach to the treatment of criminals

Prisoners of the War on Drugs Sabrina Jones, Ellen Miller-Mack, Lois Ahrens, Real Cost of Prisons Project, 2005 A lucid informative and digestible comic illustrated graphic guide is probably more accurate on the real costs social economic community and personal of the War On Drugs Who it targets Blacks Latinos and women and what incarceration and eventual release means for those that suffer through it and their families and communities Written and illustrated by Sabrina Jones Ellen Miller Mack and Lois Ahrens

Corrections John T. Whitehead, Kimberly D. Dodson, Bradley D. Edwards, 2012-09-17 Corrections Exploring Crime Punishment and Justice in America provides a thorough introduction to the topic of corrections in America In addition to providing complete coverage of the history and structure of corrections it offers a balanced account of the issues facing the field so that readers can arrive at informed opinions regarding the process and current state of corrections in America The third edition introduces new content and fully updated information on America's correctional system in a lively colorful readable textbook Both instructors and students benefit from the inclusion of pedagogical tools and visual elements that help clarify the material

The Rich Get Richer and the Poor Get Prison Jeffrey Reiman, Paul Leighton, 2023-04-28 For 40 years this classic text has taken the issue of economic inequality seriously and asked Why are our prisons filled with the poor Why aren't the tools of the criminal justice system being used to protect Americans from predatory business practices and to punish well off people who cause widespread harm This new edition continues to engage readers in important exercises of critical thinking Why has the U S relied so heavily on tough crime policies despite evidence of their limited effectiveness and how much of the decline in crime rates can be attributed to them Why does the U S have such a high crime rate compared to other developed nations and what could we do about it Are the morally blameworthy harms of the rich and poor equally translated into criminal laws that protect the public from harms on the streets and harms from the suites How much class bias is present in the criminal justice system both when the rich and poor engage in the same act and when the rich use their leadership of corporations to perpetrate mass victimization The Rich Get Richer the Poor Get Prison shows readers that much of what goes on in the criminal justice system violates citizens sense of basic fairness It presents extensive evidence from mainstream data that the criminal justice system does not function in the way it says it does nor in the way that readers believe it should The authors develop a theoretical perspective from which readers might understand these failures and evaluate them morally and they do it in a short text written in plain language Readers who are not convinced about the larger theoretical perspective will still have engaged in extensive critical thinking to identify their own taken for granted assumptions about crime and criminal justice as well as uncover the effects of power on social practices This engagement helps readers develop their own worldview New to this edition Presents recent data comparing the harms due to criminal activity with the harms of dangerous but not criminal corporate actions Updates research on class discrimination at every stage of the criminal justice system Updates statistics on crime victimization incarceration and wealth Increased material for thinking critically about criminal justice and criminology New material on global warming and why Black Lives Matter protests did not cause increases in crime in 2020 Expanded discussion of marijuana and drug legalization Stronger chapter overviews clearer chapter structure and expanded review questions Streamlined and condensed prose for greater clarity

Children of the Drug War Damon Barrett,2011 Book Description A unique collection of original essays that investigates the impacts of the war on drugs on children and young people With contributions from around the world and utilizing a wide range of styles and approaches including ethnographic studies personal accounts and interviews the book asks three fundamental questions What have been the costs to children of the war on drugs Is the protection of children from drugs a solid justification for current policies What kinds of public fears and preconceptions exist in relation to drugs and the drug trade

