Prt. 110-40, *, 2008 Military Law Review Vol. 55 , Israel Yearbook on Human Rights, Volume 10 (1980) Yoram Dinstein, 2020-10-26 The Israel Yearbook on Human Rights an annual published under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of Tel Aviv University since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in Israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the State of Israel and the Jewish people The Yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to Israel and the Administered Areas which are not otherwise available in English including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations Volume 25 contains among others articles on The Israel Supreme Court and the Law of Belligerent Occupation The Gaza and Jericho Autonomy and Human Rights and The Contribution of Latin America to the Development of the International Court of Justice Boundary Changes in Criminal Justice Organizations, Vol. 2, Criminal Justice 2000, (July 2000) , 2000 Rights of the Child, Mothers and Sentencing Alice Macharia, 2021-02-22 This book draws international attention to the autonomy of the child accompanying incarcerated mothers and those they leave behind in the community despite being dependent on the convicted caregiver Adopting a child rights perspective the study explores how courts could go about sentencing mothers of young children for the commission of criminal offences whilst protecting the rights of the child as envisaged under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC Drawing on the author's experience as a sentencer in the Kenyan court and with reference to domestic regional and international law the book argues that children's rights are presently left in abeyance when their mothers are sentenced to imprisonment and that greater efforts should be made to recognize and give effect to the child's existence as an autonomous equal holder of human rights despite being dependent on the convicted caregiver It explores the application of precedence as well as the court's discretion in view of the dependent child and concludes that policy reform in this respect calls for change in attitude and approach on women and children's issues Observing that internationally most women imprisoned with their children fall beneath the custodial threshold set by law the research examines how current sentencing practices could be reformed and suggests harnessing the Power of Mercy Committee the Sentencing Guidelines and progressive practices from developed countries in protecting the child's rights by imposing non custodial sentences for the offending mothers It is concluded that in all jurisdictions strict accountability for the dependent child should be situated with the judiciary and that the same should be pronounced as a mandatory legal requirement The book will be a valuable resource for academic researchers and policy makers working in the area of international children's rights law and criminal law American Constitutional Law 8E, 2-VOL SET Ralph A.
