a different approach tracing the first inkling of modernism instead to the nineteenth century s fascination with music As Jed Rasula deftly shows melomania the passion for music gave rise to concepts like Richard Wagner's endless melody and the Gesamtkunstwerk or total work of art which in turn infused the arts of the fin de si cle with an aura of expectancy challenging them to induce musical effects by their own means With each art aspiring to produce the effects of another artistic medium a synesthetic yearning ran like a shiver through the body of art that would emerge over the next half century Rasula traces this pan arts polyphony from German Romantic theory to early experiments in visual music encompassing such diverse phenomena as American fixation on Arcadia early film theory and the lure of the fourth dimension All the while he keeps focus on the paramount historical consequence in elevating music to a new universal aesthetic standard arguing that Wagnerism was first among modern isms In surveying this momentous interplay among arts History of a Shiver ranges from literature music and painting to theatre cinema dance photography and civic pageantry. It retells the story of modernism by recovering not an idea but a feeling the hair raising potential for each painting literary text or musical composition to herald an unprecedented domain of human enterprise Chasing the Grid Kenneth Posner, 2025-09-23 Discover the transformational journey of a conventional minded runner to a minimalist mountain climbing adventure seeking ultrarunner determined to conquer the Catskill Mountains challenge known as the Grid After a successful career on Wall Street the Catskill Mountains beckoned In Chasing the Grid author Kenneth Posner a seasoned corporate worker and intrepid but non elite runner sets out after an ultra distance mountain running record which nearly destroys him Along the way he stumbles upon an obscure peak bagging tradition known as the Grid which becomes his new obsession. The Grid is a project where a determined athlete must run hike or climb a list of peaks in every month of the year the purpose being to get to know the mountains intimately in every season For New York s Catskill Mountains where this story takes place the formula requires more than 400 separate ascents For Posner the Grid turns out to be not just another running challenge it s a pilgrimage It offers a retreat from the spirit of modern running often reduced to a one dimensional activity driven by ego and moderated by clocks in favor of how our ancestors moved through nature in days gone by purposefully patiently and mindfully Posner emerges from the experience as a radically different kind of runner now running barefoot across trails and shirtless in the winter leaving behind food water lights navigational gear and even bug spray By following Posner in his quest to complete the Grid readers will feel sandstone fragments under bare soles pad across a bed of moss as luxurious as a Persian carpet squelch with him through cool black boreal mud dance across snow and ice and participate in discoveries about the passage of time the energy of nature and the sense of self Notes from the Sick Room Steve Finbow, 2017-02-28 Notes from the Sick Room is an investigation into the connections between physical illness and creativity Although there are a number of books investigating mental illness and creativity there are very few that concentrate on physical illness cancer HIV tuberculosis and disabilities caused by accidents Incapacity provides time for contemplation and creativity yet pain and discomfort detract from inspiration Serious illness confronts the individual with the reality of death the complacency of being is jolted by the shock of non being Does one record these incidences or ignore art in order to survive Phenomenology of the Winter-City Abraham Akkerman, 2016-01-12 This book explores how the weather and city form impact the mind and how city form and mind interact It builds on Merleau Ponty's contention that mind the human body and the environment are intertwined in a singular composite and on Walter Benjamin's suggestion that mind and city form in mutual interaction through history have set the course of civilization Bringing together the fields of philosophy urbanism geography history and architecture the book shows the association of existentialism with prevalence of mood disorder in Northern Europe at the close of Little Ice Age It explains the implications of city form and traces the role of the myths and allegories of urban design as well as the history of gender projection onto city form It shows how urbanization in Northern Europe provided easier access to shelter yet resulted in sunlight deprivation and yielded increasing incidence of depression and other mental disorder among the European middle class The book uses the examples of Kierkegaard Nietzsche Dostoevsky and Kafka to show how walking through the streets squares and other urban voids became the informal remedy to mood disorder a prominent trait among founders of modern Existentialism It concludes by describing how the connection of anguish and violence is relevant to winter depression in cities in North America in particular Talking to the Shaman Within Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries, 2014-06-16 Everything about hunting leads inexorably to death the challenge for all hunters is how to justify the kill But the hunter's emotional response to the kill is immensely complex Hunters respect and even love the animals they kill Talking to the Shaman Within Musings on Hunting addresses this paradox head on dissecting the emotional and psychological response of the hunter to his guarry and more broadly his surroundings. The climax of the chase brings the hunter closer to realizing the nature intelligence that modern civilization has suppressed Through his investigation of the instinct that lies beneath the urge to hunt author Manfred F R Kets de Vries reveals something basic and fundamental about human behavior The hunting instinct is hardwired into the human psyche and for all our sophistication and urbanization it exerts a powerful influence over the way we conduct our lives even to this day Talking to the Shaman Within draws on depictions of hunting in art and literature throughout the ages exploring changing trends in human social norms with frequent reference to literature art film television and music It unites a dispassionate academic hypothesis with an engaging and colourful narrative into which Kets de Vries weaves stories from his own life as both an academic and a hunter
