Inventory Sebastian Adamo, Marcelo Faiden, 2024-03-08 This book compiles Adamo Faiden's inventory along with the inventions this body of work distills. Images, drawings, and texts are presented in the form of diptychs, forcing the reader to establish subjective bridges between both documents. Adamo Faiden is an architecture studio established in Buenos Aires by Sebastian Adamo and Marcelo Faiden. Their practice extends to the field of teaching and research and has been internationally recognized by different media and institutions. Their works were exhibited at the Sao Paulo Architecture Biennial, the Guggenheim Museum in New York, the Venice Architecture Biennale, the Chicago Architecture Biennial, the LIGA Architecture gallery in Mexico, the Deutsches Architekturmuseum in Frankfurt, the Storefront for Art Architecture in New York, and at Princeton University School of Architecture. Inventory's sequential accumulation proposes a journey through two decades of work designed by its authors and positions Adamo Faiden's architecture between material organization and intellectual speculation.

Fight Club Thomas Wartenberg, 2013-03-01 Released in 1999, Fight Club is David Fincher's popular adaptation of Chuck Palahniuk's cult novel and one of the most philosophically rich films of recent years. This is the first book to explore the varied philosophical aspects of the film. Beginning with an introduction by the editor that places the film and essays in context, each chapter explores a central theme of Fight Club from a philosophical perspective. Topics discussed include Fight Club, Plato's cave, and Descartes' cogito. Moral disintegration, identity, gender, and masculinity are visualized and narrated. Including annotated further reading at the end of each chapter, Fight Club is essential reading for anyone interested in the film as well as those studying philosophy and film studies.

Race J. Kameron Carter, 2008-09-02 In Race A Theological Account J Kameron Carter meditates on the multiple legacies implicated in the production of a racialized world and that still mark how we function in it and think about ourselves These are the legacies of colonialism and empire political theories of the state anthropological theories of the human and philosophy itself from the eighteenth century Enlightenment to the present Carter's claim is that Christian theology and the signal transformation it along with Christianity underwent is at the heart of these legacies In that transformation Christian anti Judaism biologized itself so as to racialize itself As a result and with the legitimation of Christian theology Christianity became the cultural property of the West the religious ground of white supremacy and global hegemony In short Christianity became white The racial imagination is thus a particular kind of theological problem Not content only to describe this problem Carter constructs a way forward for Christian theology Through engagement with figures as disparate in outlook and as varied across the historical landscape as Immanuel Kant Frederick Douglass Jarena Lee Michel Foucault Cornel West Albert Raboteau Charles Long James Cone Irenaeus of Lyons Gregory of Nyssa and Maximus the Confessor Carter reorients the whole of Christian theology bringing it into the twenty first century Neither a simple reiteration of Black Theology nor another expression of the new theological orthodoxies this groundbreaking book will be a major contribution to contemporary Christian theology with ramifications in other areas of the humanities Louis Guilloux: Ear-witness Walter Redfern, 2023-12-28 This is the first truly comprehensive study in any language of the writings of Louis Guilloux It embraces all his fiction including his short stories to which little or no attention has previously been paid The title refers to Guilloux s lifelong stance an empathetic witness and listener to the lives of other people who lifts anecdotes to the level of social and psychological life studies Highly valued by writers such as Malraux and Camus Guilloux s work is studied here under several key categories which represent overlaps and tensions rather than bleak opposites memory and forgetfulness the shifting relationship of individual and community roots stasis and escape movement Guilloux and committed literature La Maison du Peuple Les Batailles perdues and the trip to the USSR with Gide and Dabit A long chapter is devoted to a close reading of Guilloux s baroque masterpiece Le Sang noir a much richer and less cerebral epic of an intellectual enmeshed in a provincial society than its successor Sartre s La Naus e Detailed attention is given to Guilloux s recycling of the model for the hero Cripure the rogue elephant thinker Georges Palante Le Sang noir is a haunted book Guilloux s experiments with chronological dislocation Le Jeu de patience with narrative voices essais de voix Coco perdu with multiple personality La Confrontation and with the ambiguous pseudo science of physiognomy passim are all fully analysed Throughout wherever called for the culturally cosmopolitan Guilloux is compared or contrasted with writers from various countries Dostoevsky Tolstoy Gorky Silone Dickens Vall s Camus and Sartre This is a matter less of influence than of Guilloux s choice of companions Victorian Fantasy Stephen Prickett, 2005 Far from being just children s literature Victorian Fantasy is an art form that flourished in opposition to the repressive social and intellectual conditions of Victorianism In this fully revised and expanded edition Stephen Prickett explores the way in which Victorian writers used non realistic techniques nonsense dreams visions and the creation of other worlds to extend our understanding of this world In particular Prickett focuses on six writers Lear Carroll Kingsley MacDonald Kipling and Nesbit tracing the development of their art form their influences on each other and how these writers used fantasy to question the ideology of Victorian culture and society The Theater of Experiment Al Coppola, 2016-08-19 The first book length study of the relationship between science and theater

during the long eighteenth century in Britain The Theater of Experiment explores the crucial role of spectacle in the establishment of modern science by analyzing how eighteenth century science was staged in a double sense On the one hand this study analyzes science in performance the way that science and scientists were made a public spectacle in comedies farces and pantomimes for purposes that could range from the satiric to the pedagogic to the hagiographic But this book also considers the way in which these plays laid bare science as performance that is the way that eighteenth century science was itself a kind of performing art subject to regimes of stagecraft that traversed the laboratory the lecture hall the anatomy theater and the public stage Not only did the representation of natural philosophy in eighteenth century plays like Thomas Shadwell's Virtuoso Aphra Behn's The Emperor of the Moon Susanna Centlivre's The Basset Table and John Rich's Necromancer or Harelequin Doctor Faustus influence contemporary debates over the role that experimental science was to play public life the theater shaped the very form that science itself was to take By disciplining and ultimately helping to legitimate experimental philosophy the eighteenth century stage helped to naturalize an epistemology based on self evident decontextualized facts that might speak for themselves In this the stage and the lab jointly fostered an Enlightenment culture of spectacle that transformed the conditions necessary for the production and dissemination of scientific knowledge Precisely because Enlightenment public science initiatives taking their cue from the public stages came to embrace the stagecraft and spectacle that Restoration natural philosophy sought to repress from the scene of experimental knowledge production eighteenth century science organized itself around not the sober masculine modest witness of experiment but the sentimental feminized eager observer of scientific performance

Les Demoiselles d'Avignon and Modernism Maite Méndez Baiges, 2022 The book meticulously analyses the history of the critical reception of avantguard art through the interpretations received by one of its greatest emblems Les Demoiselles d'Avignon by Picasso 1907 Since Les Demoiselles has been considered over this century the true paradigm of Modern Art this book is fundamentally a sort of synthesis of the discourses about Modernism from formalism iconology Leo Steinberg's Other Criteria sociological the biographical and psychoanalytical theses cultural and historicist and lastly the impact of post structuralism and the feminist post colonialist and transnational interpretations The final chapter deals with the artistic versions of Les Demoiselles d'Avignon made by artists It is an essay on the different versions and identities of Modern Art and Modernism that have been produced throughout the last century
