Race And Ethnicity In The United States Issues And Controversies:

Contemporary Controversies and the American Racial Divide Robert C. Smith, Richard Seltzer, 2000-05-30 Contemporary Controversies and the American Racial Divide is a detailed study of some of the most racially divisive issues America has encountered in the past decade Smith and Seltzer employ more than forty surveys to explore race based public opinion differences on high profile controversies including the Rodney King and O J Simpson cases the arrest trial jailing and subsequent reelection of Washington D C Mayor Marion Barry the Million Man March and Louis Farrakhan and the Clarence Thomas Anita Hill controversy The authors also look at race based opinion differences on the inner city crack cocaine epidemic and the spread of AIDS among the American populace The divisions in opinion between blacks and whites on these controversies are explained in terms of the distinctive historical and cultural experiences of the different races and the gaps gulfs and chasms in their contemporary social and economic conditions While also noting significant commonalities in opinion across the color line the book focuses on racial differences and their sources and in a concluding chapter advances suggestions as to how the nation might overcome its racial divisions This innovative study is a unique rich contextualized dynamic analysis of race opinion unlike anything else in literature

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Marvin B. Sussman, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Gary W. Peterson, 2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life

Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p