Rich Get Richer and the Poor Get Prison, The (Subscription) Jeffrey Reiman,Paul Leighton,2015-07-14 Illustrates the issue of economic inequality within the American justice system The best selling text The Rich Get Richer and the Poor Get Prison contends that the criminal justice system is biased against the poor from start to finish The authors argue that even before the process of arrest trial and sentencing the system is biased against the poor in what it chooses to treat as crime The authors show that numerous acts of the well off such as their refusal to make workplaces safe refusal to curtail deadly pollution promotion of unnecessary surgery and prescriptions for unnecessary drugs cause as much harm as the acts of the poor that are treated as crimes However the dangerous acts of the well off are almost never treated as crimes and when they are they are almost never treated as severely as the crimes of the poor Not only does the criminal justice system fail to protect against the harmful acts of well off people it also fails to remedy the causes of crime such as poverty This results in a large population of poor criminals in our prisons and in our media The authors contend that the idea of crime as a work of the poor serves the interests of the rich and powerful while conveying a misleading notion that the real threat to Americans comes from the bottom of society rather than the top Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers will be able to Examine the criminal justice system through the lens of the poor Understand that much of what goes on in the criminal justice system violates one's own sense of fairness Morally evaluate the criminal justice system's failures Identify the type of legislature that is biased against the poor Recognizing Race and Ethnicity ,2018-05-15 This book approaches the study of race ethnicity through a sociological lens It focuses on a few social policies that are perceived as race related such as affirmative action to an understanding of the historical racialization of the US welfare state overall The Economic Anatomy of a Drug War David W. Rasmussen, Bruce L. Benson, 1994 This book explores the economics of illicit drug markets the connection between these markets and other crime and the adjustments these markets make when faced with changes in drug enforcement Focusing specifically on the most recent escalation of drug enforcement during the period from 1984-1989 Rasmussen and Benson adopt an economic perspective to explore the origins and effects of American drug policy Rasmussen and Benson argue that effective drug policy is only possible if we realize that increasing drug enforcement can be a tragedy of the commons because criminal justice resources are diverted from other uses and many unintended consequences are generated by politically popular drug enforcement initiatives Exploring Corrections in America John T. Whitehead, Mark Jones, Michael C. Braswell, 2010-04-07 Exploring Corrections in America provides a thorough introduction to the topic of corrections in America In addition to providing complete coverage of the history and structure of corrections it offers a balanced account of the issues facing the field so that readers can arrive at informed opinions regarding the process of corrections in America Each chapter is enhanced by an outline what you need to know internet links photos boxes ethics focus discussion questions and further readings A New Leaf Alyson Martin, Nushin Rashidian, 2015-02-03 Two award winning journalists offer a cogent well sourced and ambitious analysis of the slow decline of cannabis prohibition in the United States Kirkus Reviews In November 2012 voters in Colorado and Washington passed landmark measures to legalize the production and sale of cannabis for social use a first in the United States and the world Once vilified as a gateway drug cannabis is now legal for medical use in eighteen states and Washington DC Yet the federal government refuses to acknowledge these broader societal shifts 49.5 percent of all drug related arrests involve the sale manufacture or possession of cannabis In the first book to explore the new landscape of cannabis in the United States investigative journalists Alyson Martin and Nushin Rashidian demonstrate how recent cultural and legal developments tie into cannabis's complex history and thorny politics Reporting from nearly every state with a medical cannabis law Martin and Rashidian interview patients growers doctors entrepreneurs politicians activists and regulators A New Leaf moves from the federal cannabis farm at the University of Mississippi to the headquarters of the ACLU to Oregon's World Famous Cannabis Caf The result is a lucid account of how cannabis legalization is changing the lives of millions of Americans and easing the burden of the war on drugs both domestically and internationally Governing States and Localities Kevin B. Smith, Alan Greenblatt, 2019-01-03 The trusted and proven Governing States and Localities guides you through the contentious environment of state and local politics and focuses on the role that economic and budget pressures play on issues facing state and local governments With their engaging journalistic writing and crisp storytelling Kevin B Smith and Alan Greenblatt employ a comparative approach to explain how and why states and localities are both similar and different The Seventh Edition is thoroughly updated to account for such major developments as state vs federal conflicts over immigration reform school shootings and gun control the impact of the Donald Trump presidency on intergovernmental relations and issues of central interest to states and localities and the lingering effects of the Great Recession Righteous Dopefiend Philippe I. Bourgois,Jeff Schonberg,2009-04-29 Introduction a theory of abuse Intimate apartheid Falling in love A community of addicted bodies Childhoods Making money Parenting Male love Everyday addicts Treatment Conclusion critically applied public anthropology War on the Family Renny Golden,2013-10-18 In this timely book renowned criminologist and activist Renny Golden sheds light on the women behind bars and the 350 000 children they leave behind In exposing the fastest growing prison population a direct result of Reagan s War on Drugs Golden sets up new framework for thinking about how to address the situation of mothers in prison the risks and needs of their children and the implications of current judicial policies
