Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French Douglas L. Boudreau, Marnie M. Sullivan, 2015-12-24 Ecocriticism is a critical approach that focuses on the representation in literature of the non human elements of the natural world a method of inquiry that has been largely limited to literature written in English The aim of Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French is twofold to introduce ecocriticism to scholars of French language literature and to open ecocriticism to the vision and voices of French literature The chapters look at work not only from France but also from North America the Caribbean and Africa The discussions include fiction poetry film and pedagogy The goal of the collection is to demonstrate not only the applicability of ecocritical inquiry to literature in French but to demonstrate the possibilities of ecocritical theory on the study of French literature and also for ecocriticism itself This collection will be a useful resource both for scholars of French language literature and also for ecocritics who may have had only limited contact with literatures in languages other than English

The Opening Country John Micklewright, 2021-02-28 In this journey of discovery John Micklewright travels the slow way on foot on paths tracks and byways from the Channel to the Alps from the coast of Normandy to the flanks of Mont Blanc The Opening Country is a beautifully written account of his progress through the French countryside an evocative patchwork of landscape nature history literature film and drawing on his father's diaries that stretch back to the 1930s of memoir Always curious absorbing all around him ready on a whim to divert from his chosen route as he heads unhurriedly southwards The natural world unfolds as spring turns to summer with surprises of bird song and butterflies against a constant background of reminders of the economic and social story of rural France and of wars past The result is an engrossing record of a classic long distance walk through Britain's nearest continental neighbour The Opening Country is a book to fire the imagination a call to travel slowly to open eyes and ears to discover and explore

Impersonals and other Agent Defocusing Constructions in French Michel Achard, 2015-01-14 This book investigates French impersonals as a functional category Any structure whose agent is defocused and whose predicate describes a situation stable enough to be generally available should be considered impersonal In addition to il impersonals the category also includes demonstrative ce a middle se and indefinite on structures These different forms belong to the same functional category because they systematically code general and predictable events that cannot be imputed to a specific cause Because generality and predictability are gradual notions impersonals can only be identified within the context of specific constructional islands which therefore constitute the organizing principle of the French impersonal category Conducted in Cognitive Grammar the analysis follows the functional tradition in expanding the scope of French impersonals beyond il constructions but also proposes a way of precisely delineating the category This book will be of interest to anyone interested in impersonal constructions and French linguistics A Critical Bibliography of French Literature: The twentieth century, ed. by D.W.
